Open Again.

Wm. Webber wishes to announce that the Elkhoru saloon is again open to business as heretofore, the repairs and new work in the room now being nearly completed.

To the good people of Plattsmouth City and Cass County:

The committee upon general arrangements for the appropriate observance of Memorial Day, is compelled to appeal to your generosity and patriotism, as the soldiers of the Grand Army did when they looked back to the good, loyal people at home, during the darkest hours of the country's peril, for encouragement and aid in fighting her battles. We do not ask of you treasure, we simply appeal to you to give us your presence, and aid and assist our Post in observing this Memorial Day, now made a National Holiday by the American Congress.

We solicit from every one a floral offering upon Friday next. We ask of you to save your flowers for our dead, and your own, who silently rest in Oak Hill Cemetery. A few flowers from each citizen will evidence your love and veneration for the dead soldiers of the Republic, and will bring to you the respect and esteem of his surviving comrade.

Send in your donations of flowers to Post head-quarters early Friday forenoon, May 30th.

By order of Committee on General Arrangements.

A citizen who ought to know remarked to the HERALD that inside of sixty days the B. & M. would have a wagon transfer between this city and Pacific Junction, operated on the same plan as the transfer at Omaha.

Tuesday evening the ladies of the Presbyterian church will entertain their friends at a sociable to be held at Chaplain Wright's in the second ward. All who attend may feel assured that the evening will be a very pleasant one.

Mayor Smith returned this morning from Chicago and Cincinnati where he has been on a hurried business trip. Our Mayor, however, found time to make an official visit with Carter Harrison, who entertained him with Presidential prospects of all parties.

Omaha is a daisy town. Yesterday they had their regular Sunday shooting scrape, and the mob came near having a lynching matinee over it. Beside the shooting scrape a man was accidentally killed by the cars; a drunken man came near killing himself by falling in a cellar, and one or two fighting scrapes wound up the Sunday record in that city.

MEMORIAL DAY.

Programme of Exercises for McConihie Post G. A. R.

Head-quarters McConihie Post, No. 45, G. A. R., Department of Nebraska.

I. The members of the Post will meet at their hall at 1 o'clock p. m. and move out from their quarters at 2 o'clock, standard time.

The Adjutant will arrange the Post in one division in charge of the Post Commander.

II. The colors will be carried at the head of the column with a color guard of four comrades without arms, with the martial band in front. The command, when so formed, upon Main street, in front of their quarters, will be presented to the Commander by the Adjutant, who will take charge of the Post, and who will give the word of command to move forward to the cemetery by the way of Washington avenue.

III. The carriages containing the floral offerings and the committee of young ladies in charge of the same, will lead the column, accompanied by eight mounted guards wearing side arms.

IV. All members of visiting Posts and all soldiers who do not belong to the Post, are invited to fall in with the column and accompany the Post to the cemetery.

V. Comrade Joseph W. Johnson, Marshal of the Day, will take charge of the citizens' procession and form the same immediately in the rear of the column, and will be in charge of the line of march.

VI. Comrades Poissal and McMakin will have charge of the preparation of a platform upon the grounds donated to the Post, and will perform such other duties as may be necessary to carry forward the exercises at the cemetery.

VII. The committee having general charge of the Memorial services, will ascertain and report the number of graves to be decorated, and will place suitable flags, with names, at the head of each grave.

The following programme will be observed at the cemetery;

- 1st. Music—by the choir.
2d. Prayer—by the Chaplain, from the ritual.
3d. Address—by the Commander.
4th. Music—by the choir.
5th. Oration.
6th. Music—by the choir.
7th. Benediction—by Chaplain Al pha Wright.
8th. Decoration of graves according to ritual.

VIII. All citizens of Plattsmouth and Cass county are requested to unite with the Post in a proper observance of Memorial Day.

IX. In case the weather is unsuitable the exercises will be held in Rockwood Hall.

By order of the committee in charge of the general arrangements.

Killed by a Rattlesnake.

The most painful article we have been forced to chronicle for some time, happened at the house of Mr. W. N. Webb, who lives about four miles northwest of Elliot, several evenings since, Mr. Webb's child, a bright little girl, while playing in the yard was heard to scream, and its mother running out got there in time to see a large rattlesnake glide off. Mr. Webb was in the field a long distance off and it took the frightened mother some time to summons him, so that before the child could be brought to town, something like an hour and half had elapsed. By that time the poison had spread all over the little one and she died the next morning.—Avoca Herald.

The committee appointed by the Fair and Driving association, to visit the grounds, locate the different buildings and draft plans for the work necessary to be done to put the grounds in shape for fair purposes, completed their work this week and in a short time their plans will be in the hands of those secured to put them into effect. It is claimed by those competent to judge that the race course and the grounds generally will be second to none in the state, when completed. This should encourage our people to enter into the matter with spirit and make the opening fair one that will be favorably commented upon by the entire state.—W. W. Republican.

Judge Vanatta has moved his office into the Sherwood block, corner of Main and 5th street, where he has fitted up a nice office with his sleeping rooms attached so that he will always be ready to attend all professional calls. The judge has only been in Plattsmouth about a year and a half, yet he has built up as good a practice in that time as any attorney in the county and has fully demonstrated his ability in his profession as among the best; he has had years of practice and always attends promptly to all business he undertakes, and we bespeak for him a brilliant future in Cass county.

An Attempted Rape.

Yesterday morning, the foul crime of an attempt at rape was perpetrated in this city—a crime too abhorrent to be mentioned without every good citizen feeling shame that such heathen acts come to pass in our city; and this is the second crime of that nature the public has been given here during the last few months. John Splitthoff, the man who made the attempt, is a foreigner, coming to this country from Holland, about a year ago, and being employed in the boiler department of the B. & M. shops here as a helper. The child upon whom he attempted to perpetrate the crime, is the six year old daughter of George Grebe, a German, and a machinist in the shops.

Splitthoff has been occupying a room in the same house with Mr. Grebe's family, boarding himself in his room. Yesterday morning Splitthoff enticed the little child into his room locking the door and then attempting the act which does not need or will not be particularized. Shortly afterward, the father learning of the affair, brought the child down town to Dr. Schildknecht's office, where the Dr. examined her and found that she happily had escaped any serious injury.

Chief of Police Sage was at once dispatched to arrest Splitthoff, whom he found on Main street, and at once lodged him in jail. This morning he was brought before Police Judge Wintersteen, when an interpreter was procured and the warrant read to him, to which he plead guilty, and the present necessity of taking evidence was thus obviated, Judge Wintersteen binding him over to the coming term of court in the sum of two thousand dollars, and having no chance of bail, he was lauded in the jail.

Splitthoff is a man twenty-five years of age, and does not look to be the dirty scamp that he is. He has employed no counsel as yet, and is either ignorant of the enormity of his crime or else is very indifferent as to results. The temper of this community is not smoothed in the least by such dastardly crimes as this, and the mutterings are many, while expressions that hanging is too good for such fellows, are frequent.

The little girl, Agnes Grebe, is a bright child, only six years of age, and it is little wonder when such crimes as this come to light, that this, or any community become exasperated, and demand with one voice, punishment for the offender to the full extent of the law. A little six-year old child in the hands of such a man, appeals stronger than words to the right of any community to inexorable justice and the full and complete extent of the law in punishing the brute.

A Broken Bone.

Mathew Feather, a young man in the employ of the employ of Dan. D. Johnson, met with a serious misfortune on Thursday last. While holding S. R. Lamont, his employer's trotter, by the lariat, the animal became playful and in his gambols kicked Mr. Feather, breaking the thigh bone of the right leg in a shocking manner, the fractured bones penetrating the flesh and producing a very aggravating wound. Drs. Thomas & Hall were summoned and set the broken member, and at the present writing the patient is doing as well as could be expected.—Weeping Water Republican.

The regular meeting of the Board of Trade ought to occur next week, the first week in June. Would it not be a commendable plan for the President to set the machinery at work and grind out a session?

Mrs. Langtry.

An interesting event will be the appearance of Mrs. Langtry at Boyd's next Saturday evening. Mrs. Langtry is drawing crowded houses with standing room at a premium, all over the country, and her engagement here promises to be highly gratifying, both to star and management. Mrs. Langtry's charming acting is universally admired.—Omaha Republican.

The Memorial services held in Rockwood Hall yesterday afternoon were largely attended, although it is a lamentable fact that the larger part of the audience arrived at the Hall after the services were more than half concluded. Elder Burton, of the Christian church, preached a strong and able sermon which was listened to with the closest attention, despite the interruptions made by late comers. The Elder closed his discourse by reading an appropriate poem, and all who attended the services felt that it was good to be present, and that the occasion and the service was a most appropriate one.

Splitthoff, the rapist, now in jail told a reporter this morning that whisky was the trouble with him. He said he bought a pint Saturday night and was drinking it Sunday morning. However, Policeman Sage says he was sober when he arrested him, and it was likely a dodge under which Splitthoff tried to shield himself.
