A Salisbury Dentist, in Rockwood Building.

O, where is my wand'ring boy tonight?
Go search for him where you will.
He's on a jury that's in a plight,
They're stuck on a string bean bill.

—M. McElwain was in Cedar Creek to-day.

—W. G. Meicer left last night for Hastings.

—Ada C. Bittenbender returned to Lincoln this morning.

—Miss Lela Thomas returned this morning from a visit to Glenwood.

—H. C. Sullivan, of Atchison, Kas., assistant chief of the M. P. R. R. was in the city to-day representing the road in court.

—Ladies who have articles ready for the bazaar of St. Luke's Guild will please leave them at Mrs. Livingston's on or before Tuesday, Dec. 13th.

—Two men were before Judge Mathews this morning charged with petit larceny. One was discharged and the other was fined $11 and costs and went to jail.

—The members of the W. R. C. are requested to meet at the G. A. R. hall Saturday at 2 p. m. for the purpose of preparing for the bazaar, to be held Dec. 20th.

—Parties contemplating the purchase of wall paper will do well to wait and see the stock of O. P. Smith & Co., which will be here on or about the 15th of this month.

—There was a rumor to-day of Omaha parties coming to Plattsmouth and forming a joint-stock company and establishing a packing house, and also an ice house.

—Doc. Lavis last evening had a hearing before Judge Russell, on the charge of selling a glandered horse. He pled not guilty, and the trial was set for next Tuesday.

—Graders at work in South Omaha have come upon the dead bodies of several men which were buried without a coffin and apparently recently. An investigation is probable.

—The bazaar of St. Luke's Guild will take place at Fitzgerald Hall, Thursday, Dec. 15. Admission 10c, supper 25c, tickets for dance $1. A cordial invitation is extended to all.

—A very enjoyable progressive euchre party was held last evening at the residence of G. E. Dovey. The king prize was won by Miss Mia Gering, while the booby prize was awarded to Mr. Bert Pollock.

—This evening the young ladies of the Presbyterian church give a social at the home of R. B. Windham. In addition to the usual social programme the young ladies will have a table of dolls which will be sold at pleasing prices. All are cordially invited to be present. The proceeds are for the Sunday school.

—George B. Shaw, a B. & M. switchman at Lincoln, was yesterday morning at 3:30 instantly killed. He was making up stock train No. 24 for Omaha and some way fell between the cars, with his head across the rail. The head was severed from the body by the wheels. Mr. Shaw was lately from Bedford, Ia.

—Charles H. Lincoln, a trusty at the penitentiary was yesterday sent out into the country for a load of hay, with a mule team. He took the team and made his escape. He had come from Douglas county and had served one year and had three more months yet to serve. His crime was burglary. $50 is offered for his capture.

—Last evening at 9 o'clock the arguments in the case of Wm. Gilmour vs. Plattsmouth Canning Co., were finished and the jury was locked up. They agreed this afternoon at 3:20, finding in favor of plaintiff to the amount of $66.50. M. A. Hartigan, attorney for defendant, says the case will be carried to the supreme court.

—The weather for the past three days has been somewhat "murky" but the beautiful frost work on the trees and bushes has tended to brighten the aspect and in the minds of the little ones it calls up visions of Santa Clause—the old folks have predicted rain or snow but Uncle Sam comes out in white and black and says it will be clear and colder tomorrow.

—As provided by law, the Nebraska State Board of Agriculture will hold its annual meeting at the city of Lincoln, on the third Tuesday in January, 1888, the 17th, commencing at 4 o'clock p. m., at the State University Chapel room, in the old building. The Winter Cera Exhibit will be made in the Geological Museum Rooms, same building, story immediately below the Chapel. Entries for this exhibit can be made with the Secretary, at Brownville, any time before, or during the forenoon of the 17th, at his office in rooms where exhibit is made. Committees will be appointed, awards made, and premiums paid during the meeting of the Board.

AROUND TOWN.

Facts Found in a Day's Visit Among the Business Men of Plattsmouth.

Still on the move west we meet many courteous and clever business men. Amidst the clash and clatter of the clerks, the rustling rumbling roar of talkers passing in and out from place to place, we saw in the face of every one a deep satisfaction of their existence in the flourishing populace of Plattsmouth. The preambulating people that throng the streets of our clammerous little city, are of the right push to make Plattsmouth enjoy a boom at no distant day. One that will make the surrounding sledges of stone in the steep side hills shake and quake. Plattsmouth is a Gem City a sparkling jewel. But we are off our text and must get back where we left off and first mention Julius Pepperberg, the cigar maker, where we found fifteen men moulding leaf tobacco into fine flavored cigars. Hundreds of these, perhaps thousands are manufactured daily at their own factory to supply the demands of hundreds and thousands of smokers. One door west of Mr. Pepperberg is O. P. Smith & Co. drugs, wall paper, a fine supply of Christmas goods now on hands. Gault and Vass watches, clocks & jewelry. M. B. Murphy dealer in staple & fancy groceries, crockery, willow & woodware, flour, feed and provisions. Mr. Murphy located at Plattsmouth twenty-three years ago. At that time the red man had control, and was monarch of valley and plain, and few then to dispute his rights. We called in at E. G. Dovey & Sons' double mammoth stores where you can get anything you want in the way of dry goods, notions and groceries. F. S. White, dry goods, groceries and queensware. When we got into the large furniture establishment of M. Boeck, we are struck with profound awe to see the piles and stocks of elegant furniture. We are invited by Mr. Boeck to step into the elevator and ascend to the second floor and behold the handsome upholstered chamber sets and sofas. Once there we are amazed at their beauty. Mr. Boeck has by far the most complete and extensive stock of fine furniture in the city. From Main st. we turn north on Sixth st., pass the National Bank, and the first door north we make a pause, and were confronted by the fact that T. R. Thomas was opening a new meat market, where he will be found with fresh meats of all kinds in season. Next is the Union Meat Market, then B. F. Baumeister, groceries, provisions and flour—a good supply continually on hand to meet with the demands of his large trade. Across the street we found I. Pearlman opening out with his entire stock of household furnishing goods which he had removed from east Main street.—Continued tomorrow.

Chalk Talk.

At an early hour last evening the M. E. church began filling with an eager audience to hear Mrs. Ellen A. Blair, the National Organizer of the Juvenile Department of temperance. By the time of opening, the house was well filled. The Juveniles came marching in led by Miss May Cranmer, singing a beautiful little temperance song. The front seats had been previously vacated and were given up to the little folks. The meeting was opened with an impressive prayer by the Rev. Alexander and song by the choir; then Mrs. S. A. Davis introduced Mrs. Blair. After a few appropriate remarks Mrs. Blair began with her charts, calling on the Juveniles who responded very promptly to her questions. Chart No. 1 illustrated the amount expended annually for different articles; the liquor bill reaches the vast amount of $900,000,000, and next in order, meat, $600,000,000 while the third largest bill for tobacco sums up $400,000,000 with bread standing 4th at $300,000. Fifth, steel and iron a trifle less than bread, the cotton and woolen goods down the scale to educational expenditures which foot up only to $85,000,000. The compensation for clergymen is next to the smallest while home and foreign missions are at the bottom. Any person has only to compare these figures according to statistics and they will readily see the enormity of the one great plague, the liquor traffic, that is cursing what might be happy homes of our land. Chart No. 2 gave an illustration of the good shepherd leading his flock of sheep. Mrs. Blair explained to the children how the good shepherd cares for his sheep and that our Heavenly Father cares for His people in the same manner in which the good shepherd cares for his sheep.

Space forbids us giving a detailed account of Mrs. Blair's talk. Suffice it to say her lecture throughout was of extraordinary interest and gave evidence of careful thought and her winning and expressive voice creates a deep interest in all. Her natural characteristic is to impress the thoughts on the minds of the young with the importance of leading moral and temperate lives.

Eloped.

Scorer-Willard Comedy Company, an able and popular musical comedy combination opened for the first time last night to a good audience in the musical comedy "Eloped," brimming over with comedy sketches and musical specialties. The whole performance is of a light, laughable description that defies criticism and invites hearty laughter. The company is good in every respect, and will undoubtedly have a successful week.—New York Clipper.

Scorer-Willard Comedy Company in "Eloped," is drawing large audiences at The Standard. The Comedy is full of music.—St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

A fine entertainment—don't fail to see it at the Opera House next Monday night.
