John A. Newman was today married to Miss Ollie Jones, of Rock Bluffs precinct.

A host of Plattsmouth people were passengers this morning for Omaha and the State fairs.

Phil Young has had a very elaborate sign painted on the front of his store room over the windows.

The Dodge county seat fight resulted in favor of Fremont, a special election being held in that county.

Mr. R. Wilkinson, one of Weeping Water's most genial citizens is here today in attendance at county court.

Mr. Wm. Herold is erecting a comfortable residence of six rooms on his property near the shops, which we learn he will when completed present to his daughter.

The subject at the tent tonight and tomorrow night will be "The Spirit of God, and how man rested in the church." Friday evening, "Baptism"; Saturday and Sunday evenings, "Temperance."

Mr. J. D. Simpson informs us he will soon have his news and notion room at the postoffice fitted up in tasteful style, and will, as the demand warrants, greatly increase his line of news periodicals.

Bea I, the fore-thief, was held yesterday by the authorities, and this morning the Sheriff of Fremont county Iowa came over after him. He went along without competing the officers to get out requisition papers from the Governor.

A very heavy train from the west this morning, bound for Omaha, was pulled before they arrived at Oresopolis, which resulted in Blaine getting 313 votes; Cleveland, 110; Butler, 20; Mrs. Lockwood, 3; almost 3 to 1 for the Maine statesman.

If our citizens wish to see a handsome, tasty, store or news room stocked with a rare and tasteful line of stationery and notions, all they have to do is to call on Mr. Phil Young at his new stand formerly occupied by Bennett & Lewis, on the north side of upper Main street. Such displays of nice goods are a credit to our city.

We were shown the plans for Dr. Livingston's new office, last evening, and we are glad to note the erection of so fine and complete a building in that part of the city as the Doctor has decided upon. The plans were drawn by Mr. Kouhn and reflect great credit upon that gentleman's abilities as an architect and draughtsman.

District Clerk Showalter handed the HERALD yesterday, the district court docket for the September term, 1884, which that gentleman has arranged and prepared for the printer in a neat and workmanlike manner. This docket contains some 200 cases and will be printed, bound and placed in Mr. Showalter's hands for distribution at an early day.

Miss Katie Dorrington will return home about the 20th from her summer visit among friends and musical schools in the east, and will organize a class in music, to begin October 1st. She will return with her brother, L. A. Dorrington, who is now in Chicago on a leave of absence from the B. & M., with whom he has been a faithful servant and is getting a merited rest.

A. L. Timbith, law partner of H. L. E. Lincoln, at Arapahoe, came in this morning. He says the best crops the valley ever produced were raised there this year.

He reports the young law firm of Arapahoe as doing a good business from a beginning.

The state fair at Omaha this week is well under way and well worth attending. The stock show is particularly good, comprising some of the best to be found west of Chicago.

The fruit display is the largest ever made in the state, indicating what a perfect fruit country we have here in the great state of Nebraska.

While the agricultural implement exhibit is scarcely equal to last year's, it is well worth seeing. The fruit and nut halls are rich in their store of woman's as well as man's handiwork that alone would pay for a trip to Omaha to admire.

THE UNIVERSITY

Or Nebraska at Lincoln—Announcement for 1884.

The university opens in all departments on Tuesday, September 9th, 1884.

The College of Medicine, by the accession of Drs. Livingston and Mercer to the chairs of Theoretical and Clinical surgery, has now a very full and strong faculty and offers advantages of the best kind.

The college of Literature, Science and the Arts is better manned than ever before and ready for the best work in its Classical, Scientific and Literary courses.

The Industrial college, reorganized under the deanship of Professor C. E. Bessey, lately vice president of the Iowa Agricultural college, is just beginning a new era and guarantees to the people of the state the highest order of practical industrial education.

The Latin school offers two years' courses preparatory to the colleges of the University. The teaching force has been greatly strengthened and it is believed that the work of the school will be as thorough as can be given in the state.

All departments are open free to both sexes, the only charges being for matriculation and graduation—$5.00 each. Expenses moderate. Railway fare half fare rates to students. For half fare certificate, catalogue, etc., address IRVING J. MANATT, Chancellor.

Some Louisville correspondents grow indignant in yesterday's Journal, over the treatment the delegation from that point, to the democratic rally held in this city last Friday evening, received from the B. & M. officials.

The best deal about that rally, in our opinion, is the better for the Louisville delegation. It is a fact, that were many estimable citizens with that delegation and at the same time there were many who were not in a fit condition to run for Cleveland or take proper care of themselves, and the "old dog" fable consequently applies. The ring on the night freight was simply a favor for Superintendent Thompson to grant or refuse as his best judgment dictated, as the rules of the road positively prohibit passenger travel upon freight trains.

Of course Mr. Thompson could not pick out the sober men and proper regard for his own standing as well as the interests of the road prompted him undoubtedly to refuse to carry men who were unable to take proper care of themselves.

The B. & M. officials fully understand the responsibility of the road for persons injured while riding, consequently a due regard for the interests of his road doubtless prompted Mr. Thompson to refuse to carry the Louisville delegation on the night in question.

Another Republican Paper. The HERALD sanction was enlightened by a good, friendly visit, from Mr. Harry Rice, of Weeping Water, yesterday afternoon. Mr. Rice has purchased "the Cass County Eagle," Col. Wentworth's paper, of that city, and proposes to give the public as good a newspaper as their patronage will warrant.

Mr. Wentworth, who is an old veteran newspaper man, will remain with the Eagle for the present.

Mr. Rice is a clear headed business man, and one of Cass county's best citizens, and we predict that under his management the Eagle will greatly improve.

The HERALD wishes Mr. Rice success in his new enterprise, hoping that it may prove both congenial and profitable.

The Champion. The champion has been again made his appearance, this time as the sender of the following dispatch to the Chicago Times:

Omaha, Neb., Sept. 8.—To the Editor: The Cleveland and Henderson club has a grand parade this evening at Plattsmouth. There was a mistake taken on the train from Lincoln to Plattsmouth which resulted: Cleveland, 422; Butler, 92; Butler, 2; St. John 3.

Clothes Hair, Nail and Tooth Brushes, Combs, &c., nice line, at Fisher's east Main street. 4911

Tammany Harmony.

The following from a Tammany brave at the Saturday meeting of Tammany Hall, is a significant pointer to the democratic leaders showing about how John Kelly will carry that organization for Cleveland:

Ex-Senator Grady was loudly called for. As he arose he was loudly cheered. He said: I rise principally for the purpose of saying to you that I have taken no side in the support of or against the candidate, nor will I take sides until Tammany Hall, in its meeting of the general committee, has spoken. I am involved in no deal, nor am I engaged in transferring any other vote than my own. I never was an inner man in a political campaign, and I don't propose to be there now. I shall take a side in election of a candidate as my notions of honesty, manhood, and sterling unalloyed democracy dictate, and maintain as I understand it. The resolution before the committee calls for the appointment of a sub-committee to declare Tammany's position. When that declaration is made I shall try to show that those who masquerade today under the name of democracy, have proved themselves to be the enemies of the five million men who make up the party. I have no desire to dictate here. I will state before the general committee the reasons that dictate my course. I will follow to the far end wherever it may lead the course I have begun, because I began for conscience sake alone. If there be a man who forgives enemies, I am one; who follows through thick and thin, returning fire for fire, until one or the other goes down, I have no personal grievances with Governor Cleveland. I shall speak from the record, and I will not be ostracized from decent society if I cannot point to corruption stalking straight to the door of the executive mansion, and knocking at the door and coming out of the door, without that corruption sought, at the expense of the people. If I cannot prove that better known to fall in the assembly in 1883 were placed so near Mr. Cleveland that it induces you to have the money he has got in your time—if I cannot prove that, I am not what I profess to be.

Grady was frequently interrupted with applause. The resolution was then unanimously adopted, and a committee composed of the district leaders appointed, and the meeting adjourned.

Cass County Bank Building. We were permitted to look over the plans of the new bank building (Cass County) which is to grace the corner of Main and Fifth streets, and pronounce the same O. K. in every particular. When completed this building will undoubtedly be the handsomest structure on Main street. Probable cost, $10,000.

A Daughter. On Saturday, Sept. 6th, Mr. and Mrs. John D. Kennedy, of Omaha, formerly of this city, had born unto them a little daughter, and reports show mother and daughter getting on finely. Mrs. Kennedy is the eldest daughter of Mr. Ezra Sampson, of this city, who becomes a very proud grandfather for the first time.

The Maine election is having its proper and desired effect in the city. We notice the Young and Old Republicans are raising a huge and topological "pine tree" flag pole on the corner of Main and Fourth streets on the north side. From this "pine tree" sentinels across the street to the top of Waterman's opera house will be floated the large, handsome Blaine and Logan banner, which the republicans of Plattsmouth have purchased at a cost of $80.

"Kass" looms up in the State Democrat with a spy letter in which he attempts to bolster up Doctor Miller's unfortunate break in this city last Friday evening. All right, Mr. "Kass." Also this Democrat correspondent mentions Gen. Livingston as a fit candidate for Congress from the "Big Field." To this suggestion of "Kass" the HERALD takes no exception.

Rock For Sale. Samuel and Levi Everett offer for sale, good line stone rock for building purposes, at their quarry one and a half miles north of the city, on the road to Missouri river ferry. A huge assortment always kept on hand at reasonable rates. 124 6/11

Strawberry Plants. W. H. Hesser has now ready for market a lot of very fine Cumberland, Cranish, Sharpless, Crescent seedling and late Glendale Strawberry plants, at 25¢ per dozen, 75¢ per 100, or $5 per 1000; the above grown in Green par, strong plants, 30¢ per dozen. Samples of fruit on exhibition at Bennett & Lewis' where orders may be left. 118 1/2 w/11
