HON. ROBERT W. FURNAS, the present incumbent, is a candidate for reelection to the office of Secretary of the Nebraska State Beard of Agriculture, and in a circular, submi ting his name to the members of the board, the earnest request of numerous riends. Robert W. Furnas is an hon est and conscientious worker for the development of Nebrasks-ne has devoted time and money and the best years of his life to the advancement of her agricultural interests. He is a student and scholar, and his name and presence command, for the State tirepresents, the respect of the delegatein every National or Inter-National ssemblage. At the Centennial, in the city of Philadelphia in 1876, Nebrask. arst found national recognition solely through the intelligent representation d Robert W. Furnas, and at the Expeition now being held in New O leau . tie State he represents is without s peer in the completeness of the exhibit, the detail and arrangement of which ts almost entirely the result of our Commissioner's effort. When It is considered that his success at the last samed Exposition accompanied with slmost nominal pecuntary aid, the itizons of Nebraska only subscribing so 000-while the representatives of our sister States, Iowa, Missouri anlinnesota, have had from $40,000 to $80,000 at their command-it must be signitted that there is some magnetism a the name of Mobert W. Assistant Democrats. Washington correspondence: The remark of John B. Finch, chairman of he national executive prohibition committee, that "he being a democrat, had accomplished what he set out to accomplish, the defeat of the republicans," is worthy of consideration by his dupes. str. 6. C. Christon, chairman of tre robibition executive committee of I!lionois, and who stumpted the state with great vigor, bore a musket in the confederate army to shoot down our sons and brothers, who fired upon the "old flag," and did what one man could o to distroy the union and break op the government. When he came north as gravitated naturally into the democratic party. Rock Bluffs Letter.

Dec. 25, 1884, EDITOR HERALD:-The congesling powers of jack frost a week ago les Suuday night was too much for the old Missouri river at this point, so on Mouday morning an ice bridge had former for the first. The very low stage of the water in the river and narrowness of the stream at this place has been observed by several of the old settlers. A Mr. Franz, from Missouri, a brother of Wm. Franz of Factoryville, has recently moved into the house vacated last spring by Ben Marler. Mr. Franz is a good citizen for N. brasks and he helps greatly to increase the great dispropertion in our population, for he brings eight boys and only one, iri Such so essions added to the cold geather of last week, reminds our auxhas matrimonial candidates that some one ought to move here who has been raising girls; and we would like to say by the way, if that widow that corralled and lariated Wiley Black in a dry goods store will just come to Rock Blaffs she will find that the single men here are not near so bashful nor so ca sily scared when approached upon th -ubject of matrimony, by good looking widows or girl.
