Candidate for County Judge.

I hereby announce myself as a candidate for the office of County Judge of Cass County subject to the Republican County Convention.

A Salisbury Dentist, in Rockwood Building.

BROKE JAIL.

Four Prisoners in the City Department Court.

This morning when jailer Malick opened the jail and entered he was considerably surprised at the condition of things. The heavy lock on the city department of the jail was gone, having been broken off, and four of the prisoners, Jack Piersoll, Frank Dickson, Thos. Shelby and Wm. Packard, were not present, and the open scuttle hole above told the way of their escape.

The bars of the city part extend to the ceiling and by means of these the prisoners, after breaking from the inclosure, easily reached the scuttle hole and thus made their escape. The lock was large and powerful and how the men succeeded in breaking it is not exactly known, and they took it and their tools with them. Mr. Malick immediately notified the sheriff and gave the alarm. It was at first supposed they had boarded an early freight and made a good escape but about 9 o'clock this morning Piersoll turned up and placed himself in the hands of the officers and made a confession. He came in from Mr. Thomas' west of town and said Dickson was there, but intended to go to Stull's and get his clothing and skip, and that the other two, Shelby and Packard, had started on foot toward Nebraska City. He also stated that they made their escape from jail about 1 a. m.

At about 10:30 deputy sheriff James Sage left for the country to look for Dickson, and sheriff Eikenbary started on a chase after Shelby and Packard.

Piersoll and Dickson were serving out sentences and would have been liberated next Friday and Saturday, but Shelby and Packard were awaiting trial on the charge of grand larceny, having stolen hogs in the west part of the county and sold them in Lincoln. If caught, and they probably will be if Piersoll told the truth, the last two named will likely get a term in the pen. Another prisoner in the city department who was serving a term which expired this morning, very wisely remained in jail and waited for the law to liberate him.

The escape of the men is due to the carelessness of no one, and cannot be blamed to any body, for the night watch was discharged when the prisoners were taken to Lincoln.

This is the first jail-break here of recent date and is of small calibre, compared to the one which was so nobly foiled last summer when the jail was crowded with criminals.

FOR RENT.—Furnished rooms, corner of 6th and Granite streets. 8t f

WANTED.—A few cotton rags for this office. We will pay 3cts a pound.

—Theodore Fry has rented the barn of L. F. Kohrell and is keeping a feed and transit stable.

—Nobby children's suits $2. Elson, the one price clothier.

—Leave orders for wood with John Tutt at Bennett's grocery store. 8t f

—A good hard coal stove for sale apply to R. B. Windham. tf.

—The attention of the ladies is called to the fine line of short wraps at Joseph V. Wechbach's, for the least money.

—The ladies of the Relief Corps will give a basket social at G. A. R. hall Thursday evening Sept. 29th. Every body is invited.

—Yesterday C. H. Parmelee and W. H. Newell sold two car loads of very fine cattle. There were fifty-five head, and it is said they were the finest that have been brought to Plattsmouth for a long while.

—Judge Applegate, of Tecumseh Neb., arrived last evening to hold court for two or three days for Judge Chapman in some cases that Judge Chapman was interested in as an attorney before he was elected judge.

—Have you seen Elson the one price clothiers immense stock?

—Miss Minnie Sartelle appeared at the Opera House last night before a good audience considering the state of the weather. The play was "A Plum Pudding." She has a flexible voice and her songs, banjo solos and mandolin playing were all good.

—It is conceded by all that our county fair was financially a good success. This was due chiefly to the skill and efficient management of the secretary, Mr. H. C. Ritchie. Mr. Ritchie deserves the thanks of the patrons of the fair and no doubt has them.

Rev. W. B. Alexander.

As will be seen by reference to the list of appointments of the Nebraska conference published in another column, W. B. Alexander returns to Plattsmouth for another year. This is good news for the Methodist people here, and not only to them, but to all others who are interested in the welfare of Plattsmouth. Mr. Alexander is not only an able and zealous minister, but he is a broad-minded, public-spirited gentleman, a valuable citizen, and just the kind of a person the people of Plattsmouth appreciate.

Council Doings.

City council met last night in regular session, with all the members present except Mr. Murphy. The minutes of the last two meetings were read and approved.

An invitation from the Nebraska Sangerfest to the mayor and city council inviting them to take part in the grand torch-light procession on the evening of Oct. 4th, which will be the opening of their grand sangerfest of Oct. 4, 5, and 6. It was read and accepted.

A communication from the Turner, Clark & Raouson company in answer to one from the committee on freud water, concerning the competition of the setting basins, said there was nothing in the contract which called for any special way in which the basins should be finished, but the company's man would soon be here to cement them. Mr. White said it was so that the council had made an oversight in not compelling the company to complete the basins in any special manner, but the contract did call for good and wholesome water, and they could refuse to pay the company a cent till the water was made good.

The bill of O. M. Streight for $7.50, for boarding horses for pound master, was again presented and again ruled out as the pound master was to pay the expense of the keeping the stock himself, and collect the same from the owners.

City attorney Clark, reported that he had a letter from Dr. Bisell and that the doctor said he would look into things, and if he had received any money on the high school bond judgment, he would pay it over to the city.

The finance committee reported in favor of the following bills, and they were allowed: Richey Bros., lumber $78.32; Adolph Girold, $10; Fred Kroehler, $—; Osker Hull, labor $16.50; Geo. Humphrey, labor $16.50; Clark, labor, $9; M. L. Beaver, labor, $30; John Janda, labor, $6; M. W. Morgan, labor, $40.50.

On motion of Mr. Grousel, the clerk was authorized to draw warrants for the payment of the mayor and councilmen for their salaries for the last six months.

The judiciary committee presented two ordinances which were read three times and passed under a suspension of the rules. The first provided for the transferring of $700 from the Chicago avenue land fund to the business, or occupation fund, while the second transferred the $700 from there to the Thos. Mitchell judgment fund. Mr. Grousel stated the object of transferring the money to the occupation fund was, that last May about $1400 had been borrowed from there to pay the $2000 on the Chicago avenue bonds, and the transfer to the Mitchell bond fund was to cut down the $1200 on which the city is now paying interest.

The committee on fire and water reported 800 feet additional to the 2400 already ordered, of water mains on Lincoln avenue, would be necessary to give good protection to the B. & M. lumber yards and advised the laying thereof. The report was accepted. Here Mr. Grousel stated he had reliable information that the water company would lay the mains on the avenue and on 11th and Granite streets this month.

Mr. White asked, if the lamp post which was recently broken down on the corner of 6th and Vine streets had been settled for. He was told it had not.

A discussion then took place, on the location of the public drinking fountains, and it was finally decided they should be placed, one on 3rd street, south of Main, the other on 6th, north of Main; the exact location to be decided by the fire and water committee.

Mayor Simpson said he had yesterday taken the liberty to sign a note for $600, a payment on our hose and fire apparatus, which had been ordered made last June, and he had given it to treasurer Waterman, and ordered it sent to New York. The council approved of his action.

Mayor Simpson then appointed Ben Hemple as pound master, and the appointment was confirmed by the council.

The mayor then called attention to the necessity of another regular policeman at night, and stated that the marshal and three police, two of whom were specials appointed during the fair and had not yet been dismissed, were now on duty. Mr. Dutton moved another regular night policeman be employed at a salary of $40 per month, which motion passed.

On motion of Mr. Grousel, the salary of night policeman John Fitzpatrick was raised $5 more per month. Mr. Simpson said he would try and find a good man to-day and put him on duty this evening and discontinue the two specials.

Mr. Weber then stated that the owner of the Fairfield property was complaining that the street railway blocked him in, and that it caused the water of rains to flood his cellar; and he threatened a suit for damages unless something was done. Mr. Dutton answered, by saying, the Fairfield place was below grade, and as the track was at grade no damages could be gotten. The discussion closed with instructions to the committee on streets, alleys and bridges to look into the matter with power to act.

On motion council adjourned.
