Rev. Lozier is a most entertaining speaker, and should be again appear before a Council Bluffs audience, there will not be a hall in the city large enough to hold the people who will flock to hear him.—Council Bluffs Nonpareil, Comrade R. C. Hubbard, editor.

The Athens (Ga.) Banner is authority for the statement that several years ago, in Oconee county, "a girl married at the age of nine years, and before her tenth birthday she became a mother. When married, the girl was as well developed as a woman and weighed 146 pounds. Her husband was 45 years of age. The family were white, and moved to Alabama, where they now reside."

Talk about railroad discrimination! If the shippers of Plattsborough are not galled more than any one in the west, please inform the public to the contrary. In conversation with a leading shipper of Plattsborough today, we learned that the charges on a car from Omaha to Chicago is $35, while from Plattsborough to the same point it is $49, a difference of $14; stock can be shipped from here to Omaha and then on to Chicago, as cheap as it can from this place direct to Chicago. Again a car can be had from Plattsborough to Omaha for $14, or a charge of almost one half the rate to Chicago, for 22 miles. The distance from Omaha to Chicago is 500 miles and the fixed rate as above stated, is $35 a car.

Speaking of the scarcity of advertising, it is astonishing how the people of this city look at it. Most of them seem to think it does them no good. They look upon the money they pay out for it as a sort of contribution to keep the papers alive. They regard keeping the papers as a public duty and only do it because they would be ashamed to have to confess to eastern friends that they lived in a city of 36,500 people that hadn't a paper to bless itself with. They don't see any real use of newspapers unless they are waked up to it by a smooth and pertacious solicitor and then they only admit it momentarily, returning to their Rip Van Winkleism before the collector gets around with his bill. They then get mad at the newspapers that persist in bleeding the community, order out the ad. that they contracted for six months, get one month insertion at long time rates, and then swear off from ever being robbed any more by such remorseless pirates.—State Democrat.

WILL C. BRYAN'S CRIME

He is Bound Over to the District Court for His Depravity.

"In the case of Nellie C. Stark, the pretty 18-year-old maid of Cedar Rapids, who says that Will C. Bryan, the sprinter and ex-base-ballist, is the father of her child, born out of wedlock just before last Christmas, Justice Wade yesterday decided that: First, that if it did not appear that the prosecutrix ever authorized her attorneys to compromise the case by the payment of seventy dollars, and even if she had done so, the case was of a quasi-criminal nature and beyond the power of the prosecutrix to compromise. As to the point of residence, the court quoted several authorities sustaining his opinion that for all legal purposes of bringing a suit of this nature, the prosecutrix had established a sufficient residence in Douglas county. In view of his decision the court held Bryan in bonds of $1,200 for his appearance at the next term of the district court. Bail was immediately offered and accepted, J. W. Foster signing the bond. After the rendering of the opinion, Bryan called Attorney Biler, counsel for the prosecutrix, a thief and a perjurer, accusing him of bad faith to his client and himself (Bryan), and threatened him with a whipping some time not very far in the future.

Miss Stark's story of her betrayal by the fellow Bryan, is that while a waitress at the Morgan house, in Des Moines, during January, 1887, Bryan seduced her. He then prevailed upon her to accompany him in his travels as his wife, visiting several cities east and south, and finally coming to Omaha last September in a delicate condition.

Bryan had, it seems, some little honor left in him, and he paid her bills during her confinement, but ceased to contribute either to her support or the child. Bryan did not attempt to deny the story—on the contrary admitted the facts, but set up two specific causes of defense; first, that all claims of indebtedness due had been settled by his delivery of $70 in full of all damages; and, second, that Miss Stark, being a minor, could not establish a residence in Douglas county in legal contemplation, for the purpose of bringing suit."

The above from the Omaha Republican may be somewhat of a surprise to our readers. It will be remembered that this man Bryan secured a marriage license from Judge Russell, and was married to a Miss Whetsel last week, by Rev. W. B. Alexander. These parties registered at the hotel as being from Council Bluffs, but Miss Whetsel told that her home was at Mt. Vernon, Ill., while others claimed her residence was in this State.

Fought and Conquered. The "Fighting Chaplain," known in private as Rev. John Hogarth Lozier, gave his celebrated entertainment of song, recitation and address, at Dunning's opera house last evening, and a large audience assembled to hear this able man, who is said to be an orator second to only the world-famous John B. Gough. In comedy or pathos the reverend gentleman alike moved his appreciative hearers, and every one present was delighted with the entertainment they received.—Kansas City Daily Journal.

Resolutions of Sympathy. At the regular meeting of Gauntlet Lodge No. 47, K. of P. last evening the following preamble and resolutions were adopted:

WHEREAS, It has pleased an all-wise Providence to deprive our Brother J. C. Petersen of a beloved and honored, faithful and affectionate wife, and his children of a devoted and loving mother; and WHEREAS, This lodge recognizes in Brother J. C. Petersen a valuable member of Gauntlet Lodge and of the order of Knights of Pythias, worthy of and deserving of its sympathy and consideration in his great affliction; therefore be it Resolved, That we, his brother Knights in lodge assembled, do tender to him, and to his motherless babes, our earnest and heartfelt sympathy in this hour of sore affliction and deep distress; be it further Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be sent to the daily papers of the city for publication; that a copy be presented to Brother Petersen, and that they be spread upon the minutes of this lodge.

"May the holy angels keep, Vigils o'er her while she sleeps." Yours, in F., C. and B., Committee.

Who is Your Best Friend? Your stomach of course. Why? Because if it is out of order you are one of the most miserable creatures living. Give it a fair chance and see if it is not the best friend you have in the end. Don't smoke in the morning. Don't drink in the morning. If you must smoke and drink wait until your stomach is through with breakfast. You can drink more and smoke more in the evening and it will tell on you less. If your food ferments and does not digest right—if you are troubled with heartburn, Dizziness of the head, coming up of the food after eating, biliousness, indigestion, or any other trouble of the stomach, you had best use Green's August Flower, as no person can use it without immediate relief.

Resolutions of Respect.

At a recent meeting of the Leiderskrans Society of Plattsborough, Nebraska, the following resolutions were unanimously adopted:

WHEREAS, in view of the loss we have sustained by the death of our friend and associate, Henry Schulhoff, a charter member of this organization, and the still heavier loss sustained by those who were near and dear to him, therefore be it Resolved, That it is but a just tribute to the memory of the departed to say, that in regretting his removal from our midst, we mourn for one who was in every way worthy of our respect and regard.

Resolved, That we sincerely condole with the family of the deceased on the dispensation with which it has pleased Divine Providence to afflict them, and commend them for condolence to Him who ordered all things for the best, and whose chastisements are meant for mercy.

Resolved, That this heartfelt testimonial of our sympathy and sorrow be forwarded to the family of our departed friend by the secretary of this meeting.

Old Times in Louisiana.

Those "society balls" were conducted with great propriety and reserve. The claim of every person of both sexes to be admitted having been previously determined by the responsible and trusty committee, there was a sort of temporary and conventional equality on the terrace-floor, and, therefore, every gentleman had the privilege to invite a lady without the formality of an introduction to figure in the dance as his partner. After it was over he escorted her back respectfully to her seat, without presuming, if unknown and not duly presented, to remain standing before her, or to sit by her side, to continue the conversation or prolong the accidental acquaintance.

During the intervals of dancing the gentlemen walked up and down between the rows of ladies that densely lined the hall, some merely bowing as they passed to those whom they knew and others stopping to converse. No woman, married or single, joined in this promenade with a male companion, as is the custom in these present days, and the eye of a lynx could not have detected the slightest flirtation. The word itself was not known for the thing it means is for Louisiana a modern invention, which had not then been patented and brought out for public use. In fact, this peculiar pastime would have been impossible to attempt. It would have produced a social earthquake.—American Magazine.

The Color of the Sea.

Artists always seem at a loss to deal with the color of the sea, and few are those who please the public. Professor Tyndall has come to their aid. He recognizes three principal hues in sea waters—blue, green and yellow. Solid particles held in the water act as minute mirrors reflecting the light which penetrates the liquid. The rays which are sent out, after having traversed only a thin stratum of water, preserve their yellow parts; but if the reflections are attenuated the water appears green; and if they do not exist at all, the sea being clear and free from muddy matters, the color is deep blue. In an indigo sea the crest of the waves will appear green on account of their lack of thickness. Sea-weed, animalcules and other local or accidental causes may have much influence on the color of the water.—Court Journal.

Reasons for Purchasing Lots in South Park.

- 1. As a whole they are the finest lying lots in the city. 2. They are shaded with beautiful forest trees. 3. They are located between Chicago and Lincoln Avenues, the two finest drives about the city. 4. They are only a ten-minutes walk from the business portion of the town. 5. By reason of their location between the two main thoroughfares into the city, they are more accessible than lots in other additions. 6. The only addition to the city reached by two established avenues. 7. The only new addition to the city reached by water mains and with a prospect of being supplied in the near future with complete water privileges. 8. New sidewalks recently constructed to within a few feet of the addition and will shortly be extended. 9. Will certainly have street car privileges at no distant date. 10. If you wish a fine view of the river, locate on a lot in South Park. 11. If you wish a slightly and picturesque view of Plattsborough, it can be had from a South Park lot. 12. To persons in the railroad employ, the eastern portion of South Park is the most desirable residence locality in the city. 13. To persons desiring a residence on Chicago avenue, the western portion of South Park is available for that purpose. 14. The B. & M. railroad track runs near the east line of the addition, furnishing good facilities for manufacturing industries. 15. If you locate in South Park you will have good neighbors: Mayor Simpson, John R. Cox, John A. Davies, John L. Minor, J. V. Weckbach, Chas. Harris, John H. Young, Henry Waterman, W. C. Ingraham, B. Sparlock, Jerry Farthing, Thos. E. Reynolds, S. A. Davis, L. A. Miner, C. M. Wead, Frank Irish, J. N. Glenn, C. L. Coleman, S. A. Speakman, Frank Beeson, Chas. A. Rankin, Sarah E. Fought and other rare owners of South Park property. 16. Over $12,000 worth of this desirable property has been disposed of within a short period and no part has been sold to outside speculators which is solid proof of the substantial growth of this part of the city. 17. More substantial houses were built in South Park in the fall of 1887 than in any one locality in the city and the prospects for spring building are much greater. 18. Lots will be sold until the 1st of April, next, at $150 each; after said date the price on the most desirable lots will be advanced. 19. Terms 1/3 cash, balance in one and two years, or lots may be purchased on monthly payments. 20. Any number of persons, not less than five, purchasing ten lots in one transaction will be given a lot free to dispose of as they may deem proper. 21. Any person or persons purchasing 20 or more lots and paying 1/4 cash, may have one and two years on balance without interest. 22. If any other reasons for purchasing lots in South Park are desired they will be given by calling at the office of
