Attend the Blaine and Logan meeting at Rockwood Hall, Monday night.

Quiet days for trade these, when the hum of the threshing machines are heard in the land.

Observer today reviews the democratic speech of the other evening with some facts that are worth more than passing attention.

Dirt is flying upon the double track grade to Orepolis, and while it is a difficult piece of work in many respects, it is progressing rapidly.

We learn that Mrs. Harry Reese is seriously ill, and that grave apprehensions are entertained as to her recovery.
The HERALD hopes these fears may prove groundless.

An Irish republican in this city has a letter from Father Lynch, now at Grand Island, in which Father Lynch expresses himself as for James G.
Blaine for President.

The base ball game yesterday resulted in 27 to 3 in favor of the home team, and the boys who tried to get rich by betting against the Plattsmouth club were badly left.

B. & M. passenger engine 101 came in yesterday from Denver badly mashed up from a wreck out on the west end.
Engineer Dixon was running her at the time, but he escaped injury.

A new mogul engine the 450, to be used on the bridge run here, arrived from the east yesterday. Four more locomotives will soon arrive from the contract lot of ten to arrive this fall.

The Germans held a meeting at the Court House last night and organized a Cleveland and Hendricks club. The Bavarian band stopped over night to furnish them music for the occasion.

At the German club meeting last night a Cleveland and Hendricks organization was effected by the election of John Mumm, as President, and P.
J. Hanan, as Secretary with a vice-President from each ward in the city.

Bishop Mallahan, who was announced to preach in the M. E. church tomorrow evening, will not be here. He will not travel on the cars on Sunday, hence the failure. Dr. Thompson made the appointment without consulting the Bishop with reference to the Sunday travel.

The converted Jew, W. H. Bernhard will preach tomorrow morning and evening at the Christian church. In the morning at 11 a. m., subject, Life's Purpose; evening at 7:45 p. m. Mr.
Bernhard will give his reasons for leaving Judaism and embracing Christianity. At the close he will recite an original poem, "Disowned by my mother." All are cordially invited.

C. A. R.
There will be a meeting of McCon-hie Post this evening, at their hall in Fitzgerald block. An attendance of all members is desired.

Ladies Attention.
On Monday afternoon at 2 p. m. there will be an auction at the Fair exclusively for the ladies, at which time a large line of laces, trimmings, lace, good handkerchiefs, notions, &c. will be offered and sold at auction. The attention of the ladies is especially invited to this sale and the opportunity it offers to purchasers.

Frank Dusch.
Frank Dusch, who traveled for Myer & Raapke of Omaha, and who boarded with his wife at the Perkins House this city for some time, and who it will be remembered proved a defaulter to his firm, to several friends in this city, and skipped to Colorado, has been recaptured and brought back to Omaha. It is stated that his father-in-law will try and settle the tidily and save Dusch from conviction.

Blaine and Logan Club.
This morning a paper was started out for the organization of a Blaine and Logan Club, comprising republicans in the city not identified with the Young Men's Republican Club. At noon between seventy-five and a hundred names had been enrolled, and it will be increased to up in the neighborhood of two hundred. Monday evening this new club met at Rockwood Hall for organization, and all who signed the roll should be there.

The Tibbles Sewing Machine.
Frank Carruth, who is one of the five directors of the Tibbles sewing machine, has received notice from the company that the Tibbles machine has been selected by the commissioner of patents at Washington, as the special machine to be used by the Government at the New Orleans World's Exposition to illustrate the progress of invention in the sewing machine line. This is an honor conferred over every other machine, and is a big gun for the company.

ED. HERALD:—The HERALD, it seems, had no reporter at the Cleveland and Hendricks meeting on Thursday night, and yesterday's issue gave us no account of the efforts of the "reformers" on that occasion. But the Journal comes to the rescue of those who were not there, and who want to know how the "labor of reform" progresses in our midst.

It tells us that Livingston took the stand and asserted himself for an hour.
The Dr. is good on assertion. At least if he said what the Journal reports him as having said. It says "he deprecated the slurs and self-evident falsehoods thrown out by the recent republican speaker (meaning Wilcox), and advocated a more dignified course of conducting a campaign on the part of democrats by dealing only in facts." How pleasant that is. The Dr. would have us listen to words of wisdom, and then immediately following sets an example in direct contradiction of his counsel.

He attempts to show that Blaine is no friend to the Irish-American citizen, and cites the case of McSweeney.
The Dr. ought to know that that case was fully investigated, and that Mc-Sweeney, though a naturalized citizen, of the United States at one time, voluntarily denationalized himself. He went back to Ireland six or seven years ago with his family and settled himself in business and has remained there ever since. His business, his property and all his interests are there. He has taken an active part in political discussions. He has been an officeholder there. He has applied to be re-nationalized and restored to British citizenship. While under arrest he was offered his liberty on condition of returning to America, and refused to accept it because he claimed Ireland as his home.

The U. S. government did all it could for him, but its efforts were fruitless, because he himself declared he was a British subject. Besides, Blaine had retired from the position of secretary of state before he could have done anything in McSweeney's case further than he did do.

When the Dr. so vigorously asserts that Blaine and the republican party are not friends of Irish-Americans, will he tell us what Cleveland or the democratic party have ever done for them that entitles them to any respect from that class.

Intelligent Irishmen remember what Blaine did for Burke, Warren, Costello and other Irish-American Fenian prisoners. They know that it is largely to his personal efforts they owe the treaty of 1870 in which Great Britain abandoned its old time principle of once an Englishman, always an Englishman.
They know that the heresy of Free Trade, together with the objectionable land tenure system, have brought to Ireland untold woe. They know that the British government has been their tyrannical oppressor, and in this connection it might be well to ask the Dr. how deeply he has sympathized with the Irish people in their conflict with the English. Where has his sympathy been strongest, with Ireland or with England?

England and the democratic party are the prominent champions of free trade today. The Cobden club of England, advocates the election of Cleveland, and deprecates the probability of Blaine's election. They do so because Cleveland stands on a free trade platform. Give Ireland a parliament of her own, and the first act passed would be a protective tariff, and in twenty years from now the exiled Irishman would return to the land he loves to find it much more contented and prosperous than now.

From the Journal's report it seems the Dr. also asserted that Blaine only paid the men in his mines 62½ cents per day. Will the Dr. tell us where he learned this "fact." We venture the assertion he can produce no proof of the "fact." It seems he also asserted that Blaine was a Know Nothing. Every man who has read the papers since this assertion was made first by the democratic press, knows something in direct contradiction of the Dr.'s assertion.

Our judgment is, the Dr. ought to pursue a more dignified course of conducting the campaign by dealing only in facts.

PERSONAL.
W. P. Sowards, of Ashland, is on business in this city today.
Prof. Drummond came over from Weeping Water this morning to pass Sunday with the family at home.
Rev. F. M. Estabrook was in Omaha last evening attending a reception tendered Bishop Mallahan.
D. M. Blue one of the B. & M. popular railway boys, is running the main line passenger for a few days in place of Joe McCoy.
H. C. Brown, of Washington, D. C., formerly an attorney at Ashland, is in the city today interviewing old friends.
Frank B. Wilson and A. N. Sullivan are attending the central committee meeting at Weeping Water today.
D. J. Jones and family of Topeka, Kan., formerly of this city passed last night at the Perkins while enroute eastward.

SUNDAY.

What Day Should We Observe.

There will be an oral discussion between Elder A. J. Cudney, of the Seventh Day Adventists, now holding a series of meetings in Plattsmouth, and Elder D. R. Lucas, of Des Moines, Iowa, and editor of the Christian Oracle of that city. Elder Lucas is a prominent representative of the Christian church.
The question for debate will be the Sabbath question, or what day should be observed as the Sabbath. The proposition will hereafter be made public.
This discussion will commence on Tuesday evening next at a place to be agreed upon and will undoubtedly be an interesting and able debate.

College Hill Items.

We are having delightful weather here now, though visited by a heavy rain yesterday.

Farmers are fast getting through threshing. Hank and Ad Boelker have the boss threshing machine, and are doing some fine work with it.

Miss Annie Schlater returned home last Saturday from Bradshaw where she has been visiting with her sister, Mrs. Joe Tighe, for some time.

Mr. Theo Boelker has been quite ill but is able to be around again, we are glad to state.

Miss Flora Davis returned home from Plattsmouth last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Ward, of Louisville, paid the Hill a visit last Sunday, the guests of Henry Lehnhoff's.

Thaddeus Adams and Frank Lonsdale were sight seeing in Omaha Thursday.

E. O. Mayfield and wife were the guests of Mr. Thad. Adams' folks Sunday.

If you want to see a fine orchard and some nice fruit just pay Conrad Schlater a visit.

School commences Monday with Miss Laura Waterman as teacher.

Fred Boelker went to Honey Creek, Iowa, last Thursday to see about—well, we won't say just what it is, at present; will let you know later if there is anything serious.

Cary Manker and Charlie McPherson still continue to make long and frequent calls at the Hill.

Al Sterzbach has left us and gone to Louisville again to tend bar awhile.

If reports are true we are sure to have several weddings in the vicinity, More in the future.

The New Rink.

The skating ring to be built by Frank Carruth, as announced yesterday, will be 44x130 feet, instead of the figures as given then. It will be a fine, substantial building, lighted and ventilated from the roof. It will be furnished with ladies and gents dressing rooms, with office, skate room, water closets, &c., and around the room will be two elevated rows of chairs for skaters and spectators. In one end of the room will be a band balcony, and the rink will be built and furnished in every particular in the most complete manner possible, making it without doubt as fine a rink as there is in the State. The HERALD is glad to note such complete and substantial improvements, and we have no doubt but it will prove every way a success.

The renomination of Hon. J. B.
Strode for district attorney of this county has given the greatest satisfaction to the members of the bar, the judiiciary, and all those who love to see the law executed proficiently, fairly and fearlessly. Mr. Strode has made an industrious, painstaking, impartial officer. During his first term of office he has had some of the most difficult cases to handle that ever came up in the First judicial district, especially in Lancaster county, where, in some instances, the juries had a better right to indictment than the prisoners. Notwithstanding the fact Mr. Strode fought for the right gallantly and he deserves re-election. He is a friend of the people and they should be friends to him.—Lincoln Free Press.
