AN ADMIRABLE SUMMARY.

The Globe Democrat begins its report of the democratic national convention with the following paragraph, which gives in its few lines as perfect a history of the democratic party as if it occupied over two volumes each as large as Webster's Unabridged dictionary:

At noon Tuesday the divine blessing was invoked upon the first chapter of the seventh Blunder of the national democratic convention. The first of the series of which was committed at Charleston in 1860, when the solid south demanded that the crimes of the past should be recognized and protected as the right of the future. The second blunder was committed in this city in 1864, when an attempt was made to reverse the engine of history and make a popular leader out of the unsuccessful general. The third was in 1868, when he apostle of cringing peace was put up against the hero of successful war. The fourth was in 1872, when the democrats resolved to play "She Stoops to Conquer," and when they stooped so low that they fell over. The fifth was when they played the electoral commission game to win what they thought was theirs already. The sixth was when they allowed their candidate to show his ignorance in a tariff letter, and the seventh is yet uncommitted in such sense as to be clearly defined, but is gradually shaping itself on the horizon so plainly that he who runs, though he run on crutches, or on all fours, can read.

MR. HENDRICKS opened the campaign by a speech at Indianapolis, in which he leveled an attack at Secretary Chandler and the navy department. It only took Mr. Chandler twelve hours to give the public a reply in which he showed that the fraud committee had been done by a civil service democrat who owed his position to democratic senatorial and representative influence. When Mr. Hendricks commenced to handle the old thing he didn't know it was loaded.

Messrs. Col. Ruffner, Daniel Stout Draper, Astronomical W. Crites, Chas. Whopper Sherman, and peradventure our telegraphic correspondent Bro. Connor, should not forget that in the distribution of the loaves and fishes, immediately following the election of Mr. Grover Cleveland, that those who first stand and partake of the crowd diet will be the first on the lists for rewards and succours. These democratic nominees ought to be ratified. Brethren, brace yourselves and ratify. There are about five hundred republicans in the city that enjoy the nominations so well themselves that they will gladly assist in getting a crowd, and may be induced to contribute toward the general expense. This public would enjoy listening to Bro. Crites in a philosophical argument on reform; it would enjoy seeing Bro. Sherman showering sledge hammer Free Trade blows taken from that straddle platform. But above all the height of pleasure would be to hear stone quarry Draper eulogizing Mr. Cleveland for hanging two Irishmen, and the HERALD's next friend, Bro. Connor, eulogizing Mr. Cleveland as a friend of the working men, and the people of every nation who have found a home in this new world.

They are ratifying Cleveland's nomination in England thousands of miles away, and here at home we sit idly by with all the hopes and promises of office before our hungry eyes.

Men and brethren, we repeat, this will never do. In the immortal words of Mr. Flannigan, of Texas, "what are we here for?"

Let us be done with this foolish apathy! Let us arise and ratify!

MAJ. D. H. WHEELER hands the HERALD the report of the Ohio State statistical agent, which report is compiled from estimates returned from 780 townships in that State. This report, besides being a complete summary of growing crops and stock, has prices of products as returned from the different sections of the State. The most remarkable showing is this: The average price of the wool clip in Ohio in 1881-2, before the reduction of the tariff, was 38½ cents; the average price 1883-4 has been 27½ cents, which gives in round numbers a loss of $2,000,000 to the wool growers of Ohio, in this year's wool clip alone.

These figures as stated before were the returns of farmers from all over the State who report to the State statistical agent, who in turn reports to the Agricultural Department at Washington. A more complete and reliable exposition of loss in dollars and cents by the approach to Free Trade, could not be given.

SPEAKERS IN THE SENATE.

New Orleans Times-Democrat: The present average speaking in the United States Senate is about 150 words per minute, though there are several speakers who utter more than 200. Among the fastest speakers at present are senators Beck, Hawley, Plumb and Morgan. Beck leads the list Senator George, of Mississippi, is perhaps the slowest. Daniel Webster was a very slow talker, and he would not average over 100 words a minute. Henry Clay spoke much faster, rolling out about 150 words to a minute. Calhoun was also slow until he became roused up with enthusiasm of his subject, when his words would flow more rapidly.

CONGRESSMAN SKINNER, of New York, said before the nomination of Cleveland: "Mr. Blaine has better prospects of carrying New York than Garfield had in 1880, and the situation is constantly improving. The people throughout the entire state are his friends, regardless of political lines, and the republicans are his enthusiastic supporters. If Cleveland should be nominated, Blaine would walk away from him in New York. There is nothing to Cleveland as a presidential quantity. The campaign would drag on democratic hands the moment he should be nominated. The democrats in congress have made a record from which the party cannot escape. It has been a roaring farce, the session just closed. The people elected 325 representatives, but three men and the speaker have run things—Randall, Holman and Wellor."

This paper hopes by live, continued effort, to spur democracy in this locality up to a point wherein they may dispel the blues long enough to make an attempt at ratifying the democratic nominees.

THE HERALD is for ratification; as an exchange says, Mr. Cleverick's and Hendlund ought to be recognized.

BLAINE, LOGAN and victory, can now see the democratic circus pass by with the tail at the head of the ticket.

BEN BUTLER will run for President. He will make his fight in New York, and it is unnecessary to say that the fight will be a good one.

DR. MILLER announces his departure for the east, where he will, no doubt, "fix things," and be prepared to carry Oregon for Cleveland in the fall election.

THE GOVERNOR of New Jersey says that the nomination of Mr. Cleveland was the weakest that could have been made, and the Governor is a good old democrat.

THE HERALD feels the hot weather as well as the rest; but it feels the necessity for a democratic ratification meeting, also, and has hopes it may yet be secured.

JUDGE F. WICKHAM, of Norwalk, Ohio, says Ohio is a Blaine State all over. We shall give him almost a majority up to 50,000. He is the popular choice among the republicans, and will poll a larger vote than any republican who could have been named, unless an Ohian had been selected. There are elements at work in our favor that will count largely in general results.

The Germans, who went over to the democrats on the Scott law issue, have begun to come back to us, since the democrat legislature, after playing fast and loose with them, adjourned with out repealing the law, and the Supreme Court, that was expected to declare it unconstitutional, has not been able to find an excuse to do so.

The Germans have found that democratic promises are not kept, and being republicans on all other issues except the local ones, are returning to us. Our candidate for Secretary of State, General Robinson, is a strong man, and that will also help.

THE HERALD is for ratification; as an exchange says, Mr. Cleverick's and Hendlund ought to be recognized.

Vital Questions !!!

Ask the most eminent physician
Of any school, what is the best thing in the world for quieting and allaying all irritation of the nerves, and curing all forms of nerves, complaints, giving natural, childlike refreshing sleep always?
And they will tell you unhesitatingly
"Some form of Hops! !!"

CHAPTER I.
Ask any or all of the most eminent physicians:
"What is the best and only remedy that can be relied on to cure all diseases of the kidneys and urinary organs; such as Bright's disease, diabetes, retention, or inability to retain urine, and the diseases and ailments peculiar to Women?"

"And they will tell you explicitly and emphatically 'Buchu! !'"
Ask the same physicians
"What is the most reliable and surest cure for liver diseases or dyspepsia; constipation, indigestion, biliousness, malaria fever, ague, &c.?" and they will tell you:
"Mandrake! or Dandelion! !!"

Hence when these remedies are combined with others equally valuable, and compounded into Hop Bitters, such a wonderful and mysterious curative power is developed, which is so varied in its operations that no disease or ill health can possibly exist or resist its power and yet it is harmless for the most frail woman, weakest invalid or smallest child to use.

CHAPTER II.

"Patients
"Almost dead or nearly dying"
For years, and gave up my physicians, of Bright's and other kidney diseases liver complaints, severe coughs, called consumption, have been cured.
Women gone nearly crazy! !!
From agony of neuralgia, nervousness, wakefulness, and various diseases peculiar to woman.
People draw out of shape from excruciating pangs of rheumatism, inflammation and chronic or suffering from scrofula.
Erysipelas!
"Salt rheum, blood poisoning, dyspepsia indigesting," and, in fact, almost all diseases frail"
Nature is heir to
Have been cured by Hop Bitters, proof of which can be found in every neighborhood in the known world.
None genuine without a bunch of green Hops on the white label.
Shun all the vile, poisonous stuff with "Hop" or "Hops" in their name.
