City Council tonight, in regular session.

Attend the Blaine and Logan meeting at Rockwood Hall tonight.

The public schools will open the first of the month, and the long summer holidays are about over.

A Nebraska City doctor was arrested Friday charged with murdering a babe. After an inquest by the coroner's jury and a hearing in the county court, the prisoner was discharged.

The Catholic society have traded the frame house building adjoining the church to V. L. Kaen, and the same is being moved away. We understand the society will build an addition at once to their present school building.

The Cass County Agricultural Society Directors met at W. S. Wise's office Saturday, and transacted business pertaining to the Fair. It was passed unanimously to invite Hon. A. J. Weaver, of Falls City, to deliver the annual address.

Wiggins' Museum from San Francisco, went through via the C. B. & Q. this morning to Oskaloosa, Iowa, and from there it goes to the State Fair, at Omaha. This is one of the finest museums in the country, and the collection of live birds in it is very fine.

The HERALD is sorry to learn that Sunday Dr. and Mrs. N. B. Hobbs, of Elmwood, buried their baby, which has been lingering at death's door for several days. A very large number of friends were present at the funeral, and their friends in this city all extend sympathy.

The County Central Republican Committee met at Weeping Water on Saturday last pursuant to call, and elected Frank H. Wilson, of Plattsmouth, Secretary, and S. W. Orton, of Weeping Water, Treasurer. The meeting was an important one, and Messrs. Hyera, Clark, Root, Thomas and Becker, the candidates lately placed in nomination by the republicans of Cass county were present, and participated in the deliberations. The following executive committee, to have full charge of the campaign in Old Cass was appointed: S. W. Orton, Frank H. Wilson, Simon Rector, S. M. Davis, A. B. Dickson.

Among the Sick.

Mrs. Wescott, mother of C. E. Wescott, is very low and her physicians, entertain little hopes of her recovery.

The second twin babe of Mr. and Mrs. McCauley, that has been lying at the point of death, is much better.

Mrs. Harry Reese, the HERALD is pleased to state is much better today, and Dr. Schickelmeier pronounces her on the road to recovery.

The little babe of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Pickens, that has been very low, is better today, and hopes are entertained for its recovery.

Blaine and Logan Club. The call is out for the organization of a Blaine and Logan club at Rockwood Hall tonight. This call is signed by some one hundred citizens exclusive of the members of the young men's republican club, and they will form a strong organization for campaign work. It is requested that as many as possible attend, that steps may be taken at once for active work.

Will this Advice be Taken? Oh No!

PLATTSMOUTH, Aug. 22, 1883.

EDITOR HERALD:—After reading for the past three months the malicious editorials that are to be found daily in the columns of the Journal, "patience has ceased to be a virtue;" the vials of indignation so long corked must at last unloose, a part at least, of their contents. Since wonder and indignation was first aroused by an ignorant statement found in one of its earlier issues to the effect that "Fitz John Porter has at last had justice done him, as Congress has just pardoned him notwithstanding the president's veto." This has daily increased with each new edition, until we are forced to the conclusion that its editor is either a very narrow-minded, ignorant species of mankind, or wilfully malicious, misleading, in fact untruthful.

The climax was reached the other night in reading the Journal's article headed "The Wilcox Speech." He commences by speaking of Mr. Wilcox as the "Mendota carpenter," thereby insinuating that a "carpenter" is not sufficiently intelligent, high-toned enough, for some such reason, should not be "launched at the defenceless denizens of Plattsmouth."

Now, Mr. Editor, we submit to you, is not a first-class carpenter as intelligent, of as good social standing, as a one-horse editor of a two-by-nine paper? He further speaks of the gentleman's address as a "harangue." Having listened to such political orators as James G. Blaine, Carl Schurz, Roscoe Conkling and a host of others we might mention if necessary, and we have no hesitancy in pronouncing Mr. Wilcox a very earnest, matter-of-fact speaker, and as such commanded and held the attention of his large audience from the moment he made his first utterance. And this fact of his holding the attention of his hearers was the most positive proof of his qualifications as a speaker. Perhaps we are not sufficiently familiar with the significance of the word "harangue," to judge whether the bold, confident utterances to which we listened should be classed as such or not, therefore we would humbly request a clear explanation of the word, if the editor of the Journal will be so kind. How sad it is that no opportunity can be given this brilliant wielder of a mighty pen, to personally exhibit to the poor, benighted "denizens of Plattsmouth" his definition of what constitutes a great speech. Do you know this editor forcibly reminds one of La Fontaine's Fable, "The Frog and the Ox." For fear he may have forgotten the tragic end of the frog we will relate it for his especial warning: "There was a frog that used to leave his accustomed mud-puddle every morning for the purpose of sunning himself upon the bank close by. One eventful morning while so doing his attention was attracted by an ox feeding near. Quoth the frog unto himself, what a fine, large animal that is. How I would like to be as great. If I could only swell myself up a little each day, perhaps I might attain to the same proportions. From that day he began each day to draw himself up and swell his sides, until at last one sad morn he gave one gigantic endeavor and in so doing burst!" We are much alarmed for our poor Journal man, who, unless he keeps more in his "accustomed retreat," and stops gazing with envious eye at the magnificent proportions of the Republican party, may find himself at some future time in the same condition as the little frog.

To again quote from last night's article he says: "He informed the editor of this paper, with many an ominous shake of the head, that he proposed to wave the ensanguined garment all he liked, and whenever he wanted, and defied any investigation into his own private record." Our wonder was excited at the fact of the speaker's not ominously shaking the editorial head of the Journal, which treatment he richly merits because of the article, penned by him a few evenings ago, derogatory to Mr. Wilcox's character.

If the democrats of Cass county would only be advised, they would, poetically speaking, give this impertinent child of theirs, a good spanking and send him to bed for the remainder of the campaign.

CITIZEN.

McConihie Post No. 45, G. A. R., held a special meeting Saturday evening for the purpose of perfecting arrangements for the Post to attend the re-union at Fremont this week. The HERALD reporter is informed that a majority of this Post will attend the re-union with their tents and camp equipage; also that the Post passed a resolution requesting Gen. R. R. Livingston and Messrs. C. W. Sherman and S. M. Chapman to attend this re-union as a special committee on behalf of McConihie Post.

Wm Coburn, of Stove Creek precinct a well to do farmer, was brought to this city yesterday by Sheriff Eikenbary and Commissioner Clements. This morning he was taken before the board of insane examiners, who adjudged him insane, and tomorrow the sheriff will take him to the asylum at Lincoln. His trouble seems to have arisen from inflammation of the brain.

JUDGE LYNCH.

He hangs the Mexican Rape Fiend in Lancaster County.

Luciano Padillo, the Mexican who was lately discharged from the penitentiary where he had served a sentence for rape, and who a week ago outraged a thirteen year old girl in Lancaster Co. was taken from the officers Saturday and hung to a tree. The man had been confined in jail at Lincoln since his capture, but Saturday the officers were notified that the victim of the outrage was dying, and they started with the prisoner across the country, that the girl might identify the prisoner before she died. The officers took the man to the house, and the child at once identified him, but he was never to see Lincoln again. The cornfields were alive with men on horseback, and when the start was made back for the city, forty determined men gave chase, overpowered the officers, took the Mexican to the scene of his crime, and after giving him five minutes to pray and confess, they strung him up and left him dangling in the air. The officers did all possible to save the prisoner, but they were powerless to cope with the lynchers, who numbered some of the best citizens and who made little effort to disguise themselves; J. M. Caig, the postmaster at Crete, being a leader among them. The sentiment all seems to be with the lynchers, who rendered certain and speedy punishment.

Bishop Mallalieu. Bishop Mallalieu of Boston is in the city, and will preach this evening in the M. E. Church. This is a rare occasion to hear one of the ablest members of this great church, and our citizens should not miss the opportunity.

Adjudged Insane. Wm Coburn, of Stove Creek precinct a well to do farmer, was brought to this city yesterday by Sheriff Eikenbary and Commissioner Clements. This morning he was taken before the board of insane examiners, who adjudged him insane, and tomorrow the sheriff will take him to the asylum at Lincoln. His trouble seems to have arisen from inflammation of the brain.

THE RE-UNION.

The Re-union was Arranged by the Committee at the Last Meeting—Re-union Notes.

The re-union committee, having in charge all the details of the big gathering in September, met in this city on Saturday, with the following members present:

Commander Palmer, Messrs. John Hammond, I. P. Gage, secretary, E. N. Morse, treasurer, Geo. W. E. Dorsey, chairman, and Frank Parcell, quartermaster.

A large amount of business was transacted and the detailed programme as published below was agreed upon.

MONDAY, SEPT. 1.

Gathering of the hosts. Meeting of state organizations. Establishment of intelligence office under the manager of Past Department Commander J. C. Bonnell.

Formal turning over of the camp to Commander General John M. Thayer. Camp fire in the evening.

TUESDAY.

Continuation of business of previous day. Organization of volunteer regiments for service during re-union. Drill and dress parade. Camp fire in the evening.

WEDNESDAY.

10 o'clock a. m.—Grand parade and review by the school authorities, teachers, and pupils of the Fremont City schools.

Afternoon—Reception of Lieutenant Brainard one of the survivors of the Greeley polar expedition, and who has been nearer to the north pole than any other living man.

3 p. m.—Children's camp fire. Night attack and repulse. Camp fire in the evening.

THURSDAY.

Forenoon—Meeting of state organization. Afternoon—Grand sham battle. Reception to Gen. John A. Logan, the famous commander of the 15th army corps. "Cartridge box and forty rounds."

Camp fire in the evening. FRIDAY.

Forenoon—State reunions, and election of officers of state organization.

Afternoon—Reception to Commander-in-chief Gen. John S. Kountz, of Toledo, Ohio, and other distinguished guests.

Evening—Grand naval battle, gunboats passing the forts at night—heavy firing.

SATURDAY.

Breaking camp. Adieu, good-byes—God bless you, boys! Break ranks; march!

Old Shiloh fighters will be glad to know that Gen. R. M. Prentiss will be here; Commander Palmer has his positive promise to that effect.

HE HANGS THE MEXICAN RAPE FIEND IN LANCASTER COUNTY.

Luciano Padillo, the Mexican who was lately discharged from the penitentiary where he had served a sentence for rape, and who a week ago outraged a thirteen year old girl in Lancaster Co. was taken from the officers Saturday and hung to a tree. The man had been confined in jail at Lincoln since his capture, but Saturday the officers were notified that the victim of the outrage was dying, and they started with the prisoner across the country, that the girl might identify the prisoner before she died. The officers took the man to the house, and the child at once identified him, but he was never to see Lincoln again. The cornfields were alive with men on horseback, and when the start was made back for the city, forty determined men gave chase, overpowered the officers, took the Mexican to the scene of his crime, and after giving him five minutes to pray and confess, they strung him up and left him dangling in the air. The officers did all possible to save the prisoner, but they were powerless to cope with the lynchers, who numbered some of the best citizens and who made little effort to disguise themselves; J. M. Caig, the postmaster at Crete, being a leader among them. The sentiment all seems to be with the lynchers, who rendered certain and speedy punishment.

DEBATE.

Elder A. J. Cudney, of Fremont, Nebraska, and Elder D. R. Lucas, of Des Moines, Iowa, will hold a joint discussion at the tent on Granite street, near Chicago avenue, on Tuesday and Wednesday evenings, Aug. 26th and 27th, 1884.

Subject for discussion—The Sabbath Question. Debate begins promptly at 7:30. No admission fee. Everybody invited. If stormy, bad weather, to be held at Rockwood Hall.

NOTICE.

Since the dissolution of the partnership existing between Boyd & Larson, I will say to the citizens of Plattsmouth and farmers in the surrounding country, that I will continue to contract and build buildings of all kinds as usual, and I am prepared to execute work of all kinds and give satisfaction. I refer you to men I have dealt with for six years, also to some of the leading business men in town.

Very Respectfully, Yours Most Obediently, L. G. LARSON.

The insane man from Otoe county is still in jail here, the authorities of that county failing to pay any attention whatever to request of officials here to come and take him away. This afternoon Sheriff Eikenbary will take him before the insane commission for their judgment as to his sanity, and the sheriff has telegraphed again today to the Sheriff of Otoe county to come and take him away.

A Surprise Party.

About forty girls and boys gathered together Saturday evening, and went up north Sixth street, to Capt. Myers', where they tendered a surprise party to Minnie E. Coghlan. A merry time was enjoyed through the evening, and Miss Minnie was the recipient of many handsome presents, the day being her birthday, and the party in honor of that event. One of the party contributed the following, which is certainly worth reproducing:

MINNIE E. COGHLAN—AN ACROSTIC.
Minnie, may thy life be ever bright
In thy youth and in old age—
No night, but days all light.
No blot upon thy title page:
I write these few lines for thee
Ever may thy birthdays happy be—
E'en through all Eternity.

Calm on the bosom of thy God,
O glorious hope of perfect love,
God has said forever blessed:
Heavenly Father, Sovereign, Lord—
Lift your eyes of faith and see
Angels from the realms of God,
Naught but happiness may there be for thee.

Did She Die.

"No!"
"She lingered and suffered along,
Yielding away all the time for years."
"The doctors doing her no good."
"And at last was cured by this Hop Bitters the papers say so much about."
"Indeed! Indeed!"
"How thankful we should be for that medicine."

A Daughter's Misery

"Eleven years our daughter suffered on the bed of misery."
"From a complication of kidney, liver, rheumatic trouble and nervous debility."
"Under the care of the best physicians."
"Who gave her disease various names."
"But no relief."
"And now she is restored to us in good health by a simple remedy as Hop Bitters that we had shunned for years before using it."

Father is Getting Well

"My daughters say:
"How much better father is since he used Hop Bitters."
"He is getting well after his long suffering from a disease declared incurable."
"And we are so glad that he used your Bitters!"—A Lady of Utica, N.Y.

Sheriff's Sale.

By virtue of an execution issued by W. C. Showalter, Clerk of the district Court, within and for Cass county, Nebraska, and to me directed, I will on the 6th day of September, A. D. 1884, at 10 o'clock A. M. of said day at the Fitzgerald Ferry, in the city of Plattsmouth, Cass county, Nebraska, on the west side of Chicago Avenue, sell at public auction, the following personal property, to-wit: Seventeen head of Hogs, five Cows and five Calves, 6 months old, one white Mule, and one two horse Wagon. The same being levied upon and taken as the property of John Fitzgerald, defendant; to satisfy a judgment of said Court recovered by John F. Fitzgerald plaintiff, against said defendant.

J. C. EIKENBARY, Sheriff Cass Co., Neb. Plattsmouth, Neb., Aug. 25, A. D. 1884—150
