 The river is going down.
 Wednesday is Decoration day.
 The city council meets tonight.
 See the mayor's proclamation elsewhere in this issue.

A number of the shootists are out this afternoon plugging away at glass balls.
 The base ball association meets tonight at the court house, and the presence of every member is desired.
 The HERALD job department has just received a number of fonts of the latest faces in type, among them the "Harper" series for invitation work and new and novel designs; in printing this office cannot be excelled.
 The HERALD is in receipt of comple-mentaries to the Denver Exposition, which opens in July and continues until October. It will be a great event and a wonderful exhibition of the wealth and resources of the Great West.
 The new Methodist church, of Greenwood, will be dedicated on Sunday, June 10th, and will be dedicated by the Rev. Wilson, of this city. This is one of the best churches in the county, and the HERALD congratulates the people of that thriving little burg upon its completion.

At the recent meeting of the Nebraska State Medical Association, held at Lincoln, we notice our townsman, Gen. Livingston, was again selected as corresponding secretary of the association and chairman of the section on surgery. Gen. Livingston was also chosen delegate to the National Medical Convention which meets in Cleveland, June next.

The mighty Missouri is again over its banks opposite Nebraska City and constantly rising. The K. C. St. Joe & C. B. Co. have ordered sixty car loads of rock and all the idle section men along the line to the scene and hope to repair the "bad break." No trains have thus far been delayed although the water is over the track.—Neb. City Press.

Sanford Weaver, an old soldier, who bears many scars from hard fought battle fields, has been promoted to the position of Adjutant of the 6th Regt., No. 45, C. A. R., Plattsmouth.
 This is a deserved promotion, of a worthy and competent member. Comrade Weaver is the proprietor of the Cottage House, where guests are always well treated.

"They say," and "we are informed that the Herald," are the stereotyped phrases used by one editor of our cot-temporary to the other editor of the same journal—in making up news locals for their enterprising localities.
 They boast so much about it. We mildly suggest to that paper that more editors and fewer self manufactured "they says," would be a decided improvement on that little sheet.
 Frank Williams, a young man about town, and runner for Madam Moore's Mansion, indulged in more benzine Saturday than he could successfully handle, and the police swooped down upon him and took him in. After an amusing performance in the police court this morning, the gentle voice of the judge was wafted to the ears of the prisoner in a song of $10 and costs.
 The music was too rich for Frank's blood, and the admittance too high—he boarded with the city.

At the last meeting of the board of managers of the state board of agriculture of Nebraska, held at Omaha on May 16th, it was ordered that the secretary be authorized to advertise the following premiums for the best display of earthenware of Nebraska manufacture; paries competing to have machinery and manufactured pottery for four days of the fair on the grounds. First premium, twenty dollars; second premium, ten dollars.

The HERALD acknowledges the receipt of an invitation through the kindness of Dan. H. Wheeler, Jr., and the commencement exercises of the State University, at Lincoln, which occurs on June 16th, inst. The class consists of twelve members, of which two are ladies and ten are gentlemen.
 Four take the degree of A. B.; two of B. A.; five the degree of B. S.; and one the degree of B. C. E. Dan. H. Jr. will accept the thanks of the HERALD for the invitation.

Our Capt. Lloyd D. Bennett is a Grandfather, and to see the grim smile of satisfaction which overspreads the good. It is the first boy the Captain has had any proprietorship in, and in this one, he has to play second fiddle to his son-in-law, Bro. Wilson, of the Denver Exposition. Capt. Bennett and Madam Bennett are both supremely happy, and their daughter, Mrs. Wilson, is still happier, and all are doing well. The grandson arrived last night, and claims Nebraska as his native State.
 The Simmerman family, comprising father, mother and one son, who came in on Sunday evening on their way to Lenora. They are an unfortunate family. With one son under sentence of death in Nebraska, and another under sentence in the Kansas penitentiary, their lines seem to be drawn in hard places. By Monday morning they seemed to have changed their mind as to Wyoming, and started south with the Indian territory or New Mexico as their probable point, taking Kitt Mudgett, the Grennell mail carrier with them. It were better, perhaps, that Kit had been scalped by the Indians in the heart of W. Keena—Kansas Citizen.

 morning to attend his duties as district attorney at the session of the Lancaster county court.
 J. W. Barnes goes to Beatrice and those places are somewhat convenient to the Oteo Reservation.

 Captain Payne and wife stopped over on their way home from Monmouth, Ill., and spent Sabbath in the city, the guests of His Honor Mayor Smith.
 Payton Roberts Esq., B. & M. land agent of Monmouth, Ill., passed through the city this morning on his way to Lincoln, on business connected with his office.
 June Black, the Weeping Water implement man, spent Sabbath with his parents—that is, part of the time, the rest of course was devoted to his solid girl.
 Mr. John Sharp of the poor farm, came in from Glenwood this morning and reports his son who has been seriously ill as slightly improving, and hopes are entertained for his recovery.
 Dick Straight and wife spent Sabbath at the residence of his brother at South Bend. Dick says "he went up to the farm to get something good to eat as the neighbors have been neglecting him of late." J. Hayden Burns, the law book man of Mills & Co., of Des Moines, Ia., is bers of the legal fraternity with the latest stories of the day as well as the latest decisions of the supreme courts of the various states.

 ager, W. Chambers, with numerous spectators accompany the club. J. H. Donelon, of Glenwood, is selected as the umpire.

Proclamation.
 To the business men of the City of Plattsmouth:
 In view of the importance of the occasion, you are very respectfully requested to observe Decoration day by closing all places of business from 1 o'clock p. m. until 4 p. m. of the same day, thereby giving all parties an opportunity to attend the ceremonies and of showing proper respect for the dead soldiers.
 GEO. S. SMITH, Mayor.

A large crowd visited the rink Saturday night upon the occasion of the prize skate and the contest was a spirited one. The proprietor of the rink chose one referee, the crowd another, and the two chose a third. The following gentlemen were chosen: Walter Houseworth, D. M. Jones and Al.
 Wilaer. After the proper amount of showing off and exhibitions of skill, the prizes were awarded as follows:
 Ladies: Miss Mary Kinser first prize, Jessie White 2d Gents: Cha's Spencer, first Some of Miss White's friends were not pleased with the decision of the referee, and made up a purse and bought her an opera glass. She was some fine skating, and it was no easy matter to decide who really was the best—they are all good (i. e.) the girls (good skaters).

We notice by the despatches that the editorial excursionists are in Denver, and that they were taken possession of one day by Secretary Frank H. Wilson, and shown the Exposition grounds and buildings. Frank knows how to attend to such matters, and people appreciate it.

There seems to be a scarcity of flowers, and the committees anticipate hard work in obtaining enough for Decoration Day. All who have flowers should report them whether waited on by any of the committee or not.

A TOUR OF THE CONTINENT.
 From New York to Denver.
The Dairy of a Tramp.
 MORNING, 9th. Arrived. Seen store of Robt. Geer. Waited till dark, could not get a train, slept in a car loaded with hay, got near frozen to death, fell in with a young man belonging to Terra Haute, Ind., he was bound for Rochester, New York. He was a cigarmaker by trade, his business, on a strike! All we bought that day was our breakfast in Albany—one half pound cheese, one pound crackers. This young man's name was John H. Smith; he had been on a tramp for six weeks; well we went to bunk in a car with a few bales of hay, in middle of night we woke up with the cold and then all slept on one another; were not asleep very long till I began to talk, told my partner to "get up and give that chair at his feet to me
