Hastings claims the position of third city in the State and wants her police uniformed. Plattsmouth is the third city in the State and has her police uniformed in the blue and gold. Such is metropolitan life in Nebraska.

Full stock of Minnesota flour $4.20 per 100; Lincoln's own brand $4.00; Lincoln patent, $3.75; Schlutz's patent, $3.50; White Lily, $3.00; Rye flour, $2.00; bran, 70 c; chop feed, $1; shorts, $1. by P. J. Hansen. 2051f

About twenty German emigrants fresh from "waterland" passed through the city last night on their way to De Witt and David City, where some of them had already secured farms through the agency of friends already residing there.

I am not to the front neither am I behind, and if you would like to see a full stock of crockery, groceries or canned goods, call in at my store and you will find the same P. J. Hansen. 2051f

In the police court yesterday, Mr. Gibson, the "under dog" in the Barry-Gibson gloveless contest, was fined $5 with the usual trimmings, on charge of being drunk and disorderly. Not having the wherewith to liquidate the aforesaid sum and appease an outraged public, he was remanded to the county jail.

Geo. T. Sayer vs. W. J. Wills. This was the most warmly contested case this week; great credit is due Messrs. Geo. S. Smith and Byron Clark, plaintiffs' attorneys for their successful management of the case. Judgment rendered for plaintiff.

Paxton & Gallagher vs. James Woodson. Trial to court; judgment for plaintiff in the sum of $1,065.50.

Meteorologically speaking everything is lovely here, if we may except a slight humidity of the atmosphere, while but a few miles east as well as west, the ground is covered with snow. At Corning, Iowa, the snow was 3 inches deep this morning, while at Hastings it was 4 inches deep at ten o'clock last night, and still snowing. Many people were out in their sleighs at Hastings as the train went through, enjoying the full benefit of the snow covered streets.

Acres and tons of oat straw are every year wasted or burned, while dollars upon dollars are spent each year by the merchant and business man for wrapping paper. Why do not our citizens put their capital together and convert this straw into wrapping paper? Hitherto we have manufactured nothing but brick and cord wood, and now that this enterprise is likely to fail for want of demand, should not our people look to some other enterprise in which to invest their capital.

R. B. Brewster & Son, on lower Main street, are manufacturing a complete bed spring. Mr. Brewster calls it the "solid comfort spring" and it looks as though it was well named. Mr. B. says it took the first premium at the state fair over all competitors. Large bundles of steel, copper covered wire, from which they make the different kinds of springs with a machine for that purpose, with 1 inch lumber for slats, completes the list of raw material and its uses. Large quantities of them are being made and disposed of, so that it has become quite an industry in our city, and one that is well worth patronizing.

The people of the precincts adjoining the timber skirting the Platte and Missouri rivers have concluded to hunt down and clear out the wolves which infest the jungle skirting the streams of the county. A meeting for that purpose is called for next Saturday afternoon at two o'clock. Here is an opening for rare sport for our citizens. These wolves have been a source of annoyance to the farmers all the past summer in destroying pigs, lambs and poultry, and it is to be hoped that the people of the city and county will join the hunt with dog and gun, to aid in exterminating these pests.

PERSONALS.

Mr. Crouse finished his fruit tree delivery in this city, yesterday, and left this morning for Crete.

Pete Evland, a solid farmer from the Bushbury neighborhood, is in the city today, accompanied by Mr. Hulfish, the genial postmaster at Bushbury.

Mr. Fisher, the State Journal's commercial tourist, is in the city today.

J. P. McPherson and wife and Miss Lizzie Leesley, of Nebraska City, after a brief visit with relatives, at Louisville, are today the guests of Mrs. McPherson's brother, J. E. Leesley.

N. W. Kanef, came down from South Bend this morning.

H. J. Streight, South Bend's best merchant, is with us today.

Squire Arnold, of Ashland, is attending district court today.

Mrs. G. Metzger, of Louisville, is in the city today.

Myron Wheeler went to Lincoln last night.

Alec Schlegel got home from the North Loupe country last night, where he secured a good farm for future operations in the cattle business.

W. H. Newell arrived home this morning from a little trip out in the country.

Charley Bates, the South Bend druggist, is in the city today, having been subpoenaed as a witness in the Joe Sharp case.

D. S. Draper went up to Louisville last night, presumably to "fix things" in a good shape up there for a democratic victory.

Mr. J. B. Baird of Bushbury, made the Herald a pleasant call this afternoon.

Mr. Montgomery, of the law firm of Greif & Montgomery, of Omaha, is in attendance at court today.

Hoa, J. M. Roundtree, a member of the Illinois legislature, was in the city yesterday the guest of his friend David Campbell.

Mr. Carl Kling started last evening on his first trip "on the road," representing Frank Carruth's Jewelry store. Mr. Carruth is in this way extending his trade beyond the limits of a strictly local city and county business.

Mr. W. E. Kline, long in the B. & M. store department in this city, and lately in charge of the company's store depot at Lincoln, has tendered his resignation to the B. & M. to accept a position with Mr. C. S. Dawson, at Topeka, Kansas, in the store department of the Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe R. R. Mr. Kline is well and most favorably known in this city, and his change to another company will be regretted.

Misses Alice and Nora Livingston, nieces of Dr. Livingston, who have passed the summer in Plattsmouth, will remain in the city through the winter. Those in the city who have been taking lessons in drawing, painting, and vocal culture, from them during the summer, will no doubt be much gratified to learn that they will remain through the winter, and for sometime yet be residents of Plattsmouth.

The state against Joseph Sharp monopolizes the attention of the court and jury tonight. The facts in the case as near as we could glean them are about as follows:

On the 30th of October, 1882, Mr. Joseph Sharp then living near South Bend mortgaged some horses to B. Lombard, Jr. of Iowa, who has an agency in Lincoln, claiming that no loan of any kind existed against them although he had on the 13th of the same month mortgaged the same property to Squire Arnold of Ashland. He then sold some of the horses without the knowledge or consent of the mortgagee, and also continued to his purchaser that the property was his own, to which he had a clear title. The matter soon afterward came to the ears of Mr. Lombard, who caused the arrest of Sharp, who gave bail for his appearance at the December term of the district court. Court came on and the grand jury found two indictments against Sharp in accordance with the above facts, not being able to secure bondsmen he was incarcerated in the county jail until a few months ago when he gave bonds and was again allowed his liberty. Mr. Sharp's defense, we learn, is based upon the fact that he was drunk for months at a time, to such an extent that he was not responsible for what he did, that he was not in his right mind, that the intent to do a wrong was wanting, consequently he should not be responsible. The case has excited considerable interest, and will be warmly contested on both sides, district Attorney Strode appears for the state and Vannatta & Wheeler for the defendant.

Notice to Sportsmen.

At a club meeting last evening the days for the annual hunt were changed from Thursday and Friday Nov. 1st and 2nd to Wednesday and Thursday Oct. 31st and Nov. 1st. The count must take place by noon of Friday the 2nd and the annual supper will be held on Saturday evening. The resolution allowing each member of the club to invite a couple as guests was changed so that no invitations are to be made the members of the club only participating in the supper.

A Letter to the Point.

PLATTSMOUTH, Oct. 24, 1883.

ED. HERALD:—I see an article in the Journal of last night signed by "Republican" seeking to revive the old campaign lie that Geo. S. Smith sold out the county in the celebrated Hobbs cases.

In the first place, Hon. Geo. W. Covel, of Nebraska City, a good lawyer and a democrat was the leading attorney in those cases, and had the main control of the same, was employed by Mr. Ramsey when he was county commissioner and the insinuation or charge that Mr. Parmele ever drew a check for me, or offered or ever gave me any money to dismiss the above named cases, is a base, malicious lie, circulated for political purposes, and if Mr. Republican will be man enough to disclose his real name, he may have an opportunity to prove his statements in court.

GEO. S. SMITH.

It Hurt.

For ten days or two weeks the Journal and "Citizen" have been laboring late, early and continuously, with my eight line communication, trying to begot the people into the belief that Beeson was injured, and the $147.50 man was abused. Go on, gentle, while you are thus engaged you are doing no injury to anybody, nor misrepresenting the tariff question.

ANOTHER CITIZEN.

"The Mexican government has just negotiated a loan of $10,000,000 from American capitalists. The bonds are to be taken at eighty-five cents on the dollar, bearing 9 per cent interest."

The Mexican government must be hard up to pay such an exorbitant rate of interest with their bonds below par, while "Uncle Sam" gets all the money needed at four per cent, with the bonds above par.

Commissioner's Proceedings.

Minutes of September meeting read and approved. Order allowed Wm. Hixon on M. B. Murphy & Co. for $13 per week for merchandise for family one month if needed so long.

Order allowed Enos Burger on road fund for $50.

Order allowed J. M. Carter on road fund $300.

Order allowed J. H. Becker for use of district No. 13, for 1,000 feet of lumber.

Order allowed John Wallinger, 1,000 feet lumber.

Eight Mile Grove Items.

October 24, 1883.

Isaac Manion, of Weeping Water, was down to this place on business last week.

Miss Anna Calkins, one of Louisville's best teachers was visiting at home Sunday.

Mrs. W. Jenkins has been very sick the past few days, but glad to state is much better.

A. S. Will has lost six head of cattle with the black leg within the past two weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Slocum of Mt. Pleasant buried their baby in the Grove cemetery today.

W. D. Crawford, of Weeping Water, made W. Jenkins a pleasant visit last week.

Mr. John Pool, of South Bend, an old time citizen of this place, was visiting among his old friends here as the guest of Mr. Samuel Richardson last week.

Charley Truman, one of the sons of veterans came out in a new uniform suit, and looks very much like a young soldier just starting out—but not to war.

J. T. Lloyd, Squire Morrow and others, went to Greenwood last week, each for a load of potatoes for their own supply this winter.

Martin and Thomas Ruby returned a few days ago from Iowa with a car load of cattle, which they will feed this winter.

Perry Rose brought in his herd of cattle, after delivering, has gone to Vaparaíso, where he will work the fall.

Mr. Calkins and his son Homer returned home last week from West Union, where they have been engaged for the past two months, looking hale and hearty.

Considerable sickness is prevailing in this vicinity, and Dr. Sturdivant is being kept so busy he has but little time to devote to his special patients of late.

Warren McConkey arrived with his herd of cattle from Seward county last week, he will remain at home for a while and rusticate among his old chums.

Nelise Johnson and Geo. McGee returned from the west last week where they have been in view of land, they each entered a home stead in Holt county.

Quarterly meeting will be held at the M. E. church Saturday and Sunday. The elder will be here to assist Rev. Mally, the local minister. Come out everybody.

Hurd Minford took a trip north on Sunday in view of wild geese, he had not gone far until he found a charming one at Mrs. Craig's, and thought it useless to go farther.

DICK.

Now the sportsmen polish up their shooting irons preparatory to the annual hunt which promises to eclipse any hunt ever heretofore recorded in the annals of the club.

Bailou's vs. Union Block.

In the case of Bailou & Co., the Omaha lumber firm, vs. Dr. John Black and the M. E. Church, an important decision has been rendered by His Honor Judge Pound, at the present term of the District Court, in which he holds the present Mechanics' Lien Law unconstitutional. The principal grounds upon which Judge Pound bases his decision, in this case, we are informed, is the failure of the "Mechanics' Lien Law" to conform to Sec. 2 of Article 3 of the present constitution; which declares that:

"No bill shall contain more than one subject and the same shall be clearly expressed in its title."

In other words, His Honor holds that the legislature, which enacted the present "Mechanics' Lien Law," disregarded the constitutional provision and embraced many subjects in the act, while its title expresses nothing, clearly.

This decision will interest our lumber dealers who have been compelled to lean upon this "lien law" to collect many of their bills; and in certain cases where they have thought themselves secure by virtue of mechanics' liens, already filed against property, they may be sufferers to a considerable extent.

The amount involved in the Bailou case was considerable, much of which was disputed by the owners of the Union block, who were willing to pay Messrs. Bailou & Co. every cent which they could exact justly, but that firm.

Dr. Black and the M. E. Church assert that considerable lumber is charged up to their building, in the case of Bailou & Co., which was never purchased by the builders of "Union Block," and which never went into their building; hence the lien and litigation in regard to the same.

The formal acceptance of the third Missouri river bridge in Nebraska occurs at Blair Saturday. Today the Locomotive list is being made there similar to the test made of the Platts mouth bridge and the structure will be at once opened for traffic. This bridge is almost a counterpart of the bridge at this city being built by George S. Morrison who will be well remembered as the engineer in charge here. To the people of northern Nebraska this new and certain outlet to the east will prove of much value.
