His Only weak Point. Wall Street News: One of those good, old-fashioned fathers—born and reared on a farm, but willing to see his children live an easier life—came down to "York" the other day to see about getting his son Moses into a bank. He went to a friend, and the friend sent him to the cashier, and the cashier said:

"Is your son quick at figures?"

"Tolerably quick."

"Is he ambitious?"

"Yes; he wants to get on."

"Is he a hard worker?"

"Well, Moses kin mow his three acres of grass per day."

"Why dose he prefer a bank to a store?"

"I swan! I never asked him why, but I guess it's because he thinks there's a better chance to climb up. Moses is right on the climb." "He is perfectly honest, of course?" "Well, now, that's the only weak point Moses has got, and I was going to say to you if you took him in, that if you keep a wire fence between Moses and any money lying around loose, and if you have a rule agin hoss-tradings, and if you don't allow shaking dice or card-playing, and if he will keep sober, Moses will make one of the most tremendous bankers this country ever saw!"
