THE ENGLISH CASE.

Washington, June 17.—The special committee appointed to investigate the charges against Wm. A. English of lobbying in the house in the interest of his son in the contested election case of English vs. Peole, began the examination of witnesses today. Representative Weller (la.) was examined: "After you had voted to lay the motion of reconsideration on the table, on the day that English was seated, did Representative Pusey, of Iowa, request you to go to the democratic side of the house?" asked Representative Millard. Weller said Pusey came to him and inquired about his health, and he told him he was first-rate, and was going to the depot to meet his wife and daughter. Pusey asked him to stay and vote on the English-Peole case. Question—You evade the question. Did Pusey ask you to go to the other side of the house. Answer—I don't remember. Q.—Did you follow Pusey in a very few minutes? A—I can't tell you that. Q.—While he was sitting by you was there any discussion regarding the election case? A—I don't remember. Q.—When you went to the other side of the house (democratic) did you see English, the father? A—I think not. Q.—Did you see the son? A—I did. Q.—Did you converse with him? A.—I did. I saw him on my way as I was passing out of the hall. Q.—How soon was this after Pusey had been to your seat? A.—I don't know. Q.—Can you tell what time you received the telegram from your wife? A.—I cannot. When I got home I found I had made a mistake of about one hour in the time of the arrival of the train. Q.—Had you seen English, the father, previous to the balloting? A.—I was introduced to him on the floor of the house by some one. I ask if he was related to the democratic candidate for the vice presidency of four years ago, and he said he was the identical man. English never made an effort or any suggestion that I should receive money. The next day after the vote was taken, when I had made a personal explanation on the floor of the house, Wilson, of Iowa, said he was sorry I had made the explanation. He said that Bayne, when he referred on the day before in his speech to some one having left the hall, did not mean me. W. H. English will be examined tomorrow.

MEXICO.
Washington, June 17.—In the report accompanying the bill to carry into effect the Mexican treaty prepared by A. S. Hewitt and reported from the ways and means committee today, the committee says Mexico is the gate through which this country will find its connection with Central and South America. The time has already arrived when we must adopt a continental policy, laying its foundations broad and deep in the mutual interests of intimate commercial and political sympathies. The Monroe doctrine must be asserted and enforced. It is essential for our safety as well as our prosperity that we shall exercise a controlling influence in the affairs of the western world. It may not be desirable that we should extend the limits of our sovereignty beyond our own borders, but every measure which tends to establish closer relations with our neighbors, to create mutual interests, to develop common hopes and sympathies and to tie us more closely together in the support of the principles of free government and progress of human liberty should be encouraged. It is for this reason that the treaty with Mexico marks an era in the progress of the western world. We have only to cultivate peace and good will with our neighbors and accept every opportunity for free intercourse and free exchange in order to complete the demonstration and that the blessings which have crowned the unrestricted commercial intercourse of the States of our union with each other may be extended and enjoyed by all the people of the western hemisphere, not only in peace and security, but without peril to their political existence as a free and independent nation.

RAILWAY MATTERS.

Chicago, June 17.—It is asserted that the Grand Trunk has practically decided to become a member of the east bound passenger pool and as a preliminary step today advanced its round trip rate between Chicago and Portland, Me., from $30 to $38, the refusal of the Grand Trunk to become a member of the pool has been the chief trouble in its maintenance.

BUSINESS TROUBLES.

Milwaukee, June 17.—Geo. P. Sanborn, receiver of the Manufacturers' bank, finds the liabilities about $400,000 and the assets nominally $500,000, but cannot realize on them. Outsiders say they will scarcely pay 50 cents on the dollar unless President Conroy holds to his promise to see all debts paid. No other banks are affected and no business houses are troubled. The only heavy depositors were fortunate in having drawn out their funds, rumors having been rife for some time that the bank was shaky. The Lake Shore and Wabash railroad company had just withdrawn 700,000 in securities.
