

$8,000 WORTH OF BOOTS AND SHOES

Financial embarrassment compels me to offer my stock for sale at a sacrifice. Sales are made for as money is what we need. This stock of goods is one of the most complete in the County.

Plattsmouth, Neb., May 6, 1884.

ROBERT SHERWOOD.

York politics as any one can be, says he is satisfied. CLEVELAND CANNOT CARRY NEW YORK. "Neither can he," said the President, be elected. Besides the labor party there other powerful interests are against Cleveland, and all fair minded persons in New York know it, and are free to admit it." President Arthur said, that while it was not expected he would go around the country making speeches at cross-roads, he would do all in his power for the perpetuity of the republican party, and the success of its candidates. In this desire HIS CABINET ARE SOLID, and democrats will find it out as soon as the campaign begins in earnest. Re publicans everywhere will fight it out on ideas to be promulgated in the let ters of acceptance of Blaine and Logan. They have no fear that Indiana will go democratic, and even democrats admit that the republicans now have the best chance of carrying Ohio in October. The only question with republicans now is what will be the size of the majority they will get Ohio by in Octo ber. They anticipate it will be by such a large one that hardly anything else will be heard of in the campaign.

PREPARING FOR WORK

The Political Outlook.

AN ENGLISH OPINION.

London, July 12.—The Daily News says: America's foreign relations would be safer in Cleveland's hands than in those of Blaine. The latter represents the American jingo party, which, like the same party here, makes up audacity and volubility for lack of numbers. As president, Cleveland would cultivate quietude abroad and peace at home. If elected he will be chosen on the ground that he would more worthily represent the probity, good sense and studied moderation of the American people than Mr. Blaine would.

WABASH MANAGEMENT.

New York, July 12.—The receiver of the Wabash will make general an nouncement Monday that Vice Presi dent Talmage of the Missouri Pacific, has severed his connection with the property and taken entire charge as general manager of the Wabash sys tem. The court in the original in struction ordered the receivers of the Wabash to cancel the lease of the prop erty to the Iron Mountain and to se parate the management of the two prop erties entirely.

THE LOUISIANA TROUBLE.

New Orleans, July 13.—A Times-Democrat New Iberia special says: The Gates Fontinello trouble is boil ing up again. Last night a party of 50 Gates men took possession of the court house while the Fontinello men were in a saloon near by. Both sides des patched couriers to different parts of the parishes gathering up men. The Fon tinello men declare they will take the court house today or tomorrow. The Gates men will be prepared to resist the assault.

THE WATER DRINKERS.

Pittsburg, July 12.—The national ex ecutive committee of the prohibition home protection party will meet here on the 22d inst. to make final arrange ments for the convention which com mences the following day. Delegates are already arriving and it is expected that when the convention is called to order, over 500 delegates will be seated, representing nearly all the states in the union.

CONVENTION REMNANTS.

Chicago, July 12.—There were very few remaining evidences this morning of the democratic convention. The dele gates very generally have taken their departure. The club and headquarters banners have been furled and the hotel corridors have resumed their wonted appearance. Members of the national committee and other leaders of the party express confidence as to the strength of the ticket. Delegates gen erally express great satisfaction at the treatment received at the hands of the local committee, and in providing for their comfort. Now that their great convention has come and gone it is due to the officers and committee of ar rangements that the press should ac knowledge its obligations. The re modeling of the hall made an admir able audience room, and the facilities granted for making, printing and tele graphing the extensive reports were ample. Special thanks are due to Judge Wm. C. Groudy for the preliminary arrangements of details and Hon. Aus tin H. Brown and Col. Richard J. Bright, the efficient sergeant-at-arms, for the intelligent aid rendered and just appreciation of the requirements of the press.

BUTLER—WILL HE OR WILL HE NOT?

New York, July 12.—John F. Henry, president of the national anti-monopo ly organization, said today: "I have not heard from Butler since Cleveland was nominated, but from what he said to me before going to Chicago I am confident he will not support Clevel and. He cannot do it. He has for mally accepted the nomination of the anti-monopolists and he telegraphed me from Chicago Thursday, saying he would never consent to the nomination of a monopolist."

Washington, July 13.—Statements have been telegraphed from here to the effect that the President did not intend to go out of his way much in favor of the election of Blaine and Logan; that he was personally friendly to Governor Cleveland and would not do anything against him in the coming campaign. These statements have sought to make it appear that the president snubbed be cause he was not renominated at Chica go and that he was personally unfriend ly to Blaine. Nothing could be further from the truth, and your correspond ent has authority from the President himself to deny them. President Ar thur, who is as well posted in New
