REPUBLICAN CONVENTION.

The Republican electors of the State of Nebraska are requested to send delegates from the several counties, to meet in convention, at the city of Omaha, Tuesday, May 15, 1888, at 8 o'clock p. m., for the purpose of electing four delegates to the National Republican Convention, which meets in Chicago June 19, 1888.

THE APPOINTMENT. The several counties are entitled to representation as follows, being based upon the vote cast for Hon. Samuel Maxwell, supreme Judge, in 1887, giving one delegate-at-large to each county, and one for each 150 votes and major fraction thereof:

Table with columns: COUNTIES, VOTES, COUNTIES, VOTES. Lists counties like Adams, Antelope, Arthur, Blaine, Boone, Box Butte, Brown, Buffalo, Butler, Burr, Cass, Cedar, Chase, Cherry, Cheyenne, Clay, Colfax, Cuming, Custer, Dakota, Dawes, Dawson, Dixon, Dodge, Douglas, Dundy, Fillmore, Franklin, Furnas, Gage, Garfield, Gosper, Grant, Greeley, Hall, Hamilton, Harlan, Hayes, Hitchcock, Holt, Howard.

It is recommended that no proxies be admitted to the convention, except such as are held by persons residing in the counties from the proxies are given. GEORGE D. MEIKLEBOHN, Chairman. WALT M. SEELEY, Secretary.

THE citizens are becoming anxious to know why the Journal does not turn over the Shattuck fund to the proper persons to receive it. This city was among the first to raise a fund and it is disgraceful to the town that it has not been turned over long ago.

A DISPATCH from Washington says that the difficulty with the Moorish government has been satisfactorily settled and the country is now anxious to know the process Secretary Bayard adopted in the humiliation of this country and how much the Moors have gained through his folly and weakness.

THE investigation of the Jackson, Miss., election outrages is disclosing facts in which the whole country will be interested, as they go to show by what processes democratic majorities are obtained in communities where there is a preponderance of republican voters. It is well known that fair elections long since ceased to be held in the south, and perhaps there is no legitimate way to rectify the wrong; but investigations of this kind will at least serve the purpose of keeping the matter before the people, and stimulating public sentiment against the party that profits by such wickedness.—Globe Democrat.

A BEAUREAU OF FEMININE TASTE.

"Now, my dear, good people, listen! You all mean very kindly by me, and I thank you; but I can't accept your plans until I have tried my own. I don't care about Mr. Nichols, and I don't incline to marriage, anyway; but I do want some congenial occupation which will keep me busy, and entitle me to consider myself of some use in the world. I have carefully thought over the whole matter, and thank you for your kind offers," turning to Aunt Mary and flashing a bright smile. "Uncle John, 'bu it have determined, 'siding Amy Warren, to open a 'au in New York."

peculiarities. Why, you all know these women. You can't go anywhere without seeing them, and sometimes it's all I can do to keep my hands off them. Such guys as they make of themselves! I feel like pulling them all to pieces, and building them up again, as they ought to be. I believe if I can but make a fair start, I should soon become a public benefactor, by teaching the thoughtless, tasteless, sisterhood how to make the most of their good points, and to keep the poor ones in the shade, instead of emphasizing them, as so many do now."

"That's all very well, my dear!" remarks one of the spinster cousins, "but it will take some time to start such an enterprise. How are you going to work to do it?" From "One Woman's Idea," by Elanor Corbet, in "Woman," April, 1888.

Autographs of Great Men. Letters written by Napoleon and by various kings of France, and autographs of almost every great man in French literature are to be sold in Paris. There is an interesting letter by Sir Walter Scott, written in 1814, and one from the Duke of Wellington (1817) about an incognito journey through the north of France which the king of Prussia was then about to undertake.—New York Sun.

A Terrier's Intelligence. A black and tan terrier with a broken leg forced itself on the attention of the house surgeon in the infirmary at Bolton, England, recently, and made him at last understand what was the matter. While the surgeon was setting the leg the dog licked his hand and afterward would not leave, and is installed as one of the in-patients.—New York Sun.

Strength of Iron Beams. From tests made several years ago the deduction was drawn that iron bars scarcely bear the reiterated application of one-third the breaking weight without injury; that is, a comparatively light stress repeatedly applied will break a bar of iron with the same certainty as the single application of a heavy stress. Hence proper beams require that in manufacturing beams they be made capable of bearing at least six times the greatest weight that could be laid upon them.—Globe-Democrat.

Buenos Ayres. Buenos Ayres, in the Argentine Republic, is now the largest city in South America, the census of 1887 giving it a population of 424,000.

Begg's Cherry Cough Syrup. Is the only medicine that acts directly on the Lungs, Blood and Bowels, it relieves a cough instantly and in time effects a permanent cure. Sold by O. P. Smith & Co., druggists, j25-3mo,d-w.

How Men Die. If we know all the methods of approach adopted by an enemy we are the better enabled to ward off the danger and postpone the moment when surrender becomes inevitable. In many instances the inherent strength of the body suffices to enable it to oppose the tendency toward death. Many however have lost these forces to such an extent that there is little or no help. In other cases a little aid to the weakened lungs will make all the difference between sudden death and many years of useful life. Upon the first symptoms of a cough, cold or any trouble of the throat or lungs, give that old and well known remedy—Boschee's German Syrup, a careful trial. It will prove what thousands say of it to be, the "benefactor of any home."

Love of the Kitchen. Pig-foot jelly—dat's good ole time eatin'. Young pig's slimy eatin', but de grown up shoat makes sweet meat. Cut off de pig's tail en he'll fatten s' fast. Hit takes ez much co'n ter fill out de tail ez hit takes fer all res' uv ee body. But hog killin' time de fat er de roas' pigtail cracks mighty good twixt yer teef. White lard fer de great house; leaf lard fer de quarter.

Kill de meat on de wax er de moon se ez hit'll swell in de pot—kill hit on de wane hit'll sho swink in de cookin'.

Big lye hommy, hocakes en sassaages dee fits ter Christmas times. Who dat ax fer better feedin' dan er fat 'possum roas' wid 'aters all roun' hit—all er swimmin' in grease!

White folks drinks de top er de demijon—nigger lick he chops en smuck he jaws over de bottom. Dar ain't nobody strong 'nough fer tur turn dat jug ups' downwards en give de nigger fust taste.

Bake er nigger good "John Constant" on de bread-hoe, en fry him "Ole Ned" ef yer want ter see him work. "John Constant" is corn meal. "Ole Ned" is salt pork.

"Billy Seldom" is good for Sunday, but de nigger wants "John Constant" for ev'ry day. ("Billy Seldom" is wheat flour).

School is mighty good fer de slim nigger, but I'll lift de oven lids fer de white folks twel I find a school whar dee 'gin yer som'at ter fill yer belly 'twee times a day.

Plant dem garden sas wha' bears dey vegetables on top er de groun' on de wax er de moon.

Plant yer de 'tater en de turnips en de root crape on de wane er de moon ef yer 'sires good yield. Make lye soap on de wax er de moon. Stir hit all time wid er sass'fras stick, en stir frum de right ter de left always.—Detroit Free Press.

He Didn't Strike Back. There is a good story told of a Wesleyan student, one of the boat's crew that finished second in a flotilla of six at Saratoga some years ago. He was a slim, good looking fellow, without a trace of a pedant in his makeup. He became enamored of the daughter of a well to do farmer, who lived not far from the lake. The farmer objected to him on general principles, and tried to break off the acquaintance; he did not want a minister for a son-in-law, and the young man seemed too light waisted for a rough battle with the world. Returning early one night he found the pair of lovers seated on the sofa, and at once proceeded to take off his coat.

"If your father raises his hand against me, I shall not strike back, but I will pull his nose," whispered the Lothario.

Now, medical men pronounce the nose a most delicate and sensitive organ, and anything beyond gentle dalliance with it is provocative of great pain. But the old gentleman sailed in, and dragging the student lover to the door he deposited several pounds of kicking power under his coat tails. This was too much, and true to his word the young athlete seized the old man's nose twixt his fingers and wrung it heartily. In this unexpected turn of affairs the theologian was revealed in a new light.

"Let go! let go! she's yours!" yelled the pained but discreet father. "You shall marry her at the earliest opportunity."

And he did.—Alfred Trumble in New York News.

Proud Savages of Patagonia. The Patagonian Indians are a high grade of savages, have more intelligence than the natives of the tropical latitudes, are more honorable and less cruel. It is said that the Patagonian will never keep an agreement with a Spaniard, for the Spaniard has never kept faith with him. But he can be relied upon by every other nationality. A German trader who has had much to do with them during several years' experience at Punta Arenas, told me that when a Tehuelches chief agreed to bring him skins and furs, he brought them if they were to be found in the country. If the same chief agreed to bring the same things to a Chili trader across the way he was certain not to do it. If the Chili trader called him to account he would answer, "Mamma" (to-morrow), the word the Spaniard always uses to excuse himself from carrying out a bargain. This practice is so universal that the Spaniards have been driven out of the trading business. The Indians would not sell to them till all the other traders were supplied, even when they offered higher prices.—Philadelphia Times.

Grasping a Patient. Here is a case that happened out west a few years since. The graduating class in one of our medical colleges was advised at the last by the old professor never to acknowledge ignorance, but always, when called, to give some treatment. One of the class settled in a western town, and after some years the old professor, in traveling, got a piece of bone in his throat being called, failed by every man in his power to dislodge the obstruction, and then having recognized the old professor, stripped him and rubbed him with lard. This so amused the old professor that he could not restrain a hearty laugh, which dislodged the bone, and he asked the doctor, "Why in thunder did you grease me?"

The reply was, "You told me when I was about to graduate always to do something, so I greased you, not knowing what else to do."—Williamsport Sun and Banner.

Tears of "Schweitzer Kase." Next in popularity with all classes of people is the ordinary Swiss cheese, more familiarly known as "Schweitzer kase." Wherever there is Swiss or Germans there is also Schweitzer kase and lager beer. No free lunch counter is fully equipped without its slices of rye bread and Swiss cheese. This cheese is very compact except for the numerous cavities scattered throughout it, varying in size from an eighth of an inch to a full inch in diameter. When the cheese is of the best quality a drop of water, sparkling and as clear as crystal, will be found in each cavity. The Germans call these drops of water "tears," and in giving their order to the waiter they usually say: "Bring me some Schweitzer and a tear."—Chicago News.

The Date Was Correct. She—My darling, it seems such a little while since we entered this house to begin life together. The glad spring time had just begun, the air was vocal with birds and fragrant with flowers; yet, just think, it's almost a year.

He—That's so. I received notice from the landlord this morning that if I wanted to stay in this house I'd better come around and renew the lease. He's going to raise the rent on me, too. Yes, it's nearly a year.—Omaha World.
