Grand Fourth of July Poem

Cook and Yeats, the barber mates,
The best you'll find in seven states;

With good shampoo and bergamot,
They'll slick you up without a doubt.

Well warrant them to shave with ease,
And all their custom try to please.

The Ladies too, they now invite,
For them, you know, they must not slight;

In the Court House shop you'll always find
The dones wide open, from seven till nine;

And Sam and Billy you'll find there, too,
Always ready to accommodate U.

YEATS & COOK.

The Ice Man.

Jos. Fairfield has established an office at Monarch billiard hall, where he will contract with customers to supply ice for the season at the lowest terms.

For additional local notes and news consult the fourth page.

The County Commissioners have adjourned until August 5th, when they will meet in regular session.

Yesterday seemed to be the hottest day of the year, and every one had observations to make regarding the weather.

Never were crops more promising in this section and citizens of Platts mouth may rest assured that promising times await this city.

Hon. Orlando Tefft, of Aveca, purchased 12,000 acres of land in Cheyenne county, this last week. Mr. Tefft is evidently figuring on a stock ranch.

A B. & M. brakeman, named Eli Waymeyer, was instantly killed at Nebraska City yesterday, being crushed between two cars while making a coupling. He was twenty five years of age, sober and industrious and leaves a young wife to mourn his loss.

The HERALD would have been much pleased to have published Mr. Smith's oration, the responses to toasts, and the orations of Col. Vanatta, at Louisville, and Alex. McIntosh, at Rock Bluffs; and with scarce the space for one, leads us to refrain from publishing any, although all are worthy.

The writer has very recently traveled over Prohibition Iowa and of her many bright and prosperous cities of equal size with Platts mouth, there are none but that feel the depression of close times and none of the many showed more business life and activity than Platts mouth, and none equaled our city in a building boom. Those who imagine times are particularly dull at home should visit our Iowa neighbors and return home contented.

Accident.

About 9 a. m., yesterday morning, John Rauken, a son of Peter Rauken, broke his left arm just above the elbow, while practicing on the turning pole erected for amusement at the celebration grounds. He is doing very nicely, and will soon be all right again.

DIED.

Of infatuation of the stomach, Jno. H. Baumjister, aged 14 years and 9 days, the son of Fred. W. and Martha Baumjister. The death was very sudden, coming after a short illness. The funeral will take place tomorrow afternoon, from the home, on the Platte river road, Rev. Mr. Burgess conducting the services.

Base Ball.

One of the most interesting games of ball played for some time in this city, was played yesterday afternoon at the fair grounds, some two or three hundred spectators being present and witnessing the game. The Platts mouth club appeared for the first time in their new uniforms and to the best advantage, and the club is certainly a strong one. Frank Brown their catcher gave excellent satisfaction and played a number one game which in fact all of the Platts mouth boys did with one or two exceptions and the Omaha club was badly defeated as is shown by the score appended below:

INDEPENDENCE DAY. A Grand Celebration in Platts mouth. Details of the Day's Doings.

Yesterday was an old time regulation 4th of July, hot, dusty and noisy, and the sound of the fire cracker, the cannon cracker and the snap of the toy pistol was heard from early morning until far into the night; the skies at night being filled with the glare of the sky rocket and candles.

The soda fountains, lemonade and ice cream stands kept the temperate man in a reasonable state of coolness, and if any individual attacked with too much cordiality the cup that intoxicates, a good and sufficient police force stood ready to stow the party away in the coolest corner of the cooler, where rest and recreation came free of charge.

THE PROCESSION formed at Sixth and Main street at about 10 a. m., under the direct surveillance of Capt. Marshall, J. W. Johnson and R. W. Hyers, the marshals of the day.

The Ancient order of Hibernians, the Fire company, the Liederkranz society, the Bohemian society, Mc Conihie Post, G. A. R., the A. O. U. W. society, the Workingmen's Association, all headed by the Behemian band, and with the G. A. R. band in the ranks, formed the procession which marched to the park followed by citizens generally both on foot and in carriages.

AT THE GROUNDS.

A speakers' stand, dancing floor and band stand had been erected, which were surrounded by scattering seats which were altogether insufficient in number to accommodate even a small part of the gathered throngs who were assembled on the grounds; however, as many as could grouped themselves around the speakers' headquarters, and partook of the eloquence in genuine allopathic doses.

Major Wheeler, who presided during the exercises, opened them by calling on the band for music, after which Dr. R. R. Livingston read the Declaration in a clear, decisive way, so that all in reach of his voice heard and understood.

THE ORATION

delivered by Mayor Smith, next followed, and was eloquent and patriotic, one of Mr. Smith's best efforts. Mr. Smith spoke of the grandeur of this country of ours, the liberties, rights and privileges, granted a people under our form of government. He compared the country now with the struggling colonies of a hundred years ago, and showed the development of American institutions and American homes in our land—a land that opened its doors to the poor and oppressed of the old world, where all come and make of themselves citizens with us.

TOASTS AND RESPONSES.

then followed in the following order and each speaker did entire justice to his topic. District Attorney Strode in response to "Independence Day" made a very happy speech in favor of ever keeping in the memory of old and young the glorious achievements of our forefathers and the results of the day upon which the American people celebrate. A. W. Crites followed next responding to the sentiment "the development of the intellect the safe-guard of American liberty," citing the history of centuries in the past to illustrate his topic and enlarging upon the upbuilding of men's motives and thoughts through liberal education.

A. N. Sullivan next responded to the toast "The Flag of Erin," in a very eloquent and felicitous manner as the judge is ever capable of doing, and his remarks were highly commended and applauded. "Government" was next responded to by Hon. R. B. Windham, who in a thoughtful and carefully prepared response, dwelt upon his topic, speaking so that all heard him and all were fully interested in his remarks.

Joseph A. Connor next responded to "The Ancient Order of Hibernians" in a poetic and flowery recitation of the early Irish wrongs, tracing them down to the present and reciting the objects and aims of the order of Hibernians, its growth and prospects; his remarks were listened to with much attention. "The Press" was next responded to by Frank H. Wilson, who made one of the happiest speeches of the day, speaking entirely impromptu, making numerous hits that were thoroughly appreciated. Mr. Sherman also responded very briefly to the same topic and music closed the exercises.

A PICNIC DINNER followed and a grand dinner at tables furnished by the ladies of the Catholic church, who had also all the refreshment stands in charge. The proceeds of which go to aid in establishing their St. John the Baptist parish school and the proceeds we learn resulting from the efforts of the ladies, aggregate nearly $400. During the afternoon a general picnic was enjoyed by all. In the evening the

A. O. H. BALL in Fitzgerald's hall was very largely attended and the change in the weather made the evening most pleasant for dancing. The A. O. H. had very satisfactory arrangements and their ball was an entire success.

AT BELLEVUE. The B. & M. headquarters men at Omaha did the pleasant thing for the office boys in Omaha and for the office men in the store department and master mechanic's offices in this city by arranging a gala picnic at Bellevue, furnishing their guests free ice cream and lemonade for the day, besides a dancing platform and a string band for their entertainment. About eighteen or twenty availed themselves of the invitations and attended from this city and report a most pleasant time.

AT GLENWOOD, IOWA. The B. & M. band were aiding in celebrating the day and at night a delegation of old soldiers from the post here, went over to enjoy a campfire with old companions in arms. So the day to this city and environs was certainly a gala one.

PERSONALS.

H. A. Sturgis, of Omaha, was in the city yesterday, a guest of Frank E. White's.

Mrs. A. W. McLaughlin passed the summer holiday in Lincoln with relatives and friends residing there.

Col. Vanatta, the orator of the day at Louisville, returned home this morning, and reports a very enjoyable celebration at that place yesterday.

Mr. & Mrs. J. A. Connor leave tomorrow for the east, Mrs. Connor to visit at her old home in Wisconsin, and Joseph A. to accept a seat at the feet of John Kelly, in the Chicago convention.

B. Windham, of Glenwood, came over this morning to Platts mouth and will be in the city over Sunday.

Miss Ethel Marsland returned home to Lincoln this morning, a number of her young friends seeing her off at the depot.

B. F. Nix, county clerk of Union county Iowa, accompanied by his wife, and family, came over from Afton to celebrate the glorious 4th with J. C. Eikenbary's people, who are relatives.

Father Jeanette, of Omaha, was in the city yesterday, a spectator and attendant at the festivities of the day in Platts mouth.

Mr. J. N. Wise, Mrs. Mrs. Buell and families were in Omaha yesterday celebrating the natal day in that city.

R. O'Neill, of Lincoln, came down to participate in the luxuries of July 4th, in this city of his first love, returning home this a. m.

Mayor Smith is in Omaha today, recuperating after the labors in the forum yesterday.

County Clerk Jennings is in Weeping Water on a business trip to that city.

Geo. Chambers, a former Platts mouth boy, and for several years an employe in this office, came down from Schuyler to pass the 4th here.

Patsy Burke, an old time Platts mouth boy, who is winning his way out in the State, was in the city yesterday to celebrate.

Hon. Wm. Neville and Charley McEntee were home from railroad work to celebrate the 4th.

Mr. H. Draper, of Odin, Illinois, brother of Z. C. Draper, of this city, and an old newspaper man, being recently the editor of the Odin Journal, is in the city for a brief visit with relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Capt. D. Myers were in Omaha, yesterday, visiting friends.

Dr. R. R. Livingston, and son Guy, start tomorrow morning for the far west and a three week's trip among the mountains for rest and recreation.

Dr. John Black starts tomorrow for Chicago, where he will be an attendant at the sessions of the National Democratic convention. Dr. Black is one of the old, substantial democrats in Cass, and he will no doubt enjoy the feast there spread.

Will Fitzgerald is home from the Calamoose, and does not bring very glowing accounts of that country. There are several timber claims on the Calamoose for sale.

Lost.—A memorandum book July 4th on Chicago avenue, containing six dollars in money. Finder please leave at this office.

Marriage Bells.

The many friends of Miss Daisy Richey, who has passed a good share of her time in this city, will read with much surprise the following from the Galveston (Texas). News, received last evening. The Press, with her many other friends, will wish her much happiness in her new life:

Mr. Wm. Ginnuth, the popular hotel man, who welcomes his friends to the Park hotel at Lampasas, yielded himself yesterday to the darts of cupid, and became a willing wearer of the matrimonial bonds. Mr. Ginnuth's captivity was effected by a bright and charming young lady, Miss Daisy B., daughter of Dr. W. B. Richey, of Chicago. The ceremony took place at the Presbyterian church, Rev. William N. Scott officiating. The worthy groom is to be congratulated that he has been taken in charge by a captor so winsome, so bright and so loveable, and the young bride is to be congratulated in having thrown the lasso of love around so excellent a man for a husband. Both are to be congratulated, and a widely extended circle of friends will not be slow in bidding them God speed upon their life journey. The bridal couple have apartments at the Beach hotel.—Neb.
