FROM WASHINGTON.

Crook and the Indians.

Foreign Immigration.

Washington, June 27.—The following correspondence has taken place between Generals Drum and Crook, relative to the report that the captured Apaches had been forced on the reservation at San Carlos:

"Washington, June 25.—Gen. Crook, commanding the department of Arizona: The secretary of the interior has shown to the secretary of war a telegraphic dispatch from Agent Wilson, saying that the renegade Indians were forced on the reservation on the 24th inst. As the secretary of war in his dispatch of the 18th inst, gave special directions to keep the prisoners apart from the Indians who continued peaceful, he supposes, of course, the agent is incorrect in his statement as given above, but if his orders in this respect have been misunderstood, he desires to repeat the instructions of June 18, and have them fully carried out. [Signed] I. C. DAUM, Adjutant General."

"Whipple Barracks, June 26.—Adjutant General of the army, Washington: The report that the Chiricahuas had been forced upon the San Carlos reservation is incorrect. The facts in the case are that those who had surrendered were sent forward under a guard of four companies of cavalry and Indian scouts, my instructions to Captain Crawford being that the Chiricahuas should be kept with the scouts until other arrangements could be made. The Chiricahuas who went after their families told me that they would join the column at the line, or should we have gone too fast then they would follow along the mountains and come in at San Carlos. We have no need of communicating with them until they come in at the agency, and if the first arrivals find those who started back with us, and are not with the scouts, we destroy all chances of ever returning them to the state. As a matter of humanity I am anxious to get in the last of this band so as to leave nothing undone for the recovery of the captive boy [Signed] Crook."

Washington, June 27.—The following is a copy of the correspondence, conducted by telegraph, between the secretary of the treasury and the collector of customs at New York in regard to the pauper immigration:

"New York, June 26.—Charles J. Folger: The commissioner of immigration has notified me of the arrival per steamer Furnessia, after they are landed, of sixty-six families from Ireland. The commissioner do not certify in the language of the law that the emigrants are unable to take care of themselves, but they are from the poorhouses. Their passage was paid by the British government, and nearly all heads of families are furnished with drafts for small amounts. The persons having landed, please inform me what action, if any, I shall take under the law. The immigrants are being detained by the commissioners. [Signed] ROBERTSON, Collector."

Washington, June 26.—Collector of Customs, New York: Though it is inferable from the reports of the commissioners that the immigrants spoken of in your telegram today are within the meaning of section 2 of the act of August, 1882, the section gives you jurisdiction only wherein the commissioners report their conclusion as well as, or instead of the facts. Refer the case back to them, for their judgment as to whether these persons are unable to care for themselves without being a public charge. If the commissioners report affirmatively, put the persons back upon the vessel, and do not permit them to land. If negatively, or if they decline to report their conclusion, let the immigrants depart. [Signed] FOLGER, Sec'y Treas.

ENCOUNTER WITH ROAD AGENTS.

Capture of Outlaws.

Abortionist Convicted.

ATTACKED BY ROAD AGENTS. Helena, Mont., June 27.—At three o'clock last Saturday morning, while the Helena bound Deer Lodge coach was crossing the main ridge of the Rockies, eighteen miles west of this city, two men with handkerchiefs tied across the lower part of their faces, stepped from the brush and ordered the driver to halt. John McCormick, post trader at Fort Missoula, was on board with the driver, and drawing a six shooter he quickly opened fire on the highwaymen, and one was badly hurt and crowded back into the brush. The other returned McCormick's fire, seriously wounding one of the wheel horses. The team took fright and ran, and was soon out of the robber's range. Three other passengers were on board but unharmed. A treasure box was on the coach following the one attacked. Officers from Helena are on the trail of the robbers.

On motion of Rev. J. H. Losier, Buren R. Sherman was renominated for governor by acclamation. On motion of Aaron Kimball, of Howard, O. H. Manning, was renominated for lieutenant governor by acclamation. On motion of Mr. Russell, Professor Akers, of Lyon, was renominated for superintendent of public instruction by acclamation. The convention proceeded to an informal ballot for supreme judge. The ballot stood: Mitchell 262, Reed, 267, Ruddick, 53, Reingmer 78, Chas. H. Lewis 23, Day 133, W. L. Joy 16, W. Calby 16. At this point Gov. Sherman and Lieutenant Governor Manning were presented, and returned thanks in eloquent terms for the honor that had been conferred on them. The convention then proceeded to the first formal ballot for supreme judge. During the progress of this ballot a scene of uproarious mirth ensued, by a delegate from Woodbury county casting five and two sevenths for Day and seven and twelve sevenths for another candidate, and insisting upon it. Before the ballot was concluded the counties began cheering for Reed and it became apparent that he was the successful candidate. On motion the rules were suspended and Judge Reed was declared the nominee of the convention by acclamation.

OUTLAWS CAPTURED. Bismarck, June 27.—A special from Little Missouri says: For some time past the life of Marquis Demars has been threatened by Frank O'Darnell, the leader of a gang of outlaws. On Monday morning at 3 o'clock O'Darnell and his gang rode into town and began firing into the hotel and other buildings. Several persons narrowly escaped the bullets. The sheriff of Morton county, with a posse of citizens, today pursued the outlaws, overtaking them a mile from the railroad. Riley, one of the outlaws was killed in the melee. O'Darnell and the others were captured after a hard fight. There are threats of lynching the prisoners. O'Darnell's threat against the life of the Marquis was owing to the fact that the Marquis occupied too much land for his sheep and cattle ranch.

SHOT AND KILLED. Chicago, June 27.—Wm. Kay, proprietor of a boarding house at Pullman a suburb of this city, shot and instantly killed Thomas Dawdle and George Fox, two young men, this morning. The deceased had lived with Kay, and had made threats against his life. The tragedy occurred in the home of Kay, and he asserts that the act was in self-defense. He surrendered himself to the authorities.

BATHWAY CONVICTED. Philadelphia, June 27.—Dr. Isaac J. Hathaway, in the cellar of whose residence the remains of many infants were found buried, was convicted of having performed a criminal surgical operation upon a servant girl April 8, and was sentenced to pay a fine of $500 and imprisonment for seven years, the fullest extent of the law.

IOWA REPUBLICANS.

Most of the Nominations made by Acclamation.

Sherman Nominated for Governor.

Prohibition Carries the Day

Des Moines, June 27.—The republican state convention met at 11 o'clock, and elected John A. Kasson chairman. Mr. Kasson, in a short but enthusiastically received speech, thanked the convention for the honor bestowed on him. He referred to the favorable auspices under which the convention met, to the economy and success with which the affairs of the nation and state had been administered by the republican party to the high credit of the state, to the great reduction of taxation effected, to the low rate of taxation in this state compared with that of others, to the reform effected in the civil service, and to the protection given at home and abroad to American citizens. He declared that without anticipating the action of the convention it could safely be said that the republican party of Iowa is not in favor of free foreign trade or free alcohol, but rather in favor of a free market for free home industry and enterprise, a free press, free schools, free citizens. In the great and unending debate between the Iowa home and the Iowa saloon, the republican party rendered one year ago today a decision that it could not and would not take the side of the saloon. He counseled moderation and conciliation in debate, and closed by predicting for the party in Iowa, a victory unsurpassed by any before.

The committee on resolutions is as follows: First district, J. F. Wilson; Second, J. Mahan; Third, Daniel Kerr; Fourth, Aaron Brown; Fifth, Rev. S. N. Fellows; Sixth, F. Campbell; Seventh, J. S. Clarkson; Eighth, Gen. A. J. Baker; Ninth, Jno. Y. Stone; Tenth, D. D. Miracle; Eleventh, J. N. Miller.

The state central committee: First district, C. A. Lisle; second, W. C. Gregory; third, W. G. Donnan; fourth, N. C. Deering; fifth, Charles Weaver; sixth, W. A. McGrew; seventh, Eli Wilkins; eighth, A. B. Shaw; ninth, Wm. Waddell; tenth, B. H. Harkness; eleventh, Finley Burke. The afternoon session of the convention assembled at 2 o'clock. The committee on credentials reported every county in the state fully represented, and no contested delegations. The committee on permanent organization reported as follows: Chairman, Col. D. B. Henderson, Dunwoody; secretary, Calvin Monroe; a vice president from each congressional district, and one assistant secretary from each congressional district. The report was unanimously adopted. Mr. Henderson was escorted to the chair, and made a speech full of fire and enthusiasm, pledging to the home as against the saloon, and to home industries against the influence of British gold power. His speech was enthusiastically applauded. One of the vice-presidents was Addison Rhodes, of Mahaska, a former slave, who had been sold on the block. The committee on resolutions was not ready to report to the convention,
