Judicial Topics.

The past two weeks of district court in this county have been attended with the trials and conviction of more hardened criminals than Cass county has known for the past ten years.

This week the civil docket is to be taken up with Judge Applegate, of Tecumseh, 1st district, on the bench, there being a number of civil cases to try which Judge Chapman cannot hear.

Spoken candidates for Judge Pound's shoes: The following clipping from the Nebraska City Times evidences the sentiments of Otoe county, as gleaned by that paper's reporter.

The court is occupied to-day Judge Chapman presiding with a jury trying the question of the title to College square a block of ground supposed to be dedicated to educational purposes in the village of Weeping Water.

From the West End. GREENWOOD, Neb., Sept. 26, 1887.—EDITOR HERALD.—Permit me secretary of the meeting, to give you a brief resume of the business transacted at the republican primary held in Salt Creek precinct on Saturday Sept. 24.

Geo. F. Finley, central committeeman from this precinct, acted as chairman and W. A. Keithley secretary. The following delegates were elected to represent the precinct at the county convention: J. V. Carnes, E. C. Coleman, M. Newman, Ira Saunders, Edwin Jeary, Geo. Finley, delegate at large, Wm. Coleman, N. Shafer, W. A. Keithley and C. A. Wooley.

The primaries was almost entirely harmonious, there being but one opposing voice or vote. The delegation as far as we have been able to find out, gives general satisfaction to the republicans of this locality, and will, we are confident, represent in the convention the unanimous sentiment of the constituents.

Yours &c., W. A. KEITHLEY, Secy.

The Quaker Medicine Company Respectfully ask some very plain questions: Can Consumption be cured or even benefited? Can a Cold be cured or even stopped? Can you expect to be even relieved by any medicine or physician?—No you cannot, if you simply change the temperature of your body three or four times a day—for every change you add to your cold—Mothers, your children's health and your future happiness demands of you consistent love. Shall vanity make your life miserable, ending only in death. Dr. Watson's New Specific Cough Cure is the result of science. Price 50c and $1. It is warranted by the following Druggist.

Union Nebraska. Ed. Herald.

DEAR SIR:—We send a few notes from our town again and we begin to think we are going to have a town. Frans & Co. have their store most completed, size 30x40. Thos. Baker has his hotel building almost completed. Mr. Lyman is building a large butcher shop. G. R. Rose has let the contract for the building of a residence to Mr. Foster, size of building 16x30. Wm. Wolfe has commenced to build a residence, size 24x26. Mr. Fowler has commenced to build a residence. The stone work is finished for two elevators and one car load of lumber on the ground for same, one being built by Mr. Hill of Nebraska City and the other by Sminke of the same place. Mr. Wolfe has his blacksmith shop in full blast and Mr. G. N. Laure has gone to work in his new shop and they both appear to have plenty of work to do. Franz Bowers has a nice little store room and shop finished to be used for a shoe store and shop. There is to be a hardware store here and will commence work next week to be run by a firm from Plum Hollow Iowa. Mr. Lynn is shelling his corn and delivering it on the track to Bartling & Co. of Nebraska City. Mart Barry is here receiving it for them.

Mr. S. A. Weimer is here now. He is stopping in the store with G. A. Rose. The real estate dealers are doing a good business here.

Mr. Gregg, of St. Joseph, is here part of the time buying grain.

There is a good opening here for a livery stable.

Our Union P. O. here has been moved to Factoryville but we will have a P. O. here in good time.

Mr. George Young was in our town setting up the cigars to the boys but I guess he was in a new town.

Our obliging station agent had the misfortune to get his knee thrown out of place and had to take a lay off for a while. Respectfully,

JAKE.
