It is recommended that no proxies he admitted to the convention, except such as are held by persons residing in the counties from which proxies are given. JOHN STEEN, Secretary. Lincoln, June 26, 1884.

PRESIDENT ARTHUR, his son and laughter, Mrs. Sheridan, Gen. Rucker, Mrs. Davis, and a party of friends numbering about fifty, attended the per formance of W. F. Cody's ("Buffalo Bill's") troupe of Indians, Mexicans, and cowboys, who are illustrating at Athletic Park life in the "Wild West."

"HARK ! from the tombs" is the sad, sad refrain of the great divided as they take up their mournful line of march for Chicago. However, we have it from the Omaha Herald, and the doctor seems to be very much in earnest too, that, Uncle Sammy will not respond. We can only wait and see.

THE President's reasons for disapproving the Fitz John Porter nonsense and wickedness are so sound in reason and law that we apprehend the friends of that gentleman will hardly bring the matter up again. The Presidential sledge hammer did not leave anything of the democratic bladder.

THE disgusting theorists and college fools around Boston who are now ex claiming mainst Mr. Blaine for keeping up the transition of his country with respect to the States on the American Continent are entirely unaware that it was John Quincy Adams of Massachu setts who created the Monroe doctrine, who wrote all the papers on that sub ject, and issued them in the name of James Monroe. The Monroe doctrine is nothing but John Adams' and John Quincy Adams', and James G. Blaine is the upright successor of the founders of Massachusetts. The donkeys now parading in Massachusetts act as if they had the bar sinister in them and his margin on the deal. were ill-begotten.-Gath.

COBDEN TO THE REAR IN ILLI-NOIS.

Bill Springer had their cut and dried decosity of Bill's Morrison and "revenue only" platform reported Springer, was longer, sicklier, sillier, to the convention in which they modestly referred to their own achievements as revenue reformers in glowing terms of praise. Their platform had its porousness. been reported to the convention, when Carter Harrison came upon the ground with a proxy and in a three minutes' speech knocked the bottom clean out of the "sure thing" those gentlemen

This was the most ridiculous farce of the many antics, democracy has "cut up" this year of 1884. It shows two things; first: "Bill Morrison," "Bill Springer," and Company, have been lying about the sentiment of the democratic party in Lilipois. It is not free trade. It don't care a continental for the vagaries these gentlemen have been parading in Congress as the dearest thought of that party in Illinois. It shows, in the second place, that although Messrs. Morrison, Springer and Company have the advantage and prestige of congressional influences around them and back of them, that, Carter Harrison, the Mayor of Chicago, the man they have been abusing ever since he turned the Iroquois banquet up side down, a little over a year ago, on this same question of free trade, has more influence and strength among the Illinois bourbons than all of these revenue reform cranks put together. Carter Harrison and his eagle are supreme among the "Sucker" democracy, and the Cobden reformers may just as well

MR. BLAINE AND THE RELIGIOUS

PRESS. The anti-Blaine organs in the religious press are now very much embarrassed with communications from disgusted subscribers. The more liberal of them print the letters and then ed itorially express themselves as not main independent-as they call it. But if one thing more than another is shown, it is that thinking readers nowadays carefully examine all that is said on both sides of a question and then decide for themselves. An editor has no power over intelligent readers except as he deserves to have it from the power of his argument and the truth of his premises. Following a few disgusted men like cosset lambs are followed is not for reflective minds. Religious papers above all others ought to be truly

It would be a fearfully thin dodge to put up the old gentleman in order to get some such fellow as Bayard into the White House. The latest scheme of democratic states craft is to nominate Uncle Sammy with Bayard as vice. Then if Uncle Sammy should get there he is to resign on account of physical aliment and Thomas Francis is to be the President. This is smart, very smart; yet we can't see, in the transac-
