Call for Republican Judicial Convention.
The republican electors of the second Judicial District of Nebraska are requested to send delegates from the several counties to meet in convention at Plattsmouth, Tuesday, August 18, 1884, at 10 o'clock a. m., for the purpose of placing in nomination a candidate for District Attorney, selecting a central committee and such other business as may properly come before the convention. The several counties are entitled to representation as follows, being based upon the vote cast for J. M. Hiatt, regent of the university, giving one delegate at large, and one for every one hundred and fifty votes and major fraction thereof:
Cass county 13
Lancaster county 21
Otoe county 11
Total 45
It is recommended that no proxies be admitted to the convention unless held by persons residing in the counties from which the proxies are given.
Plattsmouth, Neb., July 1, 1884.
J. B. STRODE, Secretary.
D. H. WHEELER, Chairman.

Republican District Convention.
The Republican Electors of the First Congressional District of Nebraska are invited to send delegates from the several counties therein, to meet in convention at Beatrice on Wednesday, August 29, at 2 o'clock p. m., for the purpose of placing in nomination a candidate for Congress, and for the transaction of such other business as may come before the convention. The several counties are entitled to representation as follows, being based upon the vote cast for J. M. Hiatt, Regent of the University, giving one delegate at large, and one for every one hundred and fifty votes and the major fraction thereof:

AT RANDOM.
Tell me not in mournful numbers,
Life is but an empty dream!
If you eat, say two cucumbers,
Things will be just what they seem.
A French philosopher says a woman may love or hate, but she can never be indifferent. Guess he has never seen the look that comes over a woman's face when her husband asks if there is such a thing as a shirt button in the house.
It has been discovered that Cleveland while Sheriff of a western New York county, acted as hangman in two cases. This probably began his reform career, but as the public is generally prejudiced against executioners, it may injure him with sensitive people. It is nominated these early reform episodes will give the cartoonists a grand chance.
A couple of Vassar girls were found by a professor fencing with broomsticks in a gymnasium. He reminded the young girls that such an accomplishment would not aid them in securing husbands. "It will help us in keeping them in," replied one of the girls.
"Where would we be without woman?" asks a writer. We would be all right; but the little pug dog—where would it be?
There are many who despise half the world; but if there be any who despise the whole of it it is because the other half despise them.
Who is wise? He that learns from every one. Who is powerful? He that governs his passions. Who is rich? He that is content.

Fitz John Porter will have to start up his printing office again. The crisis seems to demand a fresh supply of sympathy circulars.
A small boy recently testified in a Justice's court that the affray took place on a Sunday. How did you know it was on Sunday? Because that day I had to go the side door of the saloon to get beer for dinner.
"May I trouble you to tell me what time it is?" said a trim old lady at the hotel table not long ago to her vis-avis. "Certainly," said the gentleman addressed, taking out his watch; "it is just 7 o'clock." "Thank you," she said, "that's my pill time," and she took one then and there.
The Democrats claim that they will be able to herd the Irish vote as usual, this year. Our impression is that they will discover themselves in error. The Irish vote has met and unanimously decided to do exactly as it pleases.
General Logan knows enough about grammar to put the democratic party in the past tense.
A babe to sell, who'll buy, who'll buy? I heard a heathen father cry:
A girl to sell, she's young and small, She'll scarcely cost you ought at all.
A girl to sell, who'll buy, who'll buy? A heard a Christian father sigh:
Both sides the earth the same things done, For the highest bidder got each one.

Old Goodman went to some English opera when he was in Chicago, of the Alice Oates variety. He came home a very wrathful man. "Don't talk to me any more about giving woman the ballot," he roared. "If ever I catch my wife or daughter dancing in a necklace and a pair of slippers, somebody'll have to read the riot act before the ballot is half over, I don't care who tries to stop me." And the Goodman girls haven't dared to say "woman suffrage" or wear Bangs from that day to this.
The other morning a woman applied at the Troy, N. Y., surrogate's office for letters of administration on her husband's estate, the estate being a claim of a few hundred dollars against the city. "Did your husband leave any personal property?" asked the surrogate lord. "Indeed he did," replied the widow, "three boys and two girls."

Forgiveness is the most necessary and proper work of every man; for, though, when I do a just thing, or a charitable or wise act, another man may do it for me, yet no man can forgive my enemy but myself.
She is the most virtuous woman whom nature has made the most voluptuous and reason the coldest.

The question "Will the coming man be happier?" is asked, and an ignorant exchange says that it depends upon how he treats his mother-in-law. This is foolish. It will depend on how his mother-in-law treats him.
"Don't give me any of your lip!" said an ugly country school teacher to a pert young miss who had "sassed" him. "Oh, you needn't worry," she retorted, "I wouldn't kiss you even if the freckles on your face were gold dollars."
The democratic papers say that the party can lose Indiana. Of course it can. It never failed to lose it yet. If precedent is worth anything the statement can be accepted.

A well known preacher makes a recommendation of Ayers Pills a matter of religious duty. When people are bilious and dyspeptic, what they need is the Gospel of Health. In such cases the best creed to swallow consists of the thirty sugar coated in a pill box, who
