The warm weather is now with us. For a truth we live in a world of change.

The traffic from across the river these days is very large and business in the city is brisk.

The political worker is looking toward Lincoln these days except those of course who are on the ground.

Fay Templeton and Company will visit Plattsmouth and the Waterman Opera House the last of the month.

The high school is not in session to day—Cause, the steam heating apparatus not in working order. d&wif

Mr. and Mrs. R. Newell desires to return thanks to their many friends who so generously contributed to their welfare on New Year's day.

The steam heating apparatus at the Opera House is in perfect working order again, and tonight all will go as merry as a marriage bell at the Two Johns' show.

The exhibition at the Rink, Saturday evening, was largely attended, and was interesting and exciting as well as entertaining. The Adams Bro's are great in their slack wire acts, as they exhibited in the open air prior to the rink entertainment.

At the regular meeting of the auxiliary society of the Home for the Friendless the following delegates were appointed to attend the annual meeting, to convene in Lincoln on the 14th of this month, namely: Mrs. J. N. Wise, Mrs. P. Walker, Mrs. C. M. Holmes and Mrs. P. Reffner.

The B. & M., which is not in the pool, expects to run excursion trains from Lincoln to New Orleans. The first one, which leaves some time next week will consist of twenty Pullman coaches. The fare will be only $80 for the round trip, with an addition of about $7 for sleepers. This is a very reasonable fare and the opportunity will, no doubt, be taken advantage of by the hundreds of Nebraska people.

A horse and cutter driven by one of the boys at the Bonner stable was rounding Main and 6th street corner this morning just as Mr. Young America on his sled came coasting down high school hill. The result was the horse took fright and in two seconds was in the creek by the bridge near Patterson's barn with a well-shattered cutter. No one injured.

Board of Trade.

The annual meeting of the Board of Trade will be held tomorrow evening, at the Court House. Annual election of officers and other business will be up for attention.

A. N. SULLIVAN, Pres't.
Wm. S. WARRICK, Sec'y.

Temperance Meeting.

The meeting at the M. E. church last evening addressed by Mr. Woodford was very largely attended, every seat and the aisles being filled with attentive listeners. Mr. Woodford gave a most entertaining lecture that was eloquent and logical as well. The interest was of the best and the meeting was thoroughly enjoyed by all who were in attendance.

"The Two Johns' Comedy Company with John Hart and J. C. Stewart came 25th for one week and turned people away by the hundreds. This was contrary to the expectations, as it was thought that the wretchedly bad dog show which played to empty seats during the past week would exert a disastrous influence over this house for some time to come. Only such a strong attraction as "The Two Johns" could have refuted the theatre's reputation. The factors, Hart, Stewart, and Baby Frank Roth (who tips the scales at 120 pounds,) were ably assisted by an excellent company, in consequence of which the audience were fairly convulsed with laughter from the time the curtain went up until the comedy ended.

The Two Johns is a funny play, and certainly created a genuine sensation in New York.

The Two Johns Comedy Company will appear at the Waterman Opera House Monday eve, January 5th.

Funniest of the Funny.

The opera house was well filled last night to greet the appearance of "The Two Johns." The audience was by far the most hilarious that has ever greeted a play in this city, and the entertainment throughout was a great success. The two principal characters—"The Two Johns" are so remarkably alike in proportion, feature and voice, as to occasion no end of laughter, by the numerous cases of mistaken identity, and many laughing incidents connected therewith. The play is somewhat similar to one called the "Comedy of Errors" and was undoubtedly suggested by it. John Stewart and John Hart, are just suited to their parts, as was all the rest of the company. The entertainment was interspersed by some fine singing, especially a solo by Emily Northrop, and some selections from opera, which greatly assisted in making this one of the best plays that has ever been put on our local boards. To sum it all up it is one of the most laughable and mirth provoking comedies ever written, and a second appearance would crowd the opera house to its utmost.—Hastings Gazette Journal.
