

Grand Fourth of July Poem.
Cook and Yeats, the barber mates,
The best you'll find in seven states;
If any doubt, they'll find it out
By calling in when they're about.
With good shampoo and bergamot,
They'll slick you up without a doubt.
If your hair is curly, they'll cut it straight,
Or shave your face at any rate.
We'll warrant them to shave with ease,
And all their custom try to please.
Their tools they keep in extra shape
In order to, men's faces scrape.
The Ladies too, they now invite,
For them, you know, they must not slight;
They'll cut your bangs just in the style,
Now please call, and give them a trial.
In the Court House shop you'll always find
The doors wide open, from seven till nine;
And Sam and Billy you'll find there, too,
Always ready to accommodate you.

The projected line of the much talked of Nebraska Central will pass through or near a 5,000 acre tract of land belonging to our fellow townsman, Joseph A. Connor. Mr. Connor is very fortunate in the location of his lands.

Messrs. Connor, Black, Vallery, Ruffner, Oldham and several other stalwart democrats will attend the Chicago convention. We haven't heard from Bro. Draper, but have no doubt of his being able to put in appearance with a shout for Tilden at the opportune time.

Rev. Geo. Mitchell will occupy the pulpit in the M. E. Church, tomorrow evening. The morning service will be conducted by the pastor, F. M. Esterbrook.

The iron columns for the Waterman building are being put in place today. They were cast by Wayman, and are a very creditable piece of work.

The toy pistol that has been getting in its work very effectively in neighboring cities is being used altogether too freely here. Mr. Johnathan Hatt came very near getting the contents of them yesterday. The toy pistol with cartridge and buckshot is far more dangerous than the ordinary carrying of a revolver, and it certainly seems our officials ought to take prompt action in the abatement of such a nuisance.

R. G. Jenkinson raised a flag at his house Saturday evening, first Blaine and Logan flag in Omaha. The reason that time was chosen was because it was the 39th anniversary of his landing in the United States. There was a large crowd present, and a great deal of enthusiasm was manifested. A number of democrats also participated and assisted upon the occasion.—Omaha Watchman.

AN INTERESTING TIME.
The Largest Celebration in the State.

Plattsmouth on this next 4th of July will have one of the largest celebrations ever known in this county. Every person will turn out. The Common Council, headed by our illustrious Mayor, Hon. Geo. Smith, Patrick Eagan, the ex-treasurer of the National Irish Land League, will be present and respond to a toast.

A large delegation from Lincoln, Greenwood, and Ashland, have made arrangements to be present.

Mayor, Smith and our efficient Sheriff have made arrangements with the Chairman of the General Committee, Mr. Joseph A. Connor, for ample police protection, and deputy sheriffs on the grounds.

Garlic and Eloquence.

The manner in which the Nebraska Eagle inquires after the mild mannered, silvered haired, old gentleman, who presides over the Argus, at Dakota City, is both unique and classical.

Father Martin's paper, it appears, insinuates that Judge Barnes was compelled to pay the Eagle fifty dollars for its support, upon which the Eagle exclaims:

"Come out with the facts, you old stink of the onion patch, or you will prove yourself a damnable liar, a sneaking wretch and an unprincipled coward."

This is mingling garlic and eloquence with a vengeance.

Omaha is Coming.

Omaha is going to give Plattsmouth a reusing benefit on the 4th of July. We have it positive from the General Committee, and other persons connected with the 4th of July celebration, that as Omaha this year will not celebrate, there will be over seven hundred of her most reputable citizens present, and amongst them will be Hon. John Rush, the Treasurer of Douglas county, who has the reputation of being one of the most logical and finest silver tongued orators of this present day.

Good News for Republicans.

The Washington Post shows that Professor Perry, of Williams college, has written to a prominent democrat at the national capital that he has direct assurances from Governor Cleveland that he stands fairly abreast of Speaker Carlisle and Chairman Morrison in his demand that revenue reform be made the controlling democratic issue in the campaign.

The 4th—Committee Meeting.

All committees and citizens who are interested in the 4th of July celebration, are requested to meet at the Catholic church, Sunday evening next, at 8 o'clock, sharp, to make reports. This is the last meeting of the committee, and all are expected to be present. By Order Ch'n Gen. Committee.

Railroad Rates.

Round trip tickets for persons desiring to attend Fourth of July celebrations will be sold on the B. & M. on July 31 and 4th, good to return until the 5th, between all stations not more than 200 miles apart, at one fare the round trip. Children between 5 and 12 years half that rate.

Truthful and Expressive.

We are credibly informed that "Eugene Lawrence" the lying blackguard of Harper's Pictorial Polecat and Geo. Wm. Curtis are one and the same person.—Omaha Watchman.

Owing to so many reports about mad dogs, we clip, for the benefit of our readers, the following:

A few days ago a child in the western part of Iowa, was badly bitten by a mad dog and the parents were anxious to find the whereabouts of a mad stone. Telegrams were sent all over the state making inquiries for the same. One was found in Lincoln, Ill., and we believe another in Line county, Iowa. But now comes one Hinselwood, a native of Glasgow, Scotland, who is now some 70 years old, and says that fifty years ago he was bitten by a mad dog and was cured by using a tea prepared as follows: One pound elecampane, grated and divided into three equal parts and each part put into a pint of milk and boiled down one half. Drink one of these doses and fast about ten hours; then eat lightly and repeat the dose until the three doses have been taken. Mr. H. says he has known cases to be cured after they were attacked by spasms, and relates many cases that were cured of rabid dog bites.

J. W. Catright, the "local" of the Journal, leaves tonight for a visit to Monmouth and Peoria. He will also be on hand at the democratic wake in Chicago on the 8th. Mr. Catright has been a very faithful and important factor in the make up of the Journal, his efforts alone keeping the institution afloat, and the paper before the people, by his industry and skill as a news-gatherer. Mr. Frank Wheeler will collect the news during Mr. C's absence.

Our martial band has the honor of an invitation to assist in music at the celebration at Cedar Creek on the 4th, but as yet have not concluded to accept of their kindness.

We had a hardy rain accompanied with a heavy wind Wednesday afternoon, it blew the crops down very badly, but the most of it will straighten up again. No further damage was done.

Mrs. J. R. Cathey returned from her parental home at Galatia, Saline county Ill., a few days ago, accompanied by her sister, Miss Lucy Cameron, who will spend the summer here.

Mr. John Mutz, an old time citizen of this place, now of Auburn, in company with his brother and his wife and two daughters, of Indiana, was visiting his children and old friends here this week.

Quite a number of tramps are passing through here begging, of late, some of them are very impudent and saucy. We think a good dose of raw hide whip or a few months of hard labor would be good for them.

We are informed that our blacksmith, seriously contemplates going to the state of matrimony now soon. If very late hours every Sunday evening, and two and three times through the week, is any sign, he will surely get there.

W. L. Blanchard, son of the worthy postmaster at Center Valley came down Saturday evening to practice with our martial band and they rendered some good music in Mr. Jenkins' new Hall, which penetrated a long distance through the air, filling all with pleasure within its reach.

The corn is growing very fast the last few days, but up to this time it has made very slow progress especially the listed corn, of which every one who listed is complaining and are very badly discouraged, as the prospects are so very unfavorable, small grain is doing well, and the rye will be ripe enough to harvest soon.

Mr. Caline Fletcher, one of our estimable young men, and Miss Hattie Ruby, daughter of E. R. Ruby, who are well and favorably known here, went to Plattsmouth last Thursday, accompanied by Mr. T. E. Fulton, and Miss Anna Allen, where they were launched in the matrimonial sea of to sail through life together, we hope they will safely anchor on the other bright shore after passing through a long and profitable life here.

There is a big improvement in the HERALD in the past two weeks they get out to our postoffice Thursday evening instead of Saturday or Monday evenings as of late, the patrons were much surprised and it stopped their grumbling.
