The Johnson Iron Works.
 Messrs. Ashley Johnson and Frank Beeson have purchased the old Cass County Iron Works of John Wayman and have already gone to work re-fitting the establishment with new machinery and appliances needed in a first class machine shop. Mr. Johnson, the business manager of the firm, is an uncle of A. Beeson, is a man of energy and pluck, and is financially able to back any enterprise he may take hold of. His present home is Indianola, Iowa, though he will spend most of his time here giving the business his personal attention. Frank Beeson, who will have charge of the mechanical department, is a machinist of considerable experience, both in the B. & M. shops here and at Creston. The new firm starts out with plenty of work, and with their new machinery and increased capacity for work, will no doubt become one of the leading industries of our city.

Important to Travelers.
 Special inducements are offered you by the Burlington route. It will pay you to read their advertisement to be found elsewhere in this issue. 47tf
