SOLDIER'S HOME

"CITIZEN" speaks in yesterday's HERALD in advocacy of effort by our people to secure the Western Soldier's Home. It does seem strange to the HERALD, and we think must read strangely to our neighbors throughout the state, that appeals have to be made to Plattsmouth people to turn out and do something for themselves in a matter like this, or in any other matter involving the material advancement of our city and her people.

The New York Sun bolts Cleveland.

The aroma in and about Buffalo is too fragrant.

SPEAKING of the issue between Cleveland and the Widdy Hallin, the topics now of the Lincoln Journal says it is no new issue, mentioning the fact that the boy is six years old.

SAID Senator Aldrich, of Rhode Island, the other day, "Mr Blaine's darkest day was the day after he was nominated, he has continually gained, from that moment, with the people."

Judge Kinney, of Nebraska City, a live long democrat, has announced his determination to vote for Blaine and Logan. Judge Kinney's name is a household word in this city. It was named after his daughter Beatrice—Beatrice Republican.

And his compensation is the Yankton, Dakota, Indian agency. It would seem that we must have democratic converts when they come that high.

MR ROSCOE LONGING has signified his intention of making a couple of political speeches during the campaign. Assurances are given that those speeches will be in advocacy of James G. Blaine and the old republican party.

SINCE the letter of Mr. J. W. Harper, Jr., soliciting the publishing of Mr. Blaine's book, has been made public, the managers of Harper's Weekly would fain crawl into a hole. The animus of their "weekly" is thus shown up and Reformer Curtis placed in his true light before the country.

MR. THOMAS A. HENDRICKS is a pretty sensible democrat. When asked what answer should be returned to the charges certain clergymen of Buffalo make against Grover Cleveland, Mr. Hendricks signified that "mum was the word." Doctor Miller will please take notice of this sly suggestion from an old sage.

MR. CARLSCHURZ assured a motley crowd in Brooklyn the other evening that the tariff was not an issue in the present campaign. So it seems this independent grasshopper is not charging anything for his speeches in behalf of the independent tide.

Just at the democratic national committee call in this noble candidate reformed for a few dozen lectures in Ohio and see if the tariff is no an issue!

However, Carl has discovered that Mr. Blaine is a bold, bad man, an immoral man (?). To sum it all up in one inflexible utterance, this goody, goody state-man, assures the country he would do anything before he would vote for James G. Blaine; he even went so far, in an extravagant illustration showing how he loathed and detested Mr. Blaine, as to say, he would even vote for Tommy Hendricks, for the first place, before he could support the man from Maine.

BLAINE AND KNOW-NOTHINGISM.

As the charge of Know-nothingism has been made against Mr. Blaine by democratic organs, no more appropriate squelcher can be given such falsehoods than to quote the great statesman's own words upon that subject found in Vol. 1 Chap. VI, page 117 of his "Twenty Years of Congress." Says Mr. Blaine:

"This party (the Know-Nothing) was founded on proscription of foreigners and with special hostility to the Roman Catholic Church. It had a full and feverish success, and in 1854-5, under the name of 'Know-Nothings,' enrolled tens of thousands in secret lodges. But its creed was narrow, its privileges were illiberal, and its methods of procedure boish and undignified. The great body of thinking men in the North saw that the real contest impending was against slavery and not against naturalization laws and ecclesiastical dogmas. The Know-Nothings therefore speedily disappeared, and a new party sprang into existence, composed of anti-slavery Whigs and anti-slavery democrats."

By the way, there is nothing so pleasant to republicans as to have our democratic allies hunt up Mr. Blaine's record on such topics.
