At the weakly meeting, (about twenty-five were present), of the democratic debating society for Cass county, quite an interesting argument was indulged in over a proposition advanced by that great expounder of democratic doctrine, ye editor of ye Journal. The promoter of harmony enunciated the principle that the importation of Bohemians, Swedes and all other denizens of Europe under the contract system, or colonization process, was as injuri- to down their Republican adversaries. ous as the importation of Chinese, and He suggested that they endeavor to must be stopped. He informed his pluck the iron from their hearts by hearers, that doubtless the chosen of Americas people-far from their haven of rest, the White House-democracy's leaders had made some laws or introduced some measure prohibiting the further introduction of this class of laborers, but, that he was certain affirmative and negative speakers for the platform contained no such prohi- the next protracted meeting," and now bition; of his own knowledge he was not aware of the existence of such a measure, but that some of his influentlal hearers might write to headquar ters and be advised where in the hidden or unwritten law, such an enunciation of principle might be found, and with it they could strike terror to the bonest republican heart. From the tenor of the remarks in answer to our contemporary's proposi tion, we are led to believe that Bro. Sherman still harbors in his heart a kindly feeling for the grand old party, and that he purposely sets his new al ies "by the ears" in order to breed dis sension, which always follows the discussion of every question in the democratic ranks. Let the good work go Toward the close of the exercises last night loud cries were made for Joe Connor. The Colonel who occupied a seat on the mourner's bench, front row, informed his hearers "that he who laughs last laughs easiest" and heartily informed those present that they would be welcome at the "feast of reason and flow of soul" to be held at the county court house this evening at 8 o'clock. Our worthy democratic representative in the last General Assembly, Hon. Wm. One of the Democratic debaters at last night's meeting, after the discussion had waxed hot and furious, in an effort to pour oil on troubled waters, crying "perturbed spirit rest, be still," made the most salient point of the evening. The president had announced that "these weekly meetings were for the purpose of discussion," instructing the democratic youth as it were and arming them with argument wherewith "tearing to pieces section by section the Republican platform and Blaine's letter of acceptance." Judge Crites, in furtherance of the president's suggestion, "moved you,' that a committee be appointed to select a subject and designate arises our ancient, poetic and "befo the wah" democratic friend, the venerable progenitor of a white man's government; proclaiming that the only reason he was a staunch democrat was "that Know-Nothingism was distasteful to him for the reason that he was of foreign birth; that when he first landed in this country, a leading citizen, (democrat doubtless), informed him that Know-Nothingism and Republicanism were synonomous, and that consequently he embraced democracy, and finally land ed in Utah" That the speaker is a thorough democrat, there can be no doubt, as witness the following: "We want no more discussion, we have had too much already; let us meet like democrats, talk democracy, remembering the republicans are in power; let us bend our energies' solely to getting them out, and IF we succeed then we can argue about Free Trade and everything else of vital importance to the nation -until we get there let us preserve a dogged silence-lest out of our own mouths our opponents convict us. I am for Free Trade because I am an Englishman;" and with a brilliant pocratic obscurity.

As the audience was in the main com posed of our worthy fellow citizens from the Emerald Isle, The Faderland H'old H'England and the Dominion of Canada, Charles W. was most magnificently left. In the language of the patriot Flanagan, the audience with one voice, demanded "why are we here?" The distinguished president of the club waxed elequent, thanked God that he was a foreigner and an honest man, (Amen) and in noisy tones, denounced Know Nothingism, the Jour nal editor, and the republican party. to which his heart still pays fealty, no matter what his lips may after. The while all the good ladies for a half dozen blocks in the vicinity of the club and a few of the ventursome disre garding "present condition," recognizing the voice of their well known coadjutor in bringing to light republican voters, came to the door of the club room, peered in and left, thanking Heaven and the democratic party that the Doctor was still spared to
