CITY CORDIALS.

CITY CONGREGATIONS.

CATHOLIC.—St. Paul's Church, Oak, between Fifth and Sixth. Father Carney, pastor. Services: Mass at 8 and 10:30 a. m. Sunday School at 2:30, with benediction. CHRISTIAN.—Corner Locust and Eighth. M. A. Hampton, pastor. Sunday School 10 a. m. Preaching 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. Prayer meeting Wednesday night. All are cordially invited.

—W. K. Fox was elected for city clerk by four votes. —Jesse Root has been appointed deputy county attorney. —Call at THE HERALD office and get your letter heads printed.

—Business men if you are needing any statements or bill heads call at this office and have them printed. —The trial of the Pinkertons comes for hearing in Dovey's room before Judge Stiles next Monday at 10 a. m.

—Chas. L. Graves, justice of the peace for Rock Bluffs precinct, has resigned and D. W. Curtis appointed in his stead. —The legal ability displayed by Matthew Gering, Esq., in the trial of the Pinkerton men is highly commended by legal authorities.

—"Gentlemen most admire an innocent girl, confiding woman, who sees no wrong in other hearts, because she has none in her own." —Zozo. —Elmwood has been incorporated as a village with the following trustees: A. B. Dickson, George Hatch, N. R. Hobbs, S. D. Eels and W. S. Waters.

—Rev. Claggett and Mr. Bilhorn, the evangelists will preach in the M. E. church tomorrow. The public are cordially invited to come and hear them. —The little Shetland pony and small cart owned by Charley Patterson is quite an unique novelty, and are both interesting and attractive to those who have never seen such before.

—There was a tie for election for school board between B. Smith and W. M. Wintersteen. They will probably cast lots to decide "who's who" at the next city council meeting, Monday, 9th inst. —The county commissioners have ordered a trial of road machinery to take place Monday, April 30, near this city. Different firms will exhibit. If the trials are satisfactory three machines will be bought.

—The cost of trial of State vs. M. P. Dannahy, the Pinkerton man who was tried for an assault on Mr. Zinn, was not allowed by the county commissioners as the case was instituted without the consent of the county attorney. —The social given by the "Y's" last evening at the home of Mr. H. P. Whisler, was well attended. Vocal and instrumental music was indulged in and everyone went home feeling that they had spent an enjoyable evening.

—We have noticed that several of our merchants send away for their office stationery, such as letter heads, bill heads, statements and envelopes. We ask you to give us this work as we can do it just as good and as cheap as they do in either Omaha or Lincoln. —The votes will have to be counted again as to the validity of Richey for mayor. At a secret caucus on Vine street about 7:30 last night, another Mayer was elected. One peculiar feature in the case is that the party elected belongs to the female gender and has the prettiest, angelic and cherubic features of any Mayor in the United States.

—In the window of O. P. Smith's drug store are on exhibition two little artistic gems in water colors representing a marine scene and a landscape view. Miss A. Shepard, of this city, is the artist. A person has to be educated in such matters to thoroughly comprehend the skill displayed in their execution, and the brilliancy of imagination necessary for the perspective and every feature of the drawings.

—If you want to expectorate, hack and cough up phlegm, then for heaven's sake do so, but spit in the road. It is disgusting to write, to read, or to see. There is nothing more offensive to a sensitive person, or a lady of a refined, nervous temperament, than to step on or drag the bottom of her skirt through some brute's cough extract. The anatomy who revels in such filthy practices should be inoculated with the virus of a skunk.

—The T. A. M. held their first past lentin dance in Fitzgerald hall last evening. It is unnecessary to say that this was a very pleasant affair for all the T. A. M. dances have the reputation of being the most recherche parties in town, while at the same time they are entirely free from all social stiffness. Every one is at home and enjoys himself to the fullest extent. Those present were Misses Laura Reinbachel, Joe Morrissey, Cera Wayman, Anna Murphy, Hattie Latham, Mia and Eda Gering, Maud and Mamie McCoy, Kate and Georgia Oliver, Lou Burgess, Mary Hawksworth, Dora Herold, Lydia Mitchell, Maggie Campbell, Hattie Fuller and Annie Livingston; Mesdames Wilkinson and Hogan; Messrs. George Oliver, Dr. E. W. Cook, W. P. Keeler, August and Willie Reinbachel, Cliff Shepherd, Charley Spencer, F. A. Murphy, L. Moore, W. Streight, D. C. Morgan, Will Clements, R. T. Coverdale, B. Sage, H. Herold, F. McCoy, G. R. Chatburn, J. Patterson, Jr., John Hartigan, T. H. Pollock; Mr. and Mrs. Sam Minkle.

—Yesterday three gentlemen came down from Omaha and at 1:30 in the afternoon accompanied by Mr. Jones the contractor of this city, drove out to Mr. Wettencamp's farm with the object of inducing that gentleman to erect a brick building along side the Anheuser-Busch block now going up on Main street. He said he would consult his lawyer and let them know next Monday. If he agrees to their proposition it would cause the pulling down of the tailor shop now run by Morris O'Rourke. As these gentlemen are recognized authorities on architectural matters in every city in the country there was no need of Architect Voss coming here yesterday. He may come down next week.

—In addition to Mr. Riddle's prospect for renting the Perkins house there is another gentleman who has been negotiating for the past three weeks with Mr. Fitzgerald, of Lincoln, for the erection of a hotel. He has told us the exact spot and spoke of the style of the building, but requests us to "keep dark" until everything is in readiness to commence operations. As they have been so much delay we have our doubts of the completion of this idea.

—All the members of the Brotherhood were romping about like school children yesterday afternoon on the green sward down Chicago avenue. They were as skittish as young colts while they played base ball and football. Gray-haired veterans of the throttle jumped about as lively as the youngsters just starting firing. The enlivening scene was witnessed by a large number of ladies and gentlemen in carriages, as well as by hundreds on foot.

—The sale of reserved seat tickets for the opera of "Zo-Zo, the Magic Queen," will begin Monday morning. Price $1 a ticket, admission 75c, gallery 50c, children 25c. The public will please remember that this opera is unlike anything ever here before and the gorgeous costumes and fine scenery is alone worth the price of admission, and all the performance thrown in.

—Miss Anna Coleman entertained a number of friends last night in honor of her guest, Miss Kate Lucas, of St. Louis. Miss Lucas returns home next Monday. During her stay in this city she has endeared herself to many friends, who will regret her departure, but continually wish for her future happiness and prosperity.

—The evangelists, Cloggett and Bilhorn, will hold a revival meeting tomorrow at 4 p. m. in the Presbyterian church, on Main street.

Why Actors Hate Matinees. "I hate matinees," said an actress to me at the close of a performance, as she walked into the lobby. "And why particularly?" "I hate them for a lot of reasons. You'd find it very hard to put your hand on the man or woman in the profession today who doesn't hate matinees. Everybody hates them, and I'm ashamed to say if it wasn't for a pack of women we shouldn't have to give matinees at all."

"But why do you hate matinees?" "Firstly, because I regard one performance a good day's work, and as much as any conscientious actor ought to do. "Secondly, because the daylight struggles into the theater and gets up a fight with the gas almost every time—and I'd like to see the woman who looks well under daylight and daylight mixed."

"Thirdly and chiefly, I hate matinees because at them the audience is almost always a cold, chilly thing, chary of its applause and scattered all over the house like a flock of dumb geese. The reason for the meagerness of applause always to be noted at matinees is that the audience is usually ninetieths women. Nature has built women for extravagant manifestations of delight in America; and the makers of gowns and applied machinery in dress have decided that what little disposition the American woman has for applauding shall be thwarted by innumerable and complicated devices. You can't expect a woman to crack her gloves or bring about an attack of heart disease to gratify an actress, can you? That's what she'd do at the very least, the average tailor made woman, if she clapped her hands and cried 'bravo' simultaneously."—Pittsburg Dispatch.

HIGH SCHOOL NOTES.

Sickness has decreased the attendance somewhat. Miss Livingston wielded the birch, to good effect, in room No. 5 this week. Last Monday three of our teachers were unable to attend to their duties in the school room. Substitutes were at a premium.

The following notice placed on the bulletin board at the High School Thursday morning explains itself. "Teachers are requested to announce in their respective rooms that Arbor day will be observed by the schools in a manner to be hereafter decided upon. W. W. DRUMMOND, Supt."

The children are very much enthused over the prospect of tree planting Arbor day. If they do plant a tree or sow some grass, that tree or that grass will be protected from harm by an ever watchful guard of interested children. In order to beautify our school grounds and give them a metropolitan air we must get the children to take an interest in preserving them, and Arbor day will not only do this but it is the seed from which may be propagated that love for the beautiful which will cause each of the varied forms in nature to rise above the commonplace and become a thing of life, breathing forth an inspiration of the infinite love and fostering care of a divine creator.

Rock Bluffs. Our annual school meeting passed off very quietly and was a pleasant affair in comparison to the little war that we had last year. But that is very easily accounted for as the contentions and disturbing enemy of the district had moved away. A tax of seven mills was voted for a district fund and an affirmative vote was given for a uniformity of text books.

Mr. D. W. Curtis was elected a delegate to the school text-book convention. Right here we wish to say that we are glad to see the county superintendent start the ball a rolling to establish a uniformity of text books. For figuratively speaking we have stood for a number of years on one foot with the other raised ready to help kick some of the abominable text-books out of the schools, and we sincerely hope that the time is close at hand that we can let that foot go. The multiplicity of geographical names in some districts and the difference obtaining in adjoining districts is a straight up and down nuisance to scholars, teachers and parents. And then the use of old books that are thirty years behind the times, like McGuffey's readers and spellers, ought to be done away with. We hope some good will come of this move to establish a uniformity of text books.

Then let the legislature devise some practical method of enforcing the compulsory educational law that will not make neighbors enemies and keep them in a quarrel. Nebraska will then have taken a long stride in the right direction towards improving her educational facilities. Will Chandler and mother came in last week from Kearney to visit, and to buy and ship forest tree sprouts, so that the sprout business is again in full blast. The Old Odd Fellows hall that was taken down last fall by Mr. Shera and removed to Union and rebuilt again, is nearly completed, and remodelled into a drug store, for which Mr. Shera informs us he is getting forty dollars per month for rent.

Our school exhibition proved quite a success as an amusing entertainment. A small admission fee was charged, the proceeds of which are to be used in purchasing a globe for the use of the school. The last few warm days has been the cause of one grand rush at farming and garden making. Mr. Ben Rennard met with quite a serious injury last week by being kicked in the face by a horse so bad that he had to go to the doctor to have the wound sewed up, that was made on his chin.

TIM SHAVER. List of Letters. Remaining unclaimed, in the Postoffice at Plattsmouth, Nebraska, April 4, 1888, for the week ending March 24, 1888: Butler, Miss Jernie Booth, John Ball, Fred. Zimmerman, Arthur B. Wenz.

Persons calling for any of the above letters will please say "advertised." J. N. WISE, P. M.

—About sixty prominent ladies and gentlemen of this city attended the "Orange social" last night. As some of the ladies who attended are noted for educational abilities, witty repartee and beauty, we should not be surprised if orange blossoms should not be noticed as conspicuous in the next social event.

—Plattsmouth was the first city after Omaha to raise a Shattuck fund. Where, Oh where! has it gone? ff

PERSONAL PARAGRAPHS.

M. D. Polk went to Weeping Water today. J. W. Ball, of Wahoo, Neb., is in the city today. Miss Mate Safford was a passenger to Omaha this morning.

Miss Ida Ralston of Council Bluffs Ia. is a guest of Miss Ollie Mathews. Miss Carrie Holloway left this morning for Farnham, Neb., to teach school.

Mrs. Capt. H. E. Palmer, accompanied by her son and daughter, visited Omaha today. The visit is partly in honor of George Palmer's seventeenth birthday, which occurred today.

Mrs. Wm. Ingraham, who has been paying a pleasant visit to her husband and friends in this city for some time past, returned this morning to her home at Wheaton, Ill. Mr. Ingraham, Miss Safford and Miss Hattie Sheffer accompanied her as far as Omaha.

An Enjoyable Evening. Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Jones gave a party last evening to a number of their friends. We cannot express the good time that was had any better than to use the words of one that was present. He said that happiness was "unanimous with friendship united." The following are those that were there: Mr. and Mrs. Geo. S. Smith, of Omaha, Mr. and Mrs. F. E. White, Prof. and Mrs. W. W. Drummond, Mr. and Mrs. M. B. Murphy, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Morgan, Dr. and Mrs. Wm. Wintersteen, Judge and Mrs. S. M. Chapman, Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Hartigan, Mr. and Mrs. Byron Clark, Mrs. H. J. Streight, and Misses Maggie Streight, Lela Thomas, Minnie Houseworth, Maggie O'Rourke and Mr. A. B. Todd, John A. Davies and Frank Cranmer.

A New Hotel. Several prominent business men of this city are interesting themselves in the erection of a first class hotel, which is certainly badly needed. We understand however that Mr. Riddle, of Wahoo, is negotiating with Mr. Guthman for the Perkins House, which will, if Mr. Riddle gets it, be fitted up as a first class house. If this is not done a new hotel will and must be built at once, while we have an opportunity to get a first class man interested in it, that is capable of managing a good house.

F. HERRMANN & CO., CORSET DEPARTMENT. LADIES FAVORITE WAIST. DURABLE AND ECONOMICAL. COMFORTABLE AND HEALTHFUL. Image of a corset.

This waist is designed to meet the requirements of ladies who cannot, comfortably, wear a stiff and rigid corset, while it can be worn with as much comfort as an ordinary dress waist. It will give the same elegance of contour as the heaviest boned corset in the market, while the stays are so arranged that they will give support to the back and spine and in no wise interfere with the freedom and comfort of the wearer. The weight of the clothing is transferred from the hips to the shoulders by means of the shoulder-straps, which are adjustable to suit any form or length of waist. We have these waists in White, Grey and Gold and the price to introduce them will be $1.00. Sizes 18 to 28.

We also Carry a Full Line of the following Corsets: Bortrees Duplex, Bortrees Skirt Supporting, Misses Corsets, Loomers Elastic Comfort Hip, Satin Corsets, F. C. Corsets, I. C. Corsets, C. P. Corsets. Our Cleopatra is the best $1.00 corset ever thrown over any counter; our 750 French Wove at $1.50 cannot be duplicated in this city; our Blanche Extra Long Corset at $1.50 is a bargain; Childrens Corset Waists at 45 and 65 cents.
