A. Salisbury, Dentist.

Auburn has a brass band.

The weather is hard on the straw hats which sprout in a few days ago.

The Talmage Tribune reports the revelation of measles in that vicinity, "Dad gasted the measly things."

The grand jury interviewed the jail today, and they all returned. We are unable to report what they think about it.

The war department will furnish the tents for the coming reunion free of expense, and the railroads transport them free of charge.

Madam Honor says that Miss Bell Tulip, the betrothed of Sandy Banks, has been won from her allegiance by the blandishments of one Sol Ray, on whom she now bestows all her smiles.

Quite a number of tramps and vagrants were quartered in the vicinity of the depot and lower Main street, last night and this morning. The city ought to have a stove pile for them to exercise on.

A marriage ceremony will be performed at the M. E. church next Sunday morning in connection with the regular services. We are not at liberty to mention the parties, but they are well-known citizens of Plattsmouth.

The depot, this morning presented a nice, neat, clean appearance, all on account of a dose soap, water and mop. Jimmy Donnelly said he would wear his diamonds, while on duty, to be in harmony with everything else, if he weren't afraid it would give his job away.

At 12 o'clock to day the masons laid the corner stone of Robt. Sherwood's building. This is one of the decided improvements of Plattsmouth, and all will be glad when the corner of Main and Fifth shall be decorated with a building which will be a credit to the enterprise of one of our prominent business men.

The Omaha Bee has another $10,000 libel suit on its hands. This time it is Anthony Kies who is injured by the publication of a special dispatch in the Bee from North Platte, to the effect that Mr. Kies, who is one of the officers of the North Platte Building and Loan Association, had been guilty of embezzlement to the amount of $1,500. Talk is cheap, but it costs money to put it on paper.

The grand jury have presented a number of indictments, among which is one against N. W. Kaneff, of South Bend, for selling liquor without a license. One against Joe Sharp for disposing of mortgaged property; also one against Ed. Everett, of Happy Hollow fame, for stealing Mike Maguire with intent to kill Verily, the way of the transgressor is hard.

The Biographer is a promising venture in monthly periodical literature. It gives a large number of concise, but by no means dry, biographical sketches of men and women eminent in all departments of activity. Subjects are chosen with the view to gratify the public curiosity for particulars of the life and career of people whose names are appearing in the public prints. In a word, their selection is timely. The sketches are ably written, and their interest is heightened by accompanying faithful and well executed portraits. In quality of paper and printing and tastefulness of appearance, the Biographer is among the best periodicals we have seen.

We anticipate that its enterprising publisher will be rewarded with a large sale of his unique magazine, which supplies a need hitherto felt. The Biographer is sent to any address at 25 cents a copy, or $2.50 a year; and to foreign addresses for $3 a year. New York: 23 Park Row.

Mr. M. McElwain, who has been appointed by the Postoffice Department to weigh the mail's crossing the Missouri River, has finished his task, and his report to the department shows that the total weight of all mails crossing the bridge for 29 days is 61,821 lbs. The daily average for 29 days is 2,135 lbs. From this statement the department will average the year's work. According to this calculation, during the 365 days there will come into Plattsmouth 775,625 lbs. of mail matter, or 387½ tons, or about as much as would load a train of twenty-eight freight cars.

One can scarcely imagine the amount of mail matter that is transported in this country in a single year, when we consider the enormous quantity which is transported over one road alone. There is no one branch of the government which has been reduced to such a science as the Postoffice Department.

Was there not something supremely ridiculous in Alex. McIntosh acting as secretary of a temperance meeting? We shall expect to see Satan rebuking his next—"Plattsmouth Journal."

We see nothing so "supremely ridiculous" in Mr. McIntosh acting as secretary of any public assembly, when he was unanimously chosen so to do, but we can imagine something "supremely ridiculous" in the editor of the Plattsmouth Journal, who makes a holy bawl of his temperance proclivities, objecting to the "Law and Order" society paying for the transcripts in the license cases when he himself refused to pay a cent, and had no interest in the matter, whatever. We have no knowledge of Mr. McIntosh ever having injured Mr. Sherman in any manner, and the slurs cast in the editorial columns of the Journal last evening only manifest an ancient disposition to take up and fighting Mr. McIntosh's battles, but all citizens are entitled to a just credit and proper respect for commendable acts.

THE COMING OPERATTA.

Prof. Cushman's Work in the City. They are very few who realize what a magnificent entertainment Professor Cushman has in store for the citizens of Plattsmouth, in his Operatta of the Fairy Queen, which will be given in about a week's time, in the Opera House. Every afternoon and evening rehearsals are held, and over a hundred ladies and children take part in the production of the operatta.

BASE BALL.

The Organization of an Association. A goodly number of artists of the diamond met at the court house last evening to discuss and organize a base ball association. The meeting was called to order and Joe Faircliff elected temporary chairman, and Jas. Patterson temporary secretary. The object of the meeting was stated and discussed, and it was finally decided to organize a base ball association. The secretary took down the names of those present desiring to become identified with such an association. Joe Faircliff was unanimously elected President, Jas. Patterson Secretary, and Kelly Fox, Treasurer. The President and Chas. Spencer were constituted a committee to agitate the matter around town and ascertain how much of a membership could be obtained.

He Was Bound to Know Why.

The editor of our e. c. tackled a citizen the other day, stopped him and asked him why he didn't take the Journal. "Because I do not like it," was the reply. "Why not?" persisted the e. of our e. c. "Because it is so outrageously personal, at times. Why, it reminds me of Potts, the editor in Pickwick Papers." That settled it.

Reunion Notes.

We clip from the Hastings Nebraskian the following notes regarding the coming reunion to be held at that place: The committee to procure tents have succeeded in securing four hundred and fifty hospital tents from the government. If more are required they will be procured from Chicago.

The reunion committee have decided to offer a premium of a pavilion costing $50 to the by drilling Post of the Grand Army. Judges to be chosen by the Post competing for the prize.

From present indications, the reunion of 1883, to be held in Hastings in September, will be the largest gathering ever assembled in Nebraska. The committee have secured the lowest rate of fare ever given, and it is being thoroughly advertised all through the states east of the Big Muddy.

The two railroad companies are working hard for the success of our reunion, and it behooves our citizens to assist in their power towards furthering the cause.

Two thousand members of the G. A. R. from this state, in full uniform, will attend the national encampment at Denver, Col., July 25th. Strickland Post of this city will furnish 30 of this number.

Woman Suffrage.

The annual mass convention of the Nebraska Woman Suffrage association will be held at Grand Island, May 9th and 10th. Mr. Gougar, of Indiana, and Miss Hindman, of Pennsylvania, will address the convention. Visitors will be entertained at the Grand Island W. C. T. U. Certificates for reduced rates on the railroads may be obtained from Ida E. Edson, Omaha. Letters and contributions for the convention should be addressed to Mrs. Lizzie Abbott, cor. sec. N. W. S. A., Grand Island.

The attention of the District court has been occupied to-day in the trial of case of Addison H. Jackman vs. the Missouri Pacific railroad company. The case is an appeal from the report of a board of appraisers, condemning land for railroad purposes. Critter & Ramsey are the attorneys for plaintiff, and J. L. Webster and M. A. Hartigan for defendant. The amount claimed by the plaintiff was $1,000, the jury brought in a verdict for $500.

PERSONALS.

Frank Gail and H. M. Bushnell went to Denver this morning.

Cap't. Palmer went to David City this morning on a business trip.

Mrs. W. H. Baker left this morning for Agency, Ia. to visit her mother.

Miss Nellie Sampson left this morning for St. Joe to visit an aunt who is dangerously ill.

Dr. Stewart, Messrs. Kaneff and Coffee are the delegation from South Bend this morning. Wm. Darrah, one of the old Platts mouth boys passed through on his way home to Lincoln last evening.

Mrs. Matilda Peterson, of Louisville, THE business woman of that burg was in town yesterday settling with Treasurer Newell.

Hon. R. A. Batty, one of the prominent attorneys of Hastings, returned home this morning having been in attendance at the district court.

The delegation to Omaha from this city this morning consists of J. R. Cox the hardware man and Lee Oldham and Sam Thomas, two of Cass' solid granagers.

Hon. G. W. Covell Esq., returned to Nebraska City this morning having disposed of his legal business in the district court. Mr. C. is always a welcome visitor to Plattsmouth.

L. F. Hayward, the general agent of Appleton & Co., who has been visiting our city in the interests of that enterprising firm for the past two years came in last evening from Lincoln.

Tommy Clark and brother of Weeping Water, brothers of Byron Clark of Stroh & Clark came in this morning and as Tommy expressed it merely to see some of the old moss backs of Plattsmouth.

Gen. Stevenson returned to Falls City last night; he will not return before the 10th as he proposes to send to market some ten car loads of cattle which he has been feeding. Evidently the Gen. is something of a "hobby handed" as well as a politician.

The Misses, Alice, Nora and Grace Livingston, nieces of Dr. Livingston, arrived this morning from Montreal, Canada. The HERALD welcomes them to Plattsmouth; and hopes they will be so well pleased with our people and city that their visit shall be an extended one.

John Fitzgerald the proprietor of "Fitz's forty" and other valuable property in this city passed through the city last night to his home in Lincoln. He has been in Philadelphia attending the convention of the National Land League. Our friends in Nebraska in sympathy with the movement could not send a more representative man.

Mr. E. A. Owen, one of the firemen on the B. & M., thought he was playing smart when he went to Jackson, Ohio, and married one of the most beautiful girls of that ancient village, and then sneaked back to Plattsmouth and took up his residence at the City hotel, and never set it up to "the boys." We're laying for him.

Miss Jessie Calder, sister of George Calder, of this city, came in last night for a week's visit from Wynore, where she has a large music class. Miss Calder has many friends in this city who have long recognized her as one of Plattsmouth's most charming daughters, and we can congratulate the good people of Wynore on having so accomplished a lady to attend the musical education of their children.

The band will be at the rink tomorrow night.

Mike Schnellbacher is building a veranda along the east and south sides of his building, at the second story.

The steamer Black Hills, reached Omaha yesterday, and after taking upon more freight, passed on her way up the river.

River Report.

As furnished officially to the War Department.

The river at noon today, stood 6 ft. 5 in. above low water mark, showing a fall of 3 in. since noon yesterday.

Dr. Carver, the famous marksman, passed through the city yesterday on his way to North Platte to meet Buffalo Bill, with whom he is to be associated in the "Wild West" show. The doctor was looking as handsome as ever, and was full of business, and quite enthusiastic over the enterprise in which he is about to embark. He has accepted the challenge of W. Graham, of London, England, for a match at 100 birds for from $1,000 to $5,000 a side, to be shot in this country at Graham's convenience or in England next December.—Omaha Republican

Mr. John Fitzgerald, during his absence in attendance at the meeting of the Irish Colonization Society, was interviewed by a Chicago Tribune reporter, and the following, with other information, was elicited:

"The reporter met Mr. John Fitzgerald, of Lincoln, Neb., who is one of the most extensive farmers in the west. He also a railroad contractor, a bank president and a merchant. Indeed, it would be difficult to guess any money making business in which Fitzgerald is not concerned. He was most enthusiastic about Nebraska. That was the state for immigration in his opinion; there were millions of acres of fertile land, which but waited the work of the settler to bloom and produce abundance. There was bread and work enough for all in Nebraska. The penniless immigrant of today will be a thrifty farmer three years from now if he settles in Nebraska. Mr. Fitzgerald would urge every Irishman who has a friend among the assisted or unassisted emigrants to aid them to his state. An ordinary man who can work at farm labor can earn $30 per month and board all the year round, or may work a farm on shares and make more. The present is the best season of the year to go west. Farmers want assistance for spring work. Those who have little capital can increase it now, and if they buy land it should be plowed in June or July, the fermentation of the rotting vegetation turned under will help rot the soil crust. There is plenty to do for the industrious. Mr. Fitzgerald could not see why Irishmen, who know little about anything else than farming, should settle down in eastern cities to rot among a festering population while there was health and wealth in the west."

this state. Mr. Fitzgerald is exceedingly proud of Nebraska. Nebraska is proud of John Fitzgerald.
