If you have friends east who desire to make money, invite them west. A young man was arrested in Chicago last week for making half dollars.

C. H. Marsh, a young man of Juniata, Adams county, while out hunting the other day, shot two fingers and the thumb from his left hand.

One man charged with drunkenness and being disorderly, was tried before Judge Mathews this morning. He was fined $5 and cost, which at last accounts had not been paid.

The first duck hunting party of the season was out yesterday. It was composed of A. W. White, Dr. F. G. Frickie, W. H. Baker and J. P. Antil. They crossed the river in the morning and spent the day at Holloway lake, returning last evening with a fair supply of ducks for the early time of the duck hunting season.

Dr. N. Spaulding Smith late of Washington, D. C., the most eminent specialist and orthopedic surgeon of the day has parlors at the Perkins House and will remain only two weeks treating with assured success all chronic and surgical diseases and deformities.

Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Weber, of Lincoln, who took such active parts in the sengerfest, returned to Lincoln this morning. Mr. Weber's good management and overseeing of the programme of the sengerfest is well worthy of mention, and Mrs. Weber's solos were worthy of much praise. In appreciation of her beautiful singing, she was presented last evening with a beautiful bouquet of cut flowers by the Vorort of the Sengerbund, or as we would state, the chief officers of the association.

Found.

Mrs. Conrad Heisel, whose disappearance from home last Tuesday evening caused so much uneasiness to her relatives and friends, was last evening reported to be at a farm house just beyond Rock Bluffs. As soon as the report reached her friends this morning, they procured a carriage and went after her, returning to Plattsmouth about 10 a. m. Mrs. Heisel appeared to have somewhat recovered herself, and it is said the first night from home was spent without shelter. The house she stopped at was occupied by Mrs. Mary Kriggins and family.

THINGS THAT WILL HAPPEN.

A list of the Entertainments Booked for the Season.

Yesterday afternoon J. P. Young, opera house manager, handed to a Herald reporter a list of the theaters at present booked for the winter, but as new entertainments are being continually added, the list will not long be complete. The plays booked, rank among the best and the collection is a good one.

For October, Sol Smith Russell is down for the 20th, and "Rice's Evangelical" for the 28th.

For November, "Mattie Vickers" is booked for the 4th, "Little Nuggets" (musical concert) for 14th and "Murray and Murphy, our Irish Visitors" for the 30th.

For December, we will have "Louise Litta" the 6th and "J. C. Polk" (mixed pickles) for the 19th.

January, '88, seems to be the best month, and for it, at present, there is booked, "Streets of New York" (spectacular) for the 3rd, "Around the world in eighty days" (spectacular) for the 13th, "Ten Nights in a Bar Room" for the 16th and "Cora Van Tassel" for the 24th.

For February "Edwin Stewart" is first and will appear the 20th. "Pauline Markham" is booked for the 27th.

For March, "Gardner's 'Zozo'" (spectacular Co.) will appear the 12th, and "Knights of Labor Co" is down for the 21st.

Everybody Run.

This afternoon at 2 o'clock the first good fire alarm of the season was sounded, and Main street was immediately in great commotion. Doctors, lawyers, grocers, dry goods men, harnessmen, ex-jurymen, judges, candidates, editors, reporters, printers and boys were all on the run. Everybody headed for Washington avenue. A Herald reporter was on the ground and the 2nd ward hook and ladder was the first fire destroyer in motion, and it was followed by the 2nd ward hose cart, but the hook and ladder wagon didn't go very far as the cry of "all out" made the exertion to pull it unnecessary, but the F. E. White hose company proceeded to the scene of the blaze and extinguished all the fire.

The cause of the alarm was the catching fire of a frame shed near the brick and terra cotta works. The shed stood very close to Williams' oil house, but the fire was promptly extinguished by workmen near, or a hot fire would have been the result. For the fire department could hardly have arrived in time to prevent the catching of the oil shed as the wind favored the fire. But the boys were very prompt in getting to the hose and under ordinary circumstances there is not much danger of a fire in Plattsmouth with our present hose companies.

Those Proposals.

Since the rejection of the proposals for the sewerage presented at a September meeting of the council, on account of deficiencies, the board of public works has been advertising for new bids for sewerage. The bids were opened yesterday. At first there were three bids cast, those of Shaw, Mullolland & Downing, of Kansas City; Shannon & Co., of Nebraska City and H. C. McMackin of Plattsmouth, but H. C. McMackin withdrew his bid and only the two were left. The bids were as follows:

12 in. pipe for inlet, est. 80c; S. M. & D., 80c; S. & Co., 77c. 15 in. pipe, est. $1; S. M. & D. $1; S. & Co. 92c. 7 1/2 inch sewer, est. $12; S. M. & D. $12; S. & Co. $13.72. 5 1/2 ft. brick sewer, est. $7.50; S. M. & Co. $7.50; S. & Co. $7.23. 4 1/2 ft. brick sewer, est. $5; S. M. & D. $5; S. & Co. $4.80. Manhole, est. $40; S. M. & D. $40; S. & Co. $37.60. Same per foot, est. $4; S. M. & D. $4; S. & Co. $—; Inlet "A", S. M. & D. $35; S. & Co. $—; Inlet "B", S. M. & D. $35; S. & Co. $—; Cast iron per lb., est. 4c; S. M. & D. 6c; S. & Co. 3 1/2c. Wrought iron per lb., S. M. & D. 10c; S. & Co. 10c. Flush tank, S. M. & D. $24; S. & Co. $24. Price per cu. yd. concrete, S. M. & D. $6; S. & Co. $6. Price per cu. yd. for gravel, S. M. & D. $1.50; S. & Co. $2.50. Price per lin. ft. of oak piling, S. M. & D. $1; S. & Co. 55c. Price per M of pine lumber sheeting, S. M. & D. $30; S. & Co. $24. Price per cubic yd. of brick masonry, S. M. & D. $10; S. & Co. $10. Price per cu. yd. of rubble stone masonry, S. M. & D. $6. S. & Co. $6. 5.4 brick sewer, S. M. & D. $7.35; S. & Co. $—; Lead pipes per ft., S. M. & D. —; S. & Co. 72c.

Although each of the bids, in minor points exceed, the engineer's estimate, as an aggregate they are each below, and each bid is also accompanied by a good check of $1,000 Monday evening the board of public works will present the bids and report to the council for an acceptance or rejection of the bids. It is hoped they are acceptable.

WELL DONE ONCE MORE.

Sheriff Eikenbary Follows an Embezzler Over the State and Fetches Him to Justice.

Last Tuesday Sheriff Eikenbary received word from Eagle that the firm of McClentice & Denton had been defrauded of $875, cool cash, by a "cattle dealer" named George Calbert, and at 4 o'clock that evening he left in his buggy for Eagle, arriving there at midnight. He remained there till morning and learned the particulars. It seems that Calbert, during last week, went to the firm of McClentice & Denton and represented to them that he had made arrangements and completed a contract for two car loads of cattle, and being disappointed in his money matters he desired to borrow $875 to help him out in his bargain, and after due negotiations he obtained the money, and immediately disappeared. No one knew whether he had gone and the deceived firm sent for the sheriff.

Mr. Eikenbary by his superior knack of tracing clues, and wide experience with such criminals, after a days' travel and inquiry at Lincoln made him a clew, and following it up he soon traced the culprit to his mother's, Mrs. George Searls, of Cambridge, Red Willow county. Mr. Eikenbary was here rewarded with the sight of his man and arrested him.

Calbert did not know Mr. Eikenbary, and when his visit was made known to him he could do nothing but "come along" and the sheriff arrived here with his man this morning, and a preliminary hearing was had this afternoon before Judge Russell, and the trial set for next Tuesday at 10 a. m.

On searching Calbert, Sheriff Eikenbary found $463.50 in cash on his person, which Calbert turned over to Mr. Benton, who was very much pleased with the sheriff's successful trip.

The Last Night.

Last evening was the last one of the great Nebraska Sengerfest. It opened with a programme of music and song at the opera house, and Mrs. Webber of Lincoln, the Plattsmouth glee club and the B. & M. band were the great shining lights of the evening once more. Although the audience was not so large as the evening before the music is said to have been better. At 10 o'clock the concert ended and the people proceeded to Fitzgerald's hall where a grand ball was indulged in. The Bohemian band furnished the music.

The floor was constantly crowded and the hall full. Dancing continued till a late hour and the sengerfest ended, having been a grand success in every particular, and all members of the sengerbund seem to be well satisfied with Plattsmouth and their reception.

Not Dead.

It was reported that "Bozzarro", the Indian Medicine man, who was here last year was dead but he has returned associated with Dr. N. Spaulding Smith of Washington, D. C. and has parlors at the Perkins House prepared to treat all chronic diseases with guaranteed success. d & w. 1
