The Railways. .

Making it Warm For the St. Louis Gamblers.

Miscellaneous Matters.

TO THE SEABOARD.

Chicago, Oct. 16 .- The Wabash company has opened a freight line to the seaboard, to be known as the Wabash Eastern Short Line. It runs over the Baltimore & Ohio to the junction with the main road, and then over the main ELEVATOR CHARGES. New York, Oct. 16 -Letters received to-day by the railroad commissioners from Chauncy Depew, of the New York Central, and of G. R. Blanchard, of the Erie Railroad in regard to their refusal to comply with the recommendation to abolish elevator charges, say this could not be done without an arrangement with the Baltimore & Ohio, and l'ennsylvania roads, unless the commerce of the port was seriously injured. Charges at Philadelphia, Baltimore, Boston and Montreal compelled them to lighter grain at an expense of three-fourths of a cent a bushel, and subject grain to one cent a bushel addi_ tional charges by floating elevator. They hoped to be able to bring about OPERA HCUSE some adjustment, which would be equitable and satisfactory to all, but it had been impossible as yet to accomplish this result.

A THROUGH LINE .

San Francisco, Oct. 16 -The first through sleeper to St. Louis via the Atlantic & Pacific and St. Louis & San Francisco railroads will leave here Satutday morning next. The route will be by Mohave, Tie Needles, Arbuquerque and Halstead, to St. Louis, a distance of 2,724 miles. When this new route opens, the Atchison, Topeka & Santa Fe road will cease running express trains from Albuquerque to Deming. No through cars will be run from here to Kansas City. Beginning on Saturday next the Atlantic & Pacific will be he main southern overland route.

THE PACIFIC ROADS. Kansas City, Oct. 16 .- The general passenger and ticket agents of Pacific roads and eastern convections met here today for the purpose of adjusting rates and divisions of Pacific coast passenger husiness. Seventeen lines wero represented. Owing to the absence of General Agents Nims, of the Denver & Rio Grande, and Goodman, of the Central & Southern Pacific, the meeting adjourney till tomorrow, after appointing a committee of seven members to consider the matters at issue and prepare a statement of the same. The two main questions are: First, established rates between common points east of the Missouri and Pacific coast points, Second, a satisfactory division of such rates between eastern and western lines. Several perplexing points are involved, and the meeting will probably continue three or four days. A RAID ON THE GAMBLERS. St. Louis, Oct. 16 .- The Post-Dispatch continues its revelations of the testimony given before the grand jury regarding the gambling ring and police department. It prints this afternoon ness. ten columns of evidence of J. White. attorney of Police Commissioner Kin-Kead. He swore that he informed Gov. Crittenden that the resignation sent him by Warren McChesney, alleged to be the head of the gambling ring, was a forgery, an : that the governor insisted on Kinhead sending him another one; that after parleying and compromising it was finally settled that the genuine resignation should take effect October 1. President Tutt, president of the third national bank, testified that he demanded blank resignations of two gentlemen who could have been appointed police commissioners on that condition, but they refused; that the idea and suggestion of blank resignations originated solely with Governor Crittenden, and were for his use. Charles Green, president of the fair association, testified that Mr. Tutt demanded a blank resignation from him for the governor, but he refused. Ex-Ponce Commissioner Bland, testified to the same facts. Ex-Commissioner Kinkead narrated the circumstances of his resignation, and now he informed the governor that it was a forgery sent by Warren McChesney. He narrated how the ring tried to find out if the commissioners ever were acquainted with loose woman, so that they might get t em in their power. In the court of appeals an application was made for information asking the pelice board to produce its records of the last meeting, and petitioning the court to reverse to commence Sept. 30. and continues to and including Oct. 6 1883 good rethe action of the board in ousting Chief of Police Campbell without preferring charges.
