Thanksgiving

LINCOLN, Neb., Nov. 4.—Governor Thayer has issued the following proclamation:
STATE OF NEBRASKA, EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT.
At this fourth day of November, when the people have gathered, and realizing that the year which is now drawing to a close, has been one of prosperity, health and happiness to the people of Nebraska, it is meet that they should pause humbly acknowledge to our Heavenly Father for his unbounded goodness.
In accordance with an appropriate and time honored custom, and conforming to the proclamation of the president of the United States, I, John M. Thayer, governor of the state of Nebraska, do hereby set apart Thursday, the 24th day of this month as a day of Thanksgiving, prayer and praise to the Supreme Ruler of the universe for his rich and manifold blessings.
I recommend that, on that day, the people be and they shall assemble, and, assembling in their accustomed place devoted to Christian worship, render to Him the homage of grateful hearts for the innumerable favors he has vouchsafed to us as a people.
And while it should be a day of rejoicing, when kindred and others being separated, shall unite in joyful remembrance, the poor and needy should be borne in kindly remembrance, thus imitating the example of our divine Master who, while upon the earth, went about doing good.

BY HIS GOVERNOR, JOHN M. THAYER, G. L. LAWE, Secretary of State.

BORROWED AND STOLEN.

Arrested for Haying Bombs.

LONDON, Nov. 14.—A passenger on the steamer State of Indiana, named Charles Covatsch, was arrested today at Greenock for having in his possession four dynamite cartridges, each seven inches long.

Ayoub's Surrender.

LONDON, Nov. 14.—It is reported from Sarakhs that Ayoub Khan, who Lord Salisbury announced had submitted to the British, had 3,000 followers, but gave in his submission, trusting to the queen's mercy, and because he was angry with Russia for refusing to supply him with arms and troops.

Arensford Again on Trial.

STOEN CITY, La., Nov. 14.—The case against John Arensford, the accused murderer of Rev. George C. Maddock, was called in the district court at 9 o'clock this morning. The court room was filled, which seems to indicate that public interest in the case has not decreased. The defense submitted a plea of abatement, which was overruled. W. W. Ewing, esq., the noted criminal lawyer of St. Paul has been engaged by the defense. Arensford appears as calm and collected as on the previous trial.

Kentucky Horse Sales

LEXINGTON, Ky., Nov. 14.—Easton's Kentucky horse sales opened here today. The sale was very successful. Sixty-nine head were disposed of, bringing $46,980. They comprised thoroughbred stallions blood mares, yearlings, two and one-year olds, among which was the imported stallion Rossington, by Doncaster, dam Lily Agnes, which was sold to P. B. Harper, Midway, Ky., for $12,000. Rossington is perhaps the most highly bred race horse that has ever been imported. His sire, Doncaster, was sire of Bender, sire of Damonde, while both were from the same dam.

A Whole Town Burned.

WICHITA, Kas., Nov. 14.—Yesterday morning about 6 o'clock the entire town of Haysville, about twelve miles south of this city, was destroyed by fire. The fire was first discovered in the general store of Dr. Jones. All efforts made by the citizens to quench the flames proved futile. The village was composed of several dwellings, stores and shops. Every building was destroyed. The loss will be heavy, with but little insurance. The origin of the fire is unknown. It is supposed to be the work of robbers, as goods belonging to Dr. Jones were found on a prairie near town. A number of families are left nearly destitute.

The Case of the Crown Prince.

BERLIN, Nov. 14.—A medical conference was held at the palace yesterday. The household physician, with Doctors Wegener, Bergman, Gerhardt, Tolboldt and Schmidt were present. Count Von Stolberg presided. A paper was signed declaring the throat affection of the crown prince to be cancerous, and that a partial removal of the aryx is no longer advisable. Complete extirpation of the larynx is recommended by the physicians at San Remo, but in the meantime it is objected to by the crown prince. The emperor asked that the crown prince return to Berlin at the earliest possible moment, but the crown princess objected to her husband traveling in his present condition. Today the emperor, after an interview with Prince William, held a family council.

A Brave Baggage Man.

WASHINGTON, November 14.—Richard Moore, a baggage master on the accommodation train of the Baltimore & Ohio railroad, should have a medal from the life-saving service. The other day while his train was standing in front of the station at Gaithersburg, a small place near Washington, the engineer went into the telegraph office for orders, and the fireman got out of the cab to oil up. From some cause or other the engine suddenly started, and neither the engineer nor the fireman could get aboard. Moore, who was in the baggage car, climbed out of the window and succeeded in reaching the locomotive and stopping it, but not until it was going at a speed of thirty miles an hour. The engineer telegraphed up and down the road to have all trains side tracked, as there was a runaway, and the people of Gaithersburg, not dreaming that the engine could be stopped, were preparing to go to the expected wreck, when the runaway backed slowly up to the station with the baggage man in the engine cab as cool as if nothing had happened. Doubtless many lives were saved by Mr. Moore's coolness and courage, for the cars were crowded with suburban passengers and an express train was nearly due, with which it certainly would have collided.

Decision in a Patent Case.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 14.—What is known as the driven well patent, which has been several times before the United States supreme court, and which has always been heretofore sustained, was today declared invalid. The opinion by Judge Blatchford is based upon the record in the case of Andrew Green and others, against George Hovey, brought here by appeal from the United States circuit court for the southern district of Iowa. This court holds that the fact, now made to appear for the first time in the driven well litigation, that the invention was used in public at Cortland, N. Y., by others than Green, more than two years before the application for a patent was made, is a fact which is fatal to the patent's validity. The decree of the circuit court in favor of the alleged infringer, Hovey, is affirmed.

Steamship Arrivals.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 14.—Arrived—The Manitoban from Glasgow.
NEW YORK, Nov. 14.—Arrived—The Fulda, from Bremen; the Egypt, from Liverpool; the Pennsylvania, from Liverpool; the Rhosita, from Hamburg; the Furness, from Glasgow.
LIVERPOOL, Nov. 14.—Arrived—The Bulgarian, from Boston.
GLASGOW, Nov. 14.—Arrived—The State of Indiana, from New York.
SOUTHAMPTON, Nov. 14.—Arrived—The Westernland, from New York for Antwerp; the Werra, from New York for Bremen.

Damages Under the Slocum Law.

FREMONT, Neb., Nov. 14.—The jury in the case of Buckmaster vs. J. N. McElroy, in the Dodge county district court found for the plaintiff, and assessed his damages against the defendant in the sum of $2,000 and costs. In November, 1884, Buckmaster became intoxicated on liquor obtained at McElroy's saloon, and on his way to his home in the country lost consciousness and was so badly frozen that both feet had to be amputated.

Governor Thayer Banqueted.

NEBRASKA CITY, Neb., The military ball and banquet given to-night by company C, Second regiment, in honor of Governor Thayer was a grand social success. A number of prominent men throughout the state were present, among them Governor Thayer and staff, Hon. Allen Field and others. A number of toasts were proposed and responded to. After the banquet the governor was the guest of Hon. J. Sterling Morton. H. S. Wood was master of ceremonies.

Postal Telegraphy.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 14.—In view of the agitation of postal telegraphy there is no likelihood that we will have penny postage very soon. At the postoffice department entire satisfaction is expressed with the results of the last reduction of the letter postage, but it is stated that step from two cents to one, being a complete reduction of one-half, would be too great at this time even though postal telegraphy were not considered.

Bombs in Cincinnati.

CINCINNATI, O., Nov. 14.—The police are today vainly trying to find the man who made the rude gas pipe bombs which were last night taken from two little boys, who, it is supposed, stole them and were about to try them.

Herr Most Will Probably be Arrested.

NEW YORK, Nov. 14.—The police have laid before District Attorney Martine a report of Herr Most's incendiary harangue on Saturday night, and it is thought probable he will be arrested and imprisoned for inciting to riot.

Socialist and Anarchist Religion.

BROOKLYN, N. Y., Nov. 14.—The Rev. H. C. Heyser, pastor of a German Evangelical church in this city, has resigned, as he says, because there are socialists and anarchists among his church members, and "they want a religion without a Christ and a world without a God." His theology not comprehending such a state of affairs as this, Mr. Heyser resigned.

Put to Work.

JOLIET, Ill., Nov. 14.—Michael Schwab and Samuel Fielden, anarchists, were taken out of the court solitary this morning looking hearty and bright, and were put to work. Schwab was put in the convict kitchen, where his work will be to help peel potatoes, chop hash, and help prepare the convicts' food. Fielden was assigned to the stone department.

Army Matters.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 14.—Lieutenant Colonel Horace B. Burnham, deputy judge advocate of the department of California, has been ordered to Ukiah, Cal., on public business. Captain John J. Cockran, assistant surgeon, has been relieved from duty at Presidio, Cal., and has been ordered to report for duty as assistant to the medical director of the division of the Pacific, during the absence of Surgeon Tilton from Presidio at San Francisco. Captain William E. Hopkins and First Lieutenant Henry L. Raymond, assistant surgeons, have been ordered to duty at Presidio.

A Count's at War.

LONG PINE, Neb., Nov. 14.—War has been declared in Brown county, the skirmish line is out, the first shots have been fired, and the main battle is near at hand. Ainsworth lies ten miles west of the center, and is the county seat. Long Pine lays at the center, is a good milling and manufacturing town and railroad division. For years Ainsworth has been favoring division, so she could hold the county seat. Long Pine has always opposed division because it cut off her chances of county seat. For the fourth time now she has voted down the division question, and will now at once proceed to call an election for removal of the county seat. The east half of the county contains three-fifths of the entire vote, and is almost solid for removal. In addition to this there will be a large vote in the west half in favor of removal, so that in fact Long Pine has every assurance of success. The people are enthusiastic and mean business.

Interview on Matters of State.

When Napoleon III was prince president, one day the British ambassador, Lord Normanby, particularly wanted an interview on important business with the president, and was requested by an aide-de-camp to wait just long enough to announce the visit. The ambassador did wait, grave and solemn in countenance, as became one who had come to talk on matters of state. Five minutes passed; Lord Normanby grew impatient; he heard stifled laughter in the next room, and cautiously raising the hangings that masked the door, he saw Mrs. Howard, Lady Stanley, the Vicountess Pauline de Contades, two or three other ladies, the Duke of Cambridge and the prince president himself playing at blind man's buff, the prince being the blind man. Without a word Normanby advanced on tiptoe, the others keeping silence most discreetly, and tapped the presidential hand. "Oh! this time I've caught you; it's Pauline!" exclaimed Louis, and pulling off the handkerchief, stood confronted with the ambassador. There was a general laugh at the incident, and the plenipotentiary joined in the game. Not a word of politics was breathed during the interview, but it lasted a couple of hours, and the quartermen of the hours thought it must have been so important that the French funds that evening dropped 1 per cent.—The Argonaut.

A Few Verbal Snarers.

The popularity of Peter Piper's celebrated peck of pickled peppers will probably never wane as a snare to catch the tongue that would fain be agile; but that test has formidable rivals. The following short sentences, as their author maintains, do wonders in baffling the ordinary powers of speech:
Gaze on the gay gray brigades.
The sea coasts, and it sufficeth us.
Say, should such a shapely sashslabby stickles about?
Strange stratagies stratagies.
Cassid's solicitor shily slashes a slice.
Give Grimes Jim's great gilt gig whip.
Sarah in a shawl shoveled soft snow slowly.
She sells sea shells.
Sm's spirit flask split Philip's sixth sister's fifth squirrel's skull.
The Leith police dismisseth us.
Mr. Fink wished to whisk whisky.—Youth's Companion.

Russian Demand for Apples.

Montreal trade men have received a cablegram from Russia asking for particulars concerning the Canadian crop of apples. If Russia becomes a buyer of apples in that market it is evident that the varieties she will require must be the best long keepers obtainable, as the journey will be a long one. Russes, Baldwins and Spitz would probably be among the best descriptions for export to Russia.—Boston Budget.
