The several counties are entitled to representation as follows, being based upon the vote cast for J. M. Hiatt, regent of the university, giving one delegate at large, and one for every one hundred and fifty votes and major fraction thereof:

Republican District Convention.

The Republican Electors of the First Congressional District of Nebraska are invited to send delegates from the several counties therein, to meet in convention at Beatrice on Wednesday, August 29, at 2 o'clock p. m., for the purpose of placing in nomination a candidate for Congress, and for the transaction of such other business as may come before the convention.

The several counties are entitled to representation as follows, being based upon the vote cast for J. M. Hiatt, Regent of the University, giving one delegate at large, and one for every one hundred and fifty votes and the major fraction thereof:

Counties	Del.	Quotients	Del.
Douglas.....	19	10	3
Gage.....	11	13	13
Johnson.....	9	5	5
Lancaster.....	21	12	12
Nemaha.....	11	12	12
Otoe.....	11	13	13
Cass.....	13	139	139

It is recommended that no proxies be admitted to the convention, except such as are held by persons residing in the counties from which the proxies are given.

C. A. HOLMES, Chairman.
JOHN STEEN, Secretary.
Lincoln, June 26, 1884.

No stronger ticket could have been named for the support of the electors of Cass county, than this, our soldier ticket of 1884.

H. GREELEY, is the name of a new democratic editor of a new democratic paper at Wahoo. It has been demonstrated, however, that in running a democratic paper there is nothing in a name.

The Congressional convention at Beatrice Wednesday; the state convention at Omaha the 27th, and the field will be open for work in this section of Nebraska.

ELOQUENCE would break forth in speech if not in song at Saturday's convention, and Mayor Smith's nominating speech of Mr. Hyers, as well as speeches from Judge Wolph and others were received with great enthusiasm.

The Cass county republican convention passed a resolution unanimously endorsing Congressman Weaver for a second term. This is but simple justice to our Congressman, who has been faithful in duty during his first term, and who will be a more efficient member the coming term. The idea that has gained prominence that Cass county had favors to bestow in this line upon other candidates, has been exploded.

TOMORROW the Judicial District convention will be held in this city. The district comprises Cass, Lancaster and Otoe counties. The nomination of a candidate for district attorney is the only business of importance to come before the Convention. Mr. Strode will probably be nominated by acclamation and the session will be a short one. Lancaster county, at the republican convention last Saturday, elected twenty one delegates to the convention and instructed them by unanimous vote to vote solid for J. B. Strode. At the Cass county republican convention that gentleman was allowed to name the delegates to represent the county in that convention. Otoe county has not been heard from yet, but it is said it will be solid for Mr. Strode. This is a good endorsement of that officer's record. He has also received complimentary notices from the press all over his district. We clip the following from last Saturday's paper:

There does not appear to be any opposition in the Second judicial district to the renomination of Mr. Strode as prosecuting attorney. He has filled the office to the general satisfaction of the people and credit to himself.—Neb. Cynosure.

There seems to be no opposition to Hon. J. B. Strode, for District Attorney for the Second judicial district. He has filled the position with decided ability, and has won the confidence and esteem of all who have come in contact with him as district attorney. He is pronounced and endorsed as the right man in the right place.—Lincoln News.

The Republican ticket nominated at Louisville, Saturday, is a ticket that commends itself to the good judgment, the good sense and the patriotism of all the members of the party. It is a ticket made up of reliable, competent, time tried and tested citizens, who honor the ticket as the republican party honors itself in their selection. The republican party, with such men as R. W. Hyers, Dr. Thomas, Geo. W. Clark, James Crawford, Anderson Roer and John H. Becker as standard bearers in the coming contest, presents a front to the common enemy that ought to prove invincible, and with the party strength behind it, can and will be elected by a good round majority over any nominees the united opposition can name. The ticket is a ticket of old soldiers, and two of the nominees have held positions of trust with the people of Cass County heretofore, and their records in these positions have been such as to merit and receive the cordial endorsement of the people. Geographically the ticket comes from all the more important parts of the county: Mr. Hyers from Plattsmouth, Dr. Thomas from Weeping Water, Mr. Clark from Greenwood, Mr. Crawford and Mr. Roer, the farmer's candidates, from South Bend and Rock Bluffs, while Mr. Becker, the candidate for Commissioner, comes from Eight Mile Grove precinct.

The delegates assembled, who nominated this ticket, worked in the greatest harmony, and worked with the one great object in view, of placing a ticket in the field that would command the hearty support of the people. The delegates assembled were representative republicans, representative citizens of Cass County, and the body politic was as earnest, loyal and able a delegate convention as the republican party has ever gathered. Therefore, success to their work; success to the ticket; success, too, at the polls in November through a united party in hearty cooperation!
