Candidate for County Judge.
I hereby announce myself as a candidate for the office of County Judge of Cass County subject to the Republican County Convention.
WILLIET FOTTENGER.

A Salisbury Dentist, in Rock-wood Building.

—Mr. W. B. Shryock, of Louisville is attending the fair to-day.

—Remember the Cass county republican primaries meet tomorrow.

—Miss Ella Gabriel, of Omaha, is at present the guest of the Misses Weckbach.

FOR REST.—Furnished rooms, corner of 6th and Granite streets. 8tf

—James Johnson and wife of Weeping Water, were in attendance at the fair yesterday.

—Leave orders for wood with John Tutt at Bennett's grocery store. 8tf

—Remember Shakespear's great comedy "Twelfth Night" at the opera house to-night.

—W. H. Pool, of Wabash, who has been attending our fair returned home last evening.

—Do not fail to see Marie Prescott and R. D. McLean in "Twelfth Night" at the opera house to-night.

—Mrs. S. C. Patterson of South Bend returned home this morning and Mr. Patterson will follow her this evening.

—Mr. Charles Weckbach, who has been visiting his parents here for a few days, returned to Lincoln this morning to resume his work.

—Mrs. J. C. Eikenbary, Mrs. W. B. Alexander, Mrs. Shopp, and Mrs. Houseworth left for Lincoln this morning to attend the conference of the M. E. church which is in session at that place.

—Leave orders for wood with John Tutt at Bennett's grocery store. 8tf

—The Y. W. C. T. U. will hold a meeting, in the Presbyterian church, on Saturday at 3 o'clock p. m. Important business demands the attendance of every member. By order of 9-2t OLIVE GASS, Pres.

DIED.—Mrs. Mary Swoboda died to-day from old age, she was 78 years old, and was the mother of the Swoboda boys who are well known in this city. She was born in Bohemia, and will be buried to-morrow, services to be held in the Catholic church.

—Lower Main street has become a disgrace to our town as there are brawls there every night, which endanges the lives of those who have to go into that part of town. Our police force have their hands full every night and do their duty well but the force is too small to keep order and something should be done to prevent honest men from being robbed in the latest evening.

—A Hastings boy named Riordan, a few nights ago, wanted a ride. Not having a horse, he appropriated one belonging to his father, a harness belonging to G. W. Lowery and a buggy belonging to H. H. Dean to his own disposal and started out on a lark. The horse didn't like the combination and distributed the buggy and the boy along the streets. As is usually the case the boy was not hurt but he is in trouble.

—The boys in the office at the Store house, where Will H. Miller is employed, return their thanks to Mr. and Mrs. Bennet for the basket of pears, grapes and cake from the wedding of their daughter Grace, and Mr. Miller. The Herald force wish to add their good wishes and thanks to that of "the boys" for a fine chocolate cake left at their disposal by Mr. Bennet, pursuant to Mr. Miller's good wishes.

An Excellent Company.

One of the best comedy companies that ever visited Plattsmouth is that of Marie Prescott who have the past two nights played before the Plattsmouth people. Last night they played "The Merchant at Venice" with an after piece, "Katherina and Petruchio" or "The taming of the Shrew."

The stars of the play, Marie Prescott and R. D. McLean brought loud and continued applause from the audience, and the play was excellent. To-night is the company's last night. They will present Shakespear's great comedy, "Twelfth Night." If you desire to see an excellent play—given by a competent company do not fail to attend.

$10 REWARD.—For any person giving information that will lead to the conviction of parties putting obstructions on the street car track.

MERCER BROS. & Co.

A Juror Robbed.

The pantaloen explorer got around to the Goose Hotel Wednesday and found his way to the room of R. S. Wilkinson, of Weeping Water, who is on the regular panel. At noon of the same day when Mr. Wilkinson returned to his room he found his pants taken from the hook and his pen-knife on the stand and several things out of their proper places, and up on examining his pants found the pockets empty. From the pockets of the jeans had been taken $4.50 in cash. Hanging behind the door in his vest was Mr. W.'s watch but it had not been disturbed.

—Anda Carlson, a Sweed, was choked and robbed of a watch and some money last evening, between 8 and 9 o'clock on lower Main street.

—There were three arrests made last night, all of them being for drunkenness, one of which was a tramp drew a knife on Johny Fitzpatrick, and he should be sent to the pen; such characters should not be allowed to run at large.

Court Notes.

Ed Hall, Frank Williams, Knight and Foreman plead guilty to the burglary at Weeping Water and were all sentenced to three years each, in the penitentiary and Foreman and Knight were convicted on the charge of attempt to break jail a short time ago and Knight was sentenced three years for this which makes him six years in the pen, and Foreman was sentenced two years which makes him five years to work for the state.

This finishes the criminal docket for this term of court, which is the largest criminal court this county has ever had. Sheriff Eikenbary will take eight prisoners to-morrow evening to the penitentiary at Lincoln.

Court will last about two weeks longer on civil cases.

How to Boom Your Town.

The following truthful paragraph we clip from the Johnson county Journal. We think it will fit some of our citizens very nicely and hope they will be profited by it. "Every one can be a boomer: Keep your money at home. Patronize those who patronize you. Spend your money among your home institutions, where you stand a good chance to get it back. Every dollar you spend with a stranger is gone forever. Every dollar you spend with a home man finds its way back to your own pocket. A dollar spent in an other town goes to help build up that town. A dollar spent here goes to build up our own town. Figure the thing down fine and you loose money by buying away from home even if you get the article for one-half what it would cost at home." Remember this and act accordingly.

A Representative Ear.

Mr. J. H. Paden has laid on our desk a sample ear of corn from a farm belonging to Mrs. Paden, adjoining Geneva. The ear, seven and one-half inches around and thirteen inches long, is a splendid, old fashioned representative of what Nebraska can do. The field will yield over fifty bushels per acre.—Hastings Gazette-Journal.

The above mentioned place—Geneva—is in Fillmore county in the western central part of the state, and it is quite evident that Fillmore county soil is about equal to Cass county soil, although there is some corn on exhibition at the fair that will lead the Geneva ear.

Fillmore is also a competitor with Cass on the fruit question, although Cass has always borne the reputation of being the best county in the state, and we believe she is. Fillmore took first prize at the Omaha fair on the best and largest collection of fruit.

Nebraska as a corn state ranks first of any in the union, and Mr. Eigenbrodt, of Chautauqua county, N. Y., while in conversation with a Herald reporter the other day remarked that such crops and farms as are common to Nebraska are never seen in his state.

Highest Mountain in America.
The highest mountain in the western hemisphere is Aconcagua, which rises 22,415 feet above the sea, and is in plain view from both Valparaiso and Santiago when the weather is clear. Chimboraço was until recently supposed to be the king of the Andes, and in geographies published thirty years ago was described as the highest mountain in the world. No one has ever reached the summit of either monster, but by triangulation Aconcagua has been determined to have an advantage of 2,000 feet over old "Chimbo" in stature.—Harper's Magazine.
