The telegraph office has been very tame during the democratic convenrepublican from Iowa, alone sat by the operator at the Western Union office Bayard and received dispatches. It was a great contrast compared with a month ago, when the republicans were in session and the telegraph Bayard the day by those anxious to hear the news, and the click of the instruments alone disturbed the silence. There was some fine work done today in sending and receiving bulletins. Oue was handed the HERALD by Man ager Karnes dated Chicago, 12:08 p.m. and a glance at the official clock showed the hour to be just 12:10, or two minutes behind the dispatch leaving Chicago. Many came that were only two or three minutei behind the time of leaving the convention, and the HER
