SUPPOSE the HERALD were to reiterate the charges made against Mr. Patterson of witholding funds in payment of the registered warrants of the county, when he was county treasurer, to the injury of the county, and the owners of the warrants-would that be lie. any reason why Mr. Cush ng's party friends should not vote for him?

It should be well under-tood that the board of Cass county commissionhighest bid ler, either as to the county attorney business or any other business | that the court would affirm the unconwhich is not true Mr. Allen Beeson has not been employed as county at torney, except to attend to the cases they have done their full duty in look ing after the interests of the county.

MR. ALLAN BEESON desires the man, lawyer, as he, (Beeson) says he believes that individual pretends to be, to stand right up and say whether or not he considers one hundred dollars was too much to charge for the business he has transacted for Cass county. Mr. Beeson further says he is willing to let a committee of honest grangers examine the amount of work he has done for $100, and say whether or not he has and pass their judgment upon his were Butler. The democratic managers of this campaign should bear in mind the last spring's city election, and remember that personal abuse of good citizens makes votes against the party that resorts to such means to secure votes. General Smith is too well and favorably known in this community to be destroved by any such a set of men as are backing at his heels. He treats his fellow men fairly, and will be heard from in this campaign to the entire satisfaction of the ward bummers who are assuming a liernic, because it is a political campaign, to make lying attacks upon him through the public prints. The HETALD propeses to do its utmost to elect the republican ticket, but not by throwing mud at good democrats

> We think the republican ticket should fairly and honorably be supported by all good republicans, from the top to the bottom; because it is a better ticket than our democratic neighbors have put up If our democratic friends have any valid reasons why Mr. Cushing should be chosen county treasurer over Mr. Newell, the best county treasurer Cass county has ever had, we would be glad to know thein. If John Green would make a better county clerk than Mr. Jennings, the best county clerk we have ever had: if Mr. Green is a more flt and capable man, let us have the reasons and jacts: let the voters know them, and so we say with each nominee on the republican ticket.

Come on, gentlemen, we would like you to compare tickets and see if we have not the best men before the pub-

CIVILIRICHTS BILL.

Washington special: The decision of the United States supreme court in the ers have not let any contracts to the civil rights case was not entirely unexpected. The decision in a similar case last winter had created the impression and he who says they have, states that stitutionality of the law. The persons who have manifested the greatest intterest in the decision are the Washington hotel keepers. The hotels since the law was passed have not received colnow in process of litigation, and in this ored persons. No prosecution has been the board of commissioners consider attempted. There has has been so much doubt as to the constitutionality that there has been no disposition to at tempt to enforce the law except against one or two restaurant keepers. The decision of today in effect affects its whoever he may be, especially if he is a constitutionality as to the District of Columbia and the territories. Several of the hoter keepers declare that they will give the law no more recognition north of the Potomac than they will be required to do south of the Potomac river, and that the hotel keepers generally would doubtless incur the risk of penalties of the act rather than to admit negroes to their tables. The supplementary civil rights act was under consideration from January to March the county, and for which he charged 1875, and during the consideration of it occurred to e protracted deadlock in the house which has become bistorical. AND CIGARS, BOTTLED BEFR, charged too much; that he is willing to Mr. Randall was the leader of the oppolet a committee of merchants or man sition. The bill was passed in the house by a vote of 148 to 118.

In the senate the bill was passed-the senate against the constitutionality preme court would hold it invalid and void. Edmunds, on the other hand, was the advocate of the constitutionbary, and every other republican candi-date, and all their relatives, together purpose of the bill was to protect the with the republican party of Cass county, stand up and say they are not in favor of letting any contracts to the highest bidder.

The Board of County Commission—ers and Mr Allen Beeson, all say, the descriptions of the bill was to protect the people against discriminations founded exclusively upon color. In the eight years since the bill passed it has failed to justify the expectation of its friends or the predictions of its enemies. The first judicial opinion under the new law was delivered by Judge Emmons, of Tennessee, who in a charge to the
