SMITH & BLACK'S.

MRS. HOWARD'S MURDER.

A Sad Ending of a Beautiful Woman. About three years ago a handsome woman an "unfortunate," was shot by a jealous female companion in Cherry street, Des Moines, Iowa.

Her name was Mrs. Helen Howard, who was murdered in a saloon in Omaha last Friday night, by a worthless scamp named Frank B. Ryan.

"Dick" Howard, is well known in Kansas City, Burlington and Des Moines, Iowa, where he has run saloons, but failed in business on account of his wife's generosity.

"Dick" was her second husband. She married her first husband in Chicago and was shortly after divorced. From Chicago she went to Des Moines and married Howard.

Oh! Consistency, Where Art Thou? "The best paid labor pays the best," is the utterance of L. Q. C. Lamar, and the Plattsmouth Journal, also the following: "The best results to capital are to be obtained by contented, well-paid labor."

There's a boomerang being thrown in the Journal office that is quite amusing. Now that the Journal has been upholding the strike, it would be a laughable incident to see the same occurrence take place among the Journal composing force.

Business in Avoca is rather lively now. Owing to the bad weather farmers cannot do much. There has been three or four sales in the neighborhood, and others advertised.

Republican Meeting. There will be a meeting of the Young Men's Republican Club at the county judges office, Monday evening, March 5th, at 8 o'clock.

I am here to stay and shall endeavor to keep up the good reputation in the harness line in the future as in the past and am ready to supply the demand of the old trade.

Pullman's New Palace.

The splendid new palace which George M. Pullman is building on Pullman island, one of the Thousand Islands group, will be ready for the millionaire's occupation in the early spring.

The material is stone in its natural state, put together in all sorts of shapes. A tower eight feet square and seventy-five feet high will rise from the center of the building.

Discretion the Better Part. The best sort of courage is the kind that goes with a rapid estimate of chances and still has some method in it.

Noise and the certainty of detection always startle burglars, and give better chance to capture or even to shoot them, if this is desired.

Daniel Drawbaugh's Invention. It is announced that Daniel Drawbaugh, the inventor, who claims to have invented the telephone, is working out something new in his workshop in Cumberland county, Pennsylvania.

London's Early Suburban Train. The Chatham Railway company, of London, recently began running a train from St. Paul station, starting at 3:15 in the morning.

Avoca. Business in Avoca is rather lively now. Owing to the bad weather farmers cannot do much.

A Lion of Literary Circles. Frank R. Stockton is at present the lion of literary circles in Washington. Every device is used to persuade him to inform a curious world whether it was the lady or the tiger which issued from the door.

The Crown Prince's Kindly Heart. The sweet and kindly spirit which sparkles in his eye when he speaks with children brings him very near, not only to the hearts of his small interlocutors, but also to those of their parents.

BITS OF GOOD READING.

Items of General Interest Clipped from the Exchanges—Multum in Parvo. The furniture dealers find that there is a tremendous demand for what are called boarding house bureaus.

An old Plymouth Rock hen that had been for ten years the pet of a lady in Norwich, Conn., died recently. She weighed fourteen pounds, but was appreciated chiefly on account of her intelligence.

There is a little girl in Baltimore who goes out into the streets, begins crying and gets the police to try to find her home. She gives an accurate description of a house, but when such a one is reached she always declares it is not the right one.

The old Rodgers house in Washington is for sale. This interesting structure has some curious associations. On the sidewalk in front of it Gen. Sikes shot Barton Key.

Eight sportsmen shot over the preserved ground of Lord Mansfield at Stone, Perthshire, recently, when the extraordinary number of 1,400 head of game fell to their guns.

A Hungarian miner who was recently treated by a physician at Phoenixville, Pa., had been living for three months at an expense for food of only two cents a day.

The famous Jones county bellied buzzard was killed at Hazelhurst, Ga., by Will Meeks recently. The bird attracted to the bird had engraved on its letters "C. E." above the words "Jones County, Ga., 1859."

A locomotive has been sent by the king of the Belgians to Tangiers as a present to the sultan of Morocco—a singularly inappropriate gift.

Helena, M. T., claims to have the richest men in the west. A list is published of capitalists who can draw checks aggregating over $23,000,000.

The Daylight Store.
