National Republican Ticket.

FOR PRESIDENT,
JAMES G. BLAINE,
of Maine.

FOR VICE-PRESIDENT,
JOHN A. LOGAN,
of Illinois.

REPUBLICAN JUDICIAL TICKET.

For District Attorney,
JESSE B. STRODE,
Of Cass.

REPUBLICAN COUNTY TICKET.

For State Senator,
REUBEN W. HYERS,
Of Plattsmouth.

For Representatives,
GEORGE W. CLARK,
Of Salt Creek.

J. W. THOMAS,
Of Weeping Water.

JAMES CRAWFORD,
Of South Bend.

ANDERSON ROOF,
Of Rock Bluff.

For Commissioner 2d District,
JOHN H. BECKER,
Of Eight Mile Grove.

It is an open question when Mr. Cleveland comes out of the woods, whether it will be a letter of declination or of acceptance.

A stalwart body of republicans from Lancaster, are enjoying the freedom of this city today, attending the Judicial District convention. This office extends fraternal greetings.

Mr. BUTLER has tired of waiting for Cleveland to come out of the woods with his letter of acceptance, and so he gives to the public his own, and will undoubtedly review Mr. Cleveland's letter from the stump.

BLAINE, the substitute, and Logan, the soldier; the substitute first and the soldier last.—Lincoln Democrat.

Cleveland, the substitute, and Hendricks, the copper-head. Does this better suit the patriotism of Mr. Virquain?

LOUISVILLE, Weeping Water, and South Bend have already organized Blaine and Logan clubs, and now comes Greenwood, which will organize one this week. These, in addition to the organizations in this city, show the enthusiasm of the republicans in old Cass.

Mr. P. W. WILCOX, of Mendota, Ill., who speaks in this city, at any convenient time that may be agreed upon, will meet the Nebraska member of the Cobden club, Mr. J. Sterling Morton, if that gentleman and his party so desire. The democratic campaign committee might mark this down for future consideration.

Down in New York state some wag has secured pictures of Oscar Halpin Cleveland, the illegitimate son of Grover Cleveland, and from these litho graphs have been struck, and they circulate them. Whether or not democratic rooms are to be furnished with them, the paper containing the announcement does not state.

U. S. GRANT is a believer in Mr. Blaine, and in his letter of acceptance. This is what he says of that document:

The letter of acceptance written by Mr. Blaine, is a document in which all republicans should take a great deal of pride. I have read it over carefully, and I regard it as one of the most remarkable political papers ever written. It is like the writer, frank and open. I do not regard it as too long, as he could not have so thoroughly covered the questions which all lovers of our country are interested in so deeply, in a shorter one. It is beyond doubt one of the ablest papers ever given to the public.

THE heels of the Democratic ticket, Mr. Hendricks, has returned from his missionary tour in the east. The dispatches state his return in a disgruntled and despondent condition, owing to the fact that in all his search in the state of New York, harmony could not be found, neither could it be secured at any price. Instead of seeing Mr. Watter-son's star eyed goddess of reform holding forth in that state, Mr. Hendricks discovered on every hand, the uncovered hatchet of John Kelly; instead of hearing the laudations of Mr. Cleveland's purity, he heard nothing but the "Mariar" scandal denied by Beecher, admitted by Cleveland and harmonized by Horatio King; instead of enthusiastic democratic meetings with Mr. Cleveland sitting in the midst, Mr. Hendricks left Mr. Cleveland in the confines of the "north woods" and Irish and labor democrats organizing and joining Blaine and Logan clubs.

It is no wonder, considering this state of affairs, that Mr. Hendricks feels sick, sore and weary. Little wonder that to his vision the possibility of seeing the fraud of '76 avenged, fades in the distance. Little wonder that the vice presidential apple that looked so sweet and tempting at the Chicago convention, now proves bitter, unsavory and a withered windfall.

In fact, in view of the ragged and despondent condition of the head of the democratic ticket, little wonder need be felt if Mr. Hendricks himself takes to the woods; the woods are full of fleeing democrats.

Mr. STEPHEN W. ORTON, the chairman of the republican county committee, has issued his call for a meeting of the County Central Committee this Saturday at Weeping Water, at which time immediate steps for campaign work will be taken. The HERALD believes that Mr. Orton will prove the right man in the right place; that he has a number of the Central Committee behind him, and that an energetic, enthusiastic campaign will be inaugurated by them that will elect every man on the republican ticket.

Both political parties will find as the campaign progresses, that the republican ticket as selected, and which heads our columns, is one possessing all the elements of strength requisite for their election, and the republican party of Cass and its live, energetic workers will stand ready to assist Mr. Orton and his committee in a campaign that will most assuredly score victory in November.

N. D. JACKSON of Neligh, a classmate of the writer, has been nominated for District Attorney in his district. One of the missions of a newspaper is to offer congratulations to those who gain success in political life, and when it comes to offering them among your own, as it were, the mission is a pleasure. Mr. Jackson is a lawyer of fine abilities, and a thorough gentleman in every respect. Further words are unnecessary.

Advertising Cheats!!!
"It has become so common to begin an article in an elegant, interesting style.
"Then run into some advertisement that we avoid all such.
"And simply call attention to the merits of Hop Bitters in as plain, honest terms as possible,
"To induce people
"To give them one trial, which so proves their value that they will never use any thing else."
"The remedy so favorably noticed in all the papers,
"Religious and secular is
"Having a large sale and is supplanting all other medicines.
"There is no denying the virtues of Hop plant and the proprietors of Hop Bitters have shown great shrewdness and ability
"In compounding a medicine whose virtues are so palpable to every ones observation."

Did She Die.
"No!
"She lingered and suffered along, yining away all the time for years."
"The doctors doing her no good."
"And at last was cured by this Hop Bitters the papers say so much about, "Indeed! Indeed!
"How thankful we should be for that medicine."

A Daughter's Misery
"Eleven years our daughter suffered on the bed of misery.
"From a complication of kidney, liver, rheumatic trouble and nervous debility
"Under the care of the best physicians
"Who gave her disease various names,
"But no relief
"And now she is restored to us in good health by a simple remedy as Hop Bitters that we had shunned for years before using it."
—THE PARENTS'
Father is Getting Well
"My daughters say:
"How much better father is since he used Hop Bitters
"He is getting well after his long suffering from a disease declared incurable."
"And we are so glad that he used your Bitters"—A Lady of Utica, N.Y.
