Some Financial Facts.

Miscellaneous Notes.

THE FINANCES.

New York, July 2.—The stock market has been less active today, but strong, although there is a lessened feeling of the confidence that had been felt for a few days previously. The fact is, that the bulls are resorting to the rancor committee, which sort of tactics usually precedes a break. Trading is purely professional, and the outside public has not yet come in.

VANDERBILT is out with another of his newspaper bull interviews, and devoted himself mainly to Lake Shore and partly to Northwestern. Then it is announced that he has taken up and paid for over fifteen thousand shares of Lake Shore within a week. The stock went up 4 per cent., but dropped back 2 per cent. when Vanderbilt brokers and the weak shorts stopped buying. Northwestern common sold up over 3 per cent. and lost only fractionally. Later in the day preferred stock jumped up 4 1/2 per cent., and fell off only 1/4 per cent.

THE RUGLE is attributed to the buying for the pool which has been formed it is said, to take a big block of stock, and bought over twenty five shares to day. The preferred was especially strong, because there was so little floating stock in the market, it being held so largely for investment. New York Central is 1 1/4 better than yesterday. The grangers are all strong, Illinois Central selling 2 1/4 better, and Burlington & Quincy 1 1/4. The Gould stocks have been more quiet, with smaller changes. Union Pacific was bulled up two points by the covering of shorts, and lost one-half the gain in a very brief time in the afternoon. It is said that the new pool in Lackawana negotiated large loans again today which indicates a further attack upon that stock, but it has sold up 1 1/2 per cent. today. The story that ill health has decided

S. H. H. CLARK to resign the general management of the Union Pacific was received today, and supplemented by the story that the place had been tendered "Tom" Potter. There is, as usual, no foundation for these rumors.

A RAILROAD PRESIDENT KILLED.
Cincinnati, July 2.—This afternoon as a train on the Cincinnati & Eastern road was crossing a trestle over a ravine east of Winchester, W. R. McGill, president of the road, fell from the door of the baggage car to the ground, a distance of 50 feet, and was instantly killed.

BREWSTER'S OPINION.
Attorney General Brewster submitted to the President today, in compliance with the latter's request, a long and carefully prepared opinion upon the bill for the restoration of Fitz John Porter to the army, in which he expresses the opinion that the bill is clearly unconstitutional. He says that in part the bill is imposed upon the President a duty to appoint the person designated therein without any support in the constitution. It is an assumption of implied power which is not based upon any express power, and clearly involves the constitutional rights of the President. Congress has not the right to enact a law that which will be ineffectual. It cannot enact, advise or counsel; it must make laws that are rules of action, not expressions of will, that may or may not be followed. If this bill be an injunction, commanding the President to appoint, it is an usurpation; and if it be only counsel it is without the essential element of law, and congress can enact nothing but that which is to have vigor and effect of law. But again the bill is subject to objection upon the ground that congress thereby in effect creates an officer only upon condition that it is to be asked by the particular individual named. If this principle were adopted generally in the creation of offices it would obviously result in constraining the appointing power to accept the condition imposed and fill offices with individuals designated by congress, thus frustrating the design of the constitution, which is that an officer must be alone selected according to the judgment and will of the person and body in whom the powers of nomination, advice and consent and appointment are vested.
