National Republican Ticket.

FOR PRESIDENT,
JAMES G. BLAINE,
of Maine.

FOR VICE-PRESIDENT,
JOHN A. LOGAN, of Illinois.

MR. STEVE ELKINS, it appears, has had to stand aside on the national committee.

Each of the prominent democrats of the country has his lightning rod erected. Especially is the Indiana statesman observant of the democratic current.

If the petition of the receiver of the Wabash is to be believed, when taken with the facts already in the possession of the public, touching the condition of that road, Messrs. Gould and company have left it in very nearly as bad a condition as the late South Sea bubble of Grant, Ward & Co. Mr. Gould is a great railroad man, but he always carries around with him an extractor, by which he manages to absorb all the honey in the concern, after which, receivers are always in order.

CHALMERS, the recent bulldozer of the shoeing district in Mississippi, was elected to Congress over Manning, the shotgun representative, by over 3000 majority. The case was so bad, "smelled so rank to heaven," that the democratic House ousted Manning, or refused him a seat, yet they kept Chalmer out, and the shoeing district is unrepresented. The committee on elections agree that Chalmer is entitled to his seat, yet the report is withheld, and the people of that district denied representation. Such is democratic rule and ideas of justice.

"There was no more treason in Bayard's noble soul, than there was in Abraham Lincoln's."—Lincoln Democrat.

Just so! Mr. Bayard and Jefferson Davis held and preached the same doctrine when Abraham Lincoln issued his first call for volunteers; hence Jefferson Davis, in the hour of his country's extremity, was just as loyal as Thos. F. Bayard, and Thos. F. Bayard being as loyal as Abraham Lincoln, it follows as a logical sequence that Jeff. Davis was just as good a Union man as Abe. Lincoln was. We did not see it this way before, but now it is plain, very plain.

MR. CARL SCHURZ, a reformer for revenue only, is named as one of the independent committee, who are to frame the Cobden address "Why Blaine and Logan should not receive the suffrages of the republican voter." Perhaps the Independent wing of the British free trade league in America think only republicans need this Cobden primer; however, the drift of events within the democratic party, if rightly interpreted by this independent clique, that always resorts to "the address in politics," should convince them that Mr. Carl Schurz and his little band of parlor politicians, had better waste a little of their English ink on the Irish democracy of the country. A platform manufactured by the Pall Mall Gazette, and London Times, with tariff for revenue only, will not be a very dainty dinner for the country. Mr. Carl Schurz & Co. are wasting valuable time in a vineyard where they can do no good, and are neglecting a field where they could enjoy some refreshing experiences anyway. Nevertheless Mr. Schurz and his coadjutors might as well earn their money from their British employers, by circulating cheap campaign literature among republicans as they will not injure Messrs. Blaine and Logan thereby.

WHY HE SUPPORTS HIM.

Editor New York Herald: In answer to inquiries as to why I support Blaine, whose position on the money question I opposed, I answer: The supreme court has settled in favor of National legal tender paper money, issued in peace or war, and all loyal Americans are bound to consider the question settled for a thousand years to come, as it has been among scholars for 2,000 years past, that money is the creation of law, a legal instrument of payment and exchange, whether printed on gold, silver or paper. A volume sufficient for cash payment I shall never cease to urge as necessary to prevent the ever-recurring panics of the British system against the never-occurring panics of the Venetian system for 600 years, and France for the last 80 years, by reliance upon full legal tender paper and expansion in every emergency.

Our country is without any system of money expansion in time of panic and the contraction that ensues is quite as destructive to industry as war, pestilence, or famine. Having ascertained the nature of money by ten year's discussion and settled it, the use of a sufficient volume of the only remedy, the cash system instead of credit—is only a question of time. The great questions pressing for immediate answer are: The tariff, railroad, land and labor question. Upon these the Republican party have taken ground as bold and true as the Declaration of Independence.

The question of land monopoly, of Standard Oil Company, confiscators of railroads charging the people fourfold freight of what they charge the favored company in order to deliver the production of twenty thousand wells to a robber corporation, dividing with the four great lines that control the continent, these questions are met frankly and boldly by the republican party, while the leading candidates of the democracy—Senator Payne, Gov. Cleveland, and others—are the embodiment of monopoly. The republican party has declared itself on the side of the common people, and is determined to protect the rights of the black and white voter in the South, of every citizen in North, and maintain the American as against the European labor system. The appeal to free men for support will not be in vain.

The Declaration of American Independence written by Jefferson was not more radical or successful than this new departure will prove under the greatest political leader, James G. Blaine. He may neglect to recommend the poisoning of the Bebel soldiers for their effort to destroy the republic in the interest of slavery; but he will stand fearlessly for the rights of every man, poor or rich, white or black, at home or abroad, until the name of an American citizen shall mean something greater than heretofore. There is not an enemy to Blaine who does not feel that that fearless statesman will stand as straight and firm as Bunker Hill Monument when he is clothed with Presidential power. Property, life, liberty will rest secure under one who for twenty years has been a master of statesmanship and legislation.

In him conservatism and boldness are wisely blended. Having the courage of his convictions, his far sighted statesmanship terrifies the timid time-server, angers the arrogant boss and dictator, but the American people desire a frank, manly bold policy.

To restore our commerce to the sea, our threatened industries, our menaced liberty. There will certainly be two and perhaps three candidates opposed to James G. Blaine, and while under some circumstances President Arthur would have best suited the party, and Senator Edmunds would have gratified an ideal, that great leader of leaders, Jas. G. Blaine, will carry Maine in September by 10,000 majority, Ohio in October by 40,000 majority, every Northern State and three Southern States in November.

BLAINE BOLT.

From the Lincoln Journal.
The Blaine bolt goes on in England. It is expected that unless Mr. Blaine comes out and disavows the Irish leaders who are adhering to him and proposing for the first time to vote the republican ticket, that the entire British press will come down on the man from Maine like a hawk on a Junco. Let the exhibition proceed. We might as well have a lively campaign while we are about it, and if the British press joins Harper's Weekly and the New York Times in mud throwing at Blaine and Logan there are lively times ahead, and the democrats must not fail to bear it in mind. Worse things might happen to the republican ticket than a mill with the English newspapers all about the Irish vote. In this country, however, it is an uncommon thing for a candidate for office to get up and "disavow" gentlemen who may chance to drop a remark that they propose to support him.

Vital Questions!!!

Ask the most eminent physician of any school, what is the best thing in the world for quieting and allaying all irritation of the nerves, and curing all forms of nerves, complaints, giving natural, childlike refreshing sleep always?
And they will tell you unhesitatingly "Some form of Hops! !!"
CHAPTER I.
Ask any or all of the most eminent physicians:
"What is the best and only remedy that can be relied on to cure all diseases of the kidneys and urinary organs; such as Bright's disease, diabetes, retention, or inability to retain urine, and the diseases and ailments peculiar to Women?"
And they will tell you explicitly and emphatically "Buchu! !!"
Ask the same physicians:
"What is the most reliable and surest cure for liver diseases or dyspepsia; constipation, indigestion, biliousness, malaria fever, ague, &c., and they will tell you:
"Mandrake! or Dandelion! !!"
Hence when these remedies are combined with others equally valuable, and compounded into Hop Bitters, such a wonderful and mysterious curative power is developed, which is so varied in its operations that no disease or ailment can possibly exist or resist its power and yet it is harmless for the most frail woman, weakest invalid or smallest child to use.

"Patients
"Almost dead or nearly dying"
For years, and gave up my physicians, of Bright's and other kidney diseases, liver complaints, severe coughs, called consumption, have been cured.
"Women gone nearly crazy! !!"
From agony of neuralgia, nervousness, wakefulness, and various diseases peculiar to woman.
People draw out of shape from excruciating pangs of rheumatism, inflammatory and chronic or suffering from scrofula.
Erysipelas!
"Sulphurum, blood poisoning, dyspepsia, indigestion" and, in fact, almost all diseases frail!
Nature is heir to
Have been cured by Hop Bitters, proof of which can be found in every newspaper in the known world.
None genuine without a bunch of green Hops on the white label.
Shun all the vile, poisonous stuff with "Hop" or "Hops" in their name.
