And Rolls up a 30,000 Majority for the Republican Ticket.
The Legislature Republican in Both States.

Cincinnati, O., Oct. 9.—An enormous vote was polled in this county (Hamilton) today. At 10 o'clock only five per cent is heard from, which gives a net republican gain of 202. Both parties claim the county. The reform democratic vote is small, probably not exceeding 1,500. The republicans claim large gains in the German wards, and claim that Foraker will overcome New man's majority last year, which was 10,689 in Hamilton. The democrats are equally hopeful that they have carried the entire county and state tickets.
 Dayton, Oct. 9.—At 11 o'clock it is safe to say that the entire democratic county ticket in this (Montgomery) county is elected. Slight republican gains all around. A heavy vote is polled for the second amendment.
PROHIBITION PROBABLY LOST
 Columbus, Oct. 9.—671 wards and precincts show a net republican gain of 1,530. Total vote, 194,539; second amendment, 98,461. The second amendment is probably defeated. No returns from the amendment have been received from Hamilton county or Cleveland.
 The Hamilton county legislative ticket is very close, with the chances in favor of the republicans. Hoody will probably carry Hamilton county by a very small majority. There is no reliable information at this hour in regard to the legislature. All the amendments will probably fail unless Cincinnati should develop unexpected strength for the second.

Columbus, O., Oct. 9.—705 wards and precincts show a net republican gain of 1,890. Total vote, 295,967. Second amendment, 105,691.
 Cleveland, Oct. 10. 1 a. m.—When the polls closed the republicans gave up nearly every ward and the democrats claimed everything in the city and townships, but as the evening progressed the republicans became more hopeful and the democrats began to be doubtful of the result. At one o'clock no ward is fully counted, and it is not likely the result in the city will be ascertained before morning, but it is known that the democrats have lost to the republicans gained where less expected. Probably the democrats elect most of the county ticket, but part of the legislative ticket is in doubt. The democrats concede the loss in Cuyahoga of 1,200 under last fall's vote.
THE VERY LATEST.
 Columbus, Oct. 10.—We have received returns from 705 wards and precincts, which give a net republican gain of 4,890. At this rate of increase based upon the number of voting places in the state, the republican gain will be probably about 12,000, which would elect Hoody. Figuring the total vote received with the probable total vote in the state, it increases the republican gains. It is impossible to determine who is elected tonight, but the chances appear to favor Hoody.

IOWA RETURNS.
 Des Moines, Oct. 9.—Des Moines county is democratic by 800 to 1,000 majority. The republicans concede a majority of 800.
 Des Moines, Oct. 9. 11:50 p. m.—Fifty seven precincts show a net republican loss of 282. The Des Moines city vote is not yet counted, but there is probably a republican majority. The state committee estimate the majority on the state ticket at 32,500 to 35,000 republican on all except Judge Reed, a 30,000 majority for him. Forty to fifty republican majority on judicial ballot in the legislature, which will be very close on prohibition.
FURTHER FIGURES
 Des Moines, Oct. 9.—Eleven precincts of Polk county give Sherman 2,760; Kinne 1,821, Weaver 210. Four townships of Marion county give Sherman 970, Kinne 540, Weaver 410. Reed for Judge is ahead of his ticket. The famous senator and representatives are elected.
 Dawsonport, Oct. 9.—City and eight townships give Kinne 3,557. Sherman 1,348, Hayes 3,847, Reed 1,800. The democrats elect all members of the legislature. Scott county gives about 2,500 democratic majority.
 Dubuque, Oct. 9.—Dubuque city, 1-700 majority for Kinne, and the county will give him 3,500 majority.
 Des Moines, Oct. 10, 8 a. m.—The republican state committee now figures as follows: Gov. Sherman's plurality, 28,000; Judge Reed 30,000, and 17, and giving the republicans 37, and probably 40, of the senators. Of the house, 42 republican members are certainly elected, and 39 democrats or fusion.

MORE OF THE SAME.
 Des Moines, Oct. 9.—Clinton City complete—Sherman 612, Kinne, 1,505.
 Returns from 108 precincts show a net republican loss of 1,310. There are 1,660 voting precincts in the State. Late advices indicate the majority in Dallas county far Sherman and the republican ticket is from 400 to 500.
 Council Bluffs, Oct. 9.—The republican majority in Council Bluffs is about 200—a large republican gain. The county elects the entire republican ticket, with the possible exception of a senator.
 Bremer county advices are 606 majority for Sherman.
 Plymouth county is probably democratic by 200 majority.
 Des Moines, Oct. 9.—Two townships in Buchanan county give democrats 620, republicans 546.
 Five wards in this city give Sherman 517 majority. Two wards are not counted, but they will increase the majority.
 Webster county will give the republican state ticket 300 majority.
 Burlington, Ia., Oct. 9.—Returns are coming in slow. There is a light vote on account of the rain. The total vote of the city of Burlington is 3,189. The democrats have carried the county by about 800 majority, being 1,005 less than last year. The democrats claim the county by 1,000.
