MANITOBA JOURNALISM.

Rat Portage Progress: I still support my reputation by publishing a newspaper, and my family by sawing wood.

THE emperor has accepted the resignation of Bismarck from the presidency of the cabinet and appointed his successor, Butticher, the minister of state.

THE Oakland Independent says the Chicago, St. Paul, Minneapolis and Omaha surveying corps have completed the survey and estimates between Oakland and Decatur, and are now busy surveying side tracks, etc., at that point. Meanwhile the survey party is still in the field west of Scribner.

THE Indianapolis Sentinel calls upon the Democratic "cowards" to go to the rear—apparently forgetful of the fact that if this advice were followed, most of its leaders would have to take back seats. It is not good policy to cashier a whole army at the beginning of an engagement.—Dubuque Times.

MR. BLAINE is the almost unanimous choice of the republicans of the Pacific coast for the Presidency. The San Francisco Argonaut has been receiving a large number of letters from the States and Territories of the Pacific slope giving Presidential preferences. In regard to the Presidency 2,675 letters were received, of which 2,517 expressed a preference for Blaine; and in regard to the Vice-Presidency 2,572 letters were received, of which 2,120 were in favor of Mr. Lincoln.

THE New York Herald is publishing in the order in which they are received letters from the governors of states and territories, in answer to inquiries as to personal and public preferences for presidential candidates and opinions upon political issues. So far the letters from democratic governors indicate considerable diversity and incongruity of opinion with reference both to candidates and the tariff. The governor of Nevada is enthusiastically for Tilden, and strangely enough, also for "revenue reform;" while the governor of Arkansas is for McDonald, and yet doesn't care particularly what the platform says as to the tariff; Governor Cameron the readjuster governor of Virginia, says emphatically that "a great majority of the voters of that state, without reference to party affiliations, are in favor of a tariff distinctively protective and that no party can carry Virginia on an anti-protection platform.

BUT a few days ago and democratic papers were shouting out and bellowing to the country to look upon law and order and Mississippi justice. Down in that blessed land of peace, the other day, a grand jury indicted Wheeler in Copiah county, for the murder of Print Mathews; hence, democracy cried lustily to stand aside and see justice. Now, mark the justice: A dozen witnesses in the trial, swore that Wheeler shot Mathews because he was a republican; swore that Wheeler had threatened to do it; had bragged about doing it, and that Mathews was shot in the back in cold blood without a word of altercation. The murderer went on the stand, swore that he shot Mathews in self defense, and on that the jury promptly acquitted him. So this is the exhibition of justice we are called to look upon by the democratic press.

When the senate committee went down there this winter and secured the overwhelming evidence from the mouths of living witnesses of the political murders in that state, democracy saw that it was necessary to make a showing or a sacrifice of one of their patriots; hence, Wheeler was arrested for the murder of Mathews; otherwise, no arrest would have been thought of. But murderer's friends were on hand, and a pack of dogs and a pack of jury from among the patriots, very promptly cleared Wheeler regardless of evidence or the desire of the democratic party to make a showing, and hence that party has the humiliation of seeing their own show of honor turned into a farce such as has characterized the trial of every political murder in the south for ten years.

OUR TEXAS SUMMER RESORT.

Corpus Christi, Texas.

A beautiful city on Corpus Christi Bay, Nueces county, (railroad connection via Laredo, and Morgan line of steamers via Galveston and New Orleans), is now the favorite summer resort of the South as well as the most fashionable. The city has accommodations for fifteen hundred (1500) persons. Hotels at reduced rates; sea bathing; bath houses; sailing on yachts, sloops and schooners; bicycle riding; Stutz Silver Cornet Band; concerts each evening; base ball playing; roller skating; glass ball shooting; sliff riding; sack racing; walking matches; horse racing. All amusements free of charge to visitors and excursionists during the summer months. (J. G. Stutz and Mammoth Star Company.) The Missouri Pacific, I and G. N., Texas Central, Sunset and Texas Mexican railroads are giving greatly reduced rates to families and small parties visiting this popular Long Branch of Texas. Excursions from Palestine, Dallas, Waco, Fort Worth, Marshall, Denison, Austin, San Antonio and Laredo are talked of. No such inducements have ever been offered by any summer resort. To those seeking health, visit Corpus Christi.

JEFF DAVIS AGAIN RAMPANT.

Jeff Davis has had another opportunity to air his treason and vent his hatred of the Union. In view of the forthcoming military encampment of State troops at Rome, Ga., the projectors of the affair invited him to be present. In his letter expressing his regrets that he cannot attend, Mr. Davis says: "The inducements you offer are to me most attractive. To see the veterans of the 'war for State sovereignty' and the sons of those who so nobly maintained the cause [of slavery and treason] would be to me a pleasure of which it is with sincere regret I find myself deprived. Borne down by overwhelming numbers, Southern resistance to wrong and usurpation proved unavailing; but, believing as I did and do, that the cause was just—that we were but asserting the eternal truths on which our fathers founded American independence, and which sooner or later I hope and believe the American people will reassert—I cannot admit that ours was a lost cause [slavery and the right of secession]. It may not be—I hope it never will be,—necessary to vindicate that cause by force of arms; but, when the passions of the day subside and reason has replaced truth upon her throne, ours will again be recognized as the union [?] of free, sovereign, and independent States, held together by a common interest and the noble desire to transmit the blessings [what blessings?] to our posterity forever."

This is the old story which Davis rehearses whenever the opportunity offers, but this time it is told with more of bitterness than usual and with an expression of belief that the dogma of State sovereignty and right of secession are not lost causes, but that the time will come when they will be recovered, if not in a bloodless way then by force of arms. It will also be observed that he reaffirms more emphatically than usual that the Rebellion was a war against the Union and for State sovereignty, grounded upon "the eternal truths upon which our fathers founded American independence"—a union [meaning alliance] of free [and slave], sovereign, and independent States."—Chicago Tribune.

The Emperor Louis Napoleon smoked only the finest cigars the world could produce. Prof. Horsford says the Emperor's cigars were made especially for him in Havana from leaf tobacco grown in the Golden Belt of North Carolina, this being the finest leaf grown. Blackwell's Bull Durham Smoking Tobacco is made from the same leaf used in the Emperor's cigars, is absolutely pure and is unquestionably the best tobacco ever offered.
