The Plunkett Sisters tonight in a "Serious Family" will be a most excellent entertainment.

A pleasant and good looking lady caller brightened up the HERALD sanctum by her presence for a few minutes this afternoon.

Hamburg, Iowa, is being beset by thieves and burglars. If Plattsmouth's turn don't come soon, we will indeed be fortunate.

The Young Men's Republican Club will meet in the room under the First National Bank, on Monday evening, June 16. J. N. GLENN, 9012 Ch'n Executive Com.

LOST—A pass-check book contain 16 half fare permits over the B. & M. and Q. roads. The finder will greatly oblige by leaving the same at the HERALD office or at the residence of Rev. Esterbrooke.

Mrs. P. McCallan is lying very low, the attending physician allows no one to enter the room except the attendants. This afternoon it was thought her condition had slightly improved.

A church social will be held at the residence of Elder Burton this evening; a cordial invitation is extended to everybody, regardless of creed, to be in attendance. A good time is assured.

The Plunkett Sisters entertained a fair-sized audience at the Opera House last night in the melodrama of Aurora Floyd. With one or two exception the troupe is a very good one, and one that we think will pay you to hear tonight.

Some one who through mistake got a white satin fan at the Duke Levings wedding party, last night, in place of a hand painted one, can make the exchange by calling at the Opera House clothing store.

Wahoo was scourged by a fire last night, which resulted in the loss of property valued at $15,000; the principal losers being F. C. Stewart, skating rink; H. H. Lubker, hotel and saloon; Frank Dean, law office; and Baldwin & Rance second hand store.

A good rain is badly needed out through the country, the growth of the corn being already greatly retarded by the dry weather. Although a very heavy rain fell in this city last night we understand from farmers living in that vicinity, twelve miles southwest of here, scarcely rain enough fell to lay the dust.

The executive committee of the Young Men's Republican Club met last night in Geo. Smith's office. A very earnest session was held, several matters of importance to the club receiving due attention. The notice for a club meeting may be found in another column.

A HAPPY EVENT.

The Duke-Levings Wedding.

A gay party of relatives and friends were gathered at the home of Mrs. Levings in this city last evening to witness the wedding ceremony which was performed by Rev. J. T. Baird, assisted by Chaplain Wright.

The ceremony, a very impressive one, was performed by Rev. J. T. Baird, assisted by Chaplain Wright.

The decorations were both profuse and artistic, reflecting great credit upon the taste of Mrs. Wise who was the designer of the decorating and the receiver of the guests of the evening.

The bridal presents, both for numbers and expensive elegance have not been surpassed in this city for many a day.

The groom needs scarcely a mention, his genial presence having been recognized here ever since his boyhood.

The bride is a young lady of prepossessing appearance and engaging manners, and although she has become the wife of a Duke she may not be considered a Duchess.

The happy couple went to Omaha immediately after the ceremony, to visit among friends, and tomorrow evening they will return to their home in this city. The good will and best wishes of the HERALD and a large circle of friends is heartily tendered the newly wedded pair as they start out upon the journey of life.

EDITOR HERALD:

We were so frightened last week we could not write for fear "Mocking Bird" of the Louisville Observer, would have us arrested and sent to Lincoln for stealing her nom de plume. We will venture under another name this week.

We were visited with quite a refreshing shower last Saturday and Sunday nights, which we did not get before we needed.

In the last two weeks there have been fourteen cars of shelled corn loaded here, besides six that are now being loaded. This does not look much like everything was destroyed by the hail last season.

Corn and grain of all kinds is looking well.

Strawberries are ripe. There are a great many wild ones this season. Come over and bring your cream, dish and spoon and we will go strawberrying.

Mrs. Luft has been quite poorly. Ed. and Henry Creamers were visiting with Mr. Beavers Sunday evening.

Why is it so many people keep their children from school on the slightest pretext? They are doing them an injury they can never repay. I hear some one say, oh, well, what is the difference, my children will never have to work for a living. Even if they do not, just look into the future ten or fifteen years, see the men who are choosing our president and governor. They can scarcely read or write. What do they know of politics? Nothing! They can be bought to vote for any one. The glass of whisky will do the work. These are the men to be our future rulers. Our whole nation rises in rebellion against such work. Let us send our children to school. Educate them for the positions they are to fill. Send them forth in life with clear ideas of the duties of every citizen of the United States, both male and female.

We meant James Allison instead of Jones in our last letter.

Several people of this vicinity paid Plattsmouth a visit Decoration Day. All join in saying that they had a good time.

We are afraid the editor will get tired of trying to decipher our chirgraphy, so we will close.

Tabor College Commencement.

The days for the eighteenth annual commencement, June 8th to 11th, were as nearly perfect as June days (the brightest of the year) can be. Year by year the number of visitors increases. The large church was well filled at all the exercises from Sabbath morning to Wednesday evening. By count of the ushers 950 persons were present at the close of the graduating exercises Wednesday evening.

The classes this year fully sustained the reputation of previous years.

The graduating class numbered seven. There was on exhibition numerous pictures, paintings and drawings, the work of pupils in the Art Department the past year. As usual the houses in Tabor were freely opened for the reception of guests and during the intermission picnic parties from Glenwood, Malvern, Plum Hollow and the country could be seen in the groves upon the college campus.

The past year has been one of real progress and encouragement.

The number of students has been larger than before, 238 from nine states and forty-five places in Iowa.

In all departments the results have been very satisfactory.

The receipts from tuition were $4,000, from interests and rents $2,700, from donations $8,074; total for the year, $15,774.

The entire property of the college is now estimated at one hundred thousand dollars.

The senior class for next year is the largest in the history of the college, numbering more than 20.

The trustees voted to raise $25,000 for a new building and gave force to their vote by generous subscriptions.

Arapahoe Letter.

ARAPAHOE, NEB. June 11, '84.

DEAR HERALD:—Think I perhaps there might be a tender spot in the memory of some of your readers, and that they might wish to hear of the wanderings of this wayward son, I take this opportunity of penning a few lines.

I boarded the westward bound train at Plattsmouth at 8:15 a. m., May 29, 1884, and at Louisville was met by A. L. Timblin, who proceeded with me to the westward, arriving the same evening at Holdrege, in Phelps county, the present terminus of the K-mew cut-off of the B. & M. R. R.

Here we found a thriving town of about 800 inhabitants and presenting a very promising prospect for the future, and in one of the finest agricultural sections of Nebraska.

This town was surveyed and laid out on the 2d of last October; it has now one hundred and twenty-five business houses and all are well stocked and doing well.

While in Holdrege we stopped at the Holdrege House, which, although in a new town and a new house, is one of the finest equipped and best managed houses west of Hastings. Parties going to Holdrege will do well to stop at the Holdrege House.

On Friday afternoon following, we took the stage for Oxford, 25 miles distant, the junction of the cut-off with the R. V. R. R.

Oxford is also a new town and has a fine prospect; the people here anticipate the building of a railroad, round houses and other improvements.

The next morning we proceeded to the county seat, Beaver City, which, although an inland town, also shows many evidences of a solid and substantial growth, and good business outlook, having many well stocked stores, and an intelligent community of enterprising citizens.

We returned to Oxford the same evening and remained here until Saturday, June 7th, when we again boarded the train for Indianola, the county seat of Red Willow county, about 40 miles distant, a town of about 500 inhabitants, returning the same evening to Arapahoe, one of the finest towns in the Republican valley. It is a town of about 800 inhabitants with a fine country surrounding it. The citizens are enterprising, intelligent, and withal a pleasant class of people.

After viewing the several towns passed, we have concluded to locate here, at Arapahoe, and have commenced business.

Among those met here are the firm of Childs & Colvin, two former residents of Plattsmouth, engaged in the real estate business, and their business is just immense.

Charles Twiss is also here, having been here some time.

Ami B. Todd and James Burnett passed through here June 10th, on their way to McCook.

Besides two newspapers, the Pioneer and Mirror, both good live papers, there are three or four church organizations and two fine church buildings, the Christian and the Baptist. The Methodist people are expecting to out up a church building this fall.

There is also a well conducted school here, n any fine residences are contemplated, and there are many very neat ones already.

To those unaccustomed to see such a rush, it would surprise them to see the number of land seekers and immigrants every day; and to those who are doubtful of the quality or strength of the soil, I can assure them that it is equal in quality to that of the eastern part of the State, and only requires the patient and systematic tilling to cause it to bring forth bountiful harvests. Your witness was much surprised to see the quality of the soil and the promise of an abundant harvest the coming season.

I would advise those desiring to find good, cheap lands, to come this way, as they can find more good cheap land here than perhaps anywhere else in the west.

Arapahoe is well represented by all kinds of business, and among the rest has two good grist mills, a saw mill and a creamery.

All along the line of the road can be seen large quantities of wool, showing that this is a fine country for sheep raising.

Thinking perhaps a further continuance of this letter might tire the readers, I will proceed to close.

More anon,

H. L. E. LINCOLN.

Louisville has for some time been a bonanza for the genus tramp, and of late it has been well worked by that "energetic" class. Only a few evenings ago 32 reported for supper in one gang. The town board however are building a calaboose which will soon be completed, when the genial tramp will have to roost in other and more friendly fields.

Mayor Chase of Omaha, is making a raid on some of their gamblers up there, but the cruel newspapers of the metropolis still continue to abuse the old man, and claim that the raid is only on one or two parties and that it is for spite, because one of the fraternity gave the mayor away to the grand jury.
