A Salisbury Dentist, in Rockwood Building.

—Turn on the light.
—The world still moves.
—Get on board the sled.
—Sleighbing is first-class.
A bobsled on the street car line.
—Commencement exercises to-night.
—Wait for the bobsled and all take a ride.
—Mr. John Kennedy, the switchman, has been promoted.
—No. 5 was one hour and thirty minutes late this morning.
—The wheels of progress stop and a bobsled takes their place.
—Attend the high school graduation at the Opera house to-night.
—The thermometer registered 11° below, this morning at 10 o'clock.
—Plant your advertisements now if you wish to let the people know what you have for sale.

—Remember the commencement exercises at the opera house tonight. Doors open at 7:30, commence at 8 o'clock.

—Mr. John H. Shaner and Miss Florence E. Smith, of Lancaster county, were to-day united in marriage by County Judge Russell.

—John, the depot policeman, fired the usual number of bums from the B. & M. depot last night, and the passengers had a quiet time afterwards.

—The citizens of Cass county are now rushing up to the court house to pay their delinquent taxes on personal property, which will be due February 1st.

—The banquet that the high school alumni had in view for the graduating class will occur tomorrow evening at the residence of Mrs. Coverdale.

—In dropping into the store of M. B. Murphy & Co., today we found them in receipt of a large invoice of California canned goods, the finest ever brought to this market.

—A new time card on the B. & M. goes into effect Sunday. No changes in the time of trains here will occur; the Cheyenne line and one or two western trains will only be affected.

—A Kansas man who went to California wrote back to a local paper, saying: "Offer a premium at your coming fair for the biggest fool in the country, and I will try and get there in time."

—Mr. Geo. Rappley, foreman Republican press rooms at Omaha was in the city yesterday visiting at the home of Mrs. John Bowman. He in company with his mother returned home in the evening.

—County treasurer, D. A. Campbell, will tomorrow afternoon at 1 o'clock, sell eight heating stoves, four cooking stoves and two ranges in front of the old Wheeler block to the highest bidder for cash, to secure delinquent taxes on the J. S. Duke property, to which the stoves belong.

—Vice-president Potter denies the report that he is to retire from active management of the U. P. road on account of failing health. Mr. Potter is one of the ablest railroad managers in the entire country and, though he is "abrupt" some times in dealing with men and measures, yet it would be a loss to all railroad interests if he were compelled to retire.

—There will be four scholars graduate from the high school to-night. All those who are interested in the welfare of our schools should be present at the exercises. The graduates are Miss Hattie Chapman, subject: "Man and his Progress." Mr. Daniel Golding, "Education." Miss Birdie Irish, "It might have been." Mr. John Adams, "The degenerate age."

—A strange case of fatal poisoning occurred at Seward last week. S. H. Volts and wife and Miss Emma Gladish had eaten heartily of oat meal porridge for breakfast, and in a short time thereafter was taken violently ill. Physicians were called and the patients found in an alarming condition, suffering from arsenical poison. The doctors were satisfied that arsenic in some way got into the oat meal, and upon investigation were convinced that it came from the paper on the ceiling of the kitchen, in the manufacture of which arsenic is used in large quantities. The cooking had been done on a gasoline stove, and the steam from the stove had settled on the walls and ceiling until the entire room was dripping wet, and it is believed that a sufficient quantity of this poisonous water got into the oat meal and produced the results narrated.

CLEAN CUT CROOKEDNESS.

Charley Johnson Come To A More Congenial C. C. Mate. He Takes All His Wife's money But $3 And Skips.

For various reasons we have kept back the facts known, perhaps, to most of our readers, in regard to the sudden disappearance of Charlie Johnson last Sunday evening. It appears that Johnson had told his wife that he was going to Omaha to work in a wholesale establishment and that he would write to her as soon as settled, but he failed to tell his employers, (Johnson Bros., hardware merchants), that he had any idea of leaving them. Monday morning young Johnson failed to put in his appearance, and on investigation they found he had left his wife sick in bed with but three dollars. He took with him $270, in cash, belonging to his wife. He leaves several creditors behind, among them being C. E. Wescott, who holds a bill for a suit of clothes, and F. H. Carruth for a gold watch. He also took from the show case, in Johnson Bros.' store, two Smith & Wesson revolvers and a bowie knife. There is nothing known yet as to his whereabouts but it is supposed he has gone to the far west to join with the cow boys. It will be remembered that he wore a cowboy hat and seemed to be inclined that way.

A Pleasant Party.

A progressive euchre party at the home of Miss Hattie Latham last evening is reported as a highly interesting and agreeable affair. There were present Mr. and Mrs. James Donnelly, the Misses Hermann, Livingston, Fulmer, Wayman, Wise, Mia and Edna Gering, Anderson Sherman, Patterson and Murphy, and the Messrs. Livingston, Moore, Patterson, Gering, Root, Cutright, Murphy and Chatburn. After playing eleven games it was found that Miss Edna Gering had taken the ladies' first prize, and Miss Hermann the ladies' booby prize. Among the gentlemen the king prize was a tie between Messrs. Matt Gering and Geo. R. Chatburn, while the gent's booby prize tied between Messrs. Fred Murphy and Lew Moore. To decide the draw a final game was played by the gentlemen with whom the tie fell and Mr. Chatburn came out possessor of the gent's king prize and Lew Moore carried off the booby prize. After the deciding of the game refreshments were served and the evening's entertainment concluded with dancing.

Still After the Herolds.

The deputy Sheriff of Lancaster county, arrived in this city yesterday with warrants for the arrest of Wm. Herold and his brother, Herman Herold. They were arrested last evening and taken to Lincoln where they will probably have their preliminary hearing today.

We understand the Herolds are charged with complicity in the defrauding of C. G. Herold's creditors and with concealing some of the property.

—Constable Al Beach returned from Plattsmouth last night with William and Herman Herold and Mrs. Herman Herold, who are charged with complicity with Christian G. Herold in defrauding his creditors of $20,000 in February of 1885. This is the case in which Christian Herold was sentenced to the penitentiary, and these charges will open the old case again. The arrests were made under a warrant issued from Police Judge Whitmore upon the complaint of Frank West, representative of a collecting agency. The prisoners will be in charge of Constable Beach until this morning, when the case will be called in police court. M. A. Hartigan of Plattsmouth, attorney for the Herolds, accompanied the party to this city. State Journal.

Mr. Thurston Accepts.

Immediately after the Hon. A. J. Poppleton handed in his resignation as general attorney of the Union Pacific road, the position was offered to the Hon. John M. Thurston, who gave notice yesterday of his acceptance and he will make an effort to relieve Mr. Poppleton about the 1st of February.

Wants a Place to Stay.

Last evening a young man, George Wilson by name, took a pair of boots from the sign in front of Ben Elson's and slyly putting them under his coat was making good his escape when he ran into the arms of Marshal Malick, who it seems had his eye on the young man. He was arraigned this morning before Judge Mathews where he plead not guilty to the charge of petit larceny. He was found guilty however, and on the recommendation of County Atty Beeson the sentence was light, receiving $10 and costs, amounting in all to $19.60. Not having sufficient to pay out, he goes to jail.

Burglars About.

Burglars made an effort last night to gain entrance to the residence of S. Waugh, on the corner of Oak and Fifth streets. It was between ten and eleven o'clock and the family and guests had just retired in the sleeping apartments upstairs, excepting Mr. Waugh's son Robert, a lad of about twelve who slept on the first floor. Shortly after retiring Robt. was frightened by a noise at the cellar door and immediately gave the alarm of burglars, arousing the family but driving the outside parties away. Mr. Melican, a nephew of Mr. Waugh, saw three men running westward from the house immediately after the alarm. The marshal was notified as soon as possible but failed to find trace of the men further than their tracks around the house.

Belt Line Railroad.

The Omaha & Plattsmouth Belt Line railway company filled articles of incorporation yesterday with the secretary of state at Lincoln. The incorporators are: Nathan Shelton, A. A. Egbert, Otis H. Ballou, Robert B. Windham and George J. Fox. The object of the incorporation is for the construction of a belt line railway around the northern, western and southern portions of the city of Plattsmouth, with diverging lines to South Omaha and Omaha and Beatrice in Gage county. The first named extension will be made northward through the counties of Cass, Sarpy and Douglas. The Beatrice extension, southwesterly through the counties of Otoe, Johnson and Gage. The corporation dates from Jan. 2, 1888, and runs one hundred years. The capital stock is fixed at $1,000,000.—Bea.

—About forty-two gibbering idiots have come into the Enterprise office since the past cold snap and the number of times we have realized that this is a cold hollow world of disappointment is telling on even our iron clad, copper bottomed constitution. The aforesaid idiot usually comes in with a smiling look of intelligence or philanthropic design depicted on his countenance and we can not expect anything less than a great big local or a paid up subscription in advance, and he always waits until we get out our note book or subscription list, when he braces up and perpetrates the stale chestnutty chestnut of all chestnuts. "Is this cold enough for you?" We sold ten cents worth of old papers the other day for cash, and we have invested the proceeds in an eighteen pound stuffed club, and we are going to assassinate the first pleasant looking fellow that comes in the office and ask him his business afterward if we get hung for an anarchist.—St. Paul Enterprise.
