CITY CORDIALS.

Supt. T. E. Calvert is in the city. Wm. Coon, of Mauly, is in town. Atty. Geo. S. Smith, of Omaha, was in town at 10:50 last night. The pontoon bridge will be located just north of the railroad bridge. Don't forget the Welsh Prize Singers at the Opera House this evening. Hear Walter T. Baker, harpist, at Waterman's Opera House this evening. It will be a rare treat. Those who expected a letter from the East today had better read our telegraphic columns on the first page. You will never regret a dollar spent in a good cause, and that amount can be judiciously expended by purchasing a ticket for the opera house tonight. Miss Edith Debaugh, of Weeping Water, sister of Mrs. J. M. Leyda, is in the city on a visit to that lady and her husband, deputy recorder, J. M. Leyda. If you wish to be credited with being possessed of a mind and soul pure and free from sordid thoughts and base emotions listen to the Welsh Singers tonight. The Eunice Goodrich company which appears at the opera house three nights this week, comes highly recommended and promises to be superior to any of that class of entertainments yet seen in Plattsmouth. W. D. Ainsworth, advance agent for Eunice Goodrich, left yesterday morning for Omaha. Mr. Ainsworth is naturally possessed of every qualification that stamps a man as a gentleman. The heart of a lion, the tenderness of a woman, and the soul of a man. Rowell's newspaper directory for 1888 quotes the law and real estate firm of Windham & Davies as owning and editing the Plattsmouth Journal. These gentlemen are staunch republicans and quit the newspaper business long ago for something more profitable. The true criterion of refinement is a taste for beauty of form or sound. Instrumental and vocal sounds will greet your ears in a manner to arouse you from plethoric lethargy, enlarge the mind and purify the soul, if you witness the performance of the Welsh Singers tonight. There is too much lawlessness on lower Main street. Nearly every night last week some one was slugged, and last Saturday night special policeman Buzzell while trying to arrest a striker was slugged and his man got away, so no arrests were made. There should be a sufficient force put on to arrest such fellows, and if good men cannot be had any other way the mayor should call for volunteers. Mr. Fred Patterson, postmaster at Rock Bluffs, lately forwarded a petition to Hon. John McShane at Washington which was signed by the editors of this city and Omaha, in addition there were 156 names affixed to the petition. In less than three weeks the petition through McShane's influence and exertion was granted. The petition was for changing the tri-weekly postal route between Plattsmouth, Rock Bluffs, Murray and Eight Mile Grove into a daily route, except Sunday. Mr. Patterson is deserving of great credit for accomplishing this result unaided. There has been complaints made by numerous persons to the city council about cattle straying in their gardens and destroying plants and flowers. The following law applies to the case: "All damages done by cattle, sheep, horses, mules and swine on cultivated lands, shall be paid by the owners of such stock; and the person whose property is so damaged thereby may have a lien upon such trespassing animals for the full amount of damages and costs, and may enforce the collection of the same by the proper civil action." At Harper's theatre last night an audience of large proportions and appreciative to a marked degree witnessed the production of the new comedy, "Wanted, a Husband," by the clever sobrette, Miss Eunice Goodrich, and company. The piece is of the Hoyt order, being replete with amusing and laughter provoking situations. There is no particular plot to the comedy, but enough of connecting thread is woven through it to maintain interest to the last. Miss Goodrich was awarded many ovations for her exceptionally fine acting, and she was strongly supported by Jas. R. McCann, Mr. Morris and the other members of her company. The troupe is far above the majority of "all star" combinations, which are traveling through the country now-days, playing to the old high prices. Miss Goodrich gives a refined and highly entertaining performance, at prices within the reach of all, and she is certainly deserving of the praise she is receiving in Rock Island.—Rock Island Argus.

PLATTSMOUTH'S PONTOON.

Another Bridge-Insured Prosperity "Let Her Roll."

We are going to have another bridge, a pontoon bridge shaped like this: This will enable the farmers of Iowa to bring their grain and stock over here for sale and help the boom that is coming pretty lively over, what is fast becoming an energetic, lively little city. This bridge is a certainty, so don't be dubious, and on this side we will have two new hotels run by experienced hotel men from large cities, so don't be doubtful; sewers will be built and streets paved shortly, so don't be surprised. There are so many buildings going up that it is tedious to enter into details about such trifles. Col. Stewart's system of street nomenclature is very simple and should be adopted by every city council in the United States. It consists in calling all streets north of Main street "Avenues" and all streets south "Corso." Such as 1st, 2d, 3d Avenue or 1st, 2d, 3d, Corso. Attend the meeting and get further information. Every citizen should be present. Col. Stewart of Philadelphia, the Pontoon bridge builder, will address the board of trade tomorrow (Tuesday) evening on the subject of bridging the Missouri river and on systematic street nomenclature. Every member of the board should be present. It is a matter of importance to Plattsmouth.

ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION.

- 1. The corporation hereby created shall be known as the Iowa and Nebraska Bridge Company. 2. The principal place of transacting its business shall be Plattsmouth, Cass County, Nebraska. 3. The object of this corporation shall be the construction of a wagon or pontoon bridge across the Missouri River at or near Plattsmouth. 4. The capital stock of this corporation shall be fifty thousand dollars in shares of one hundred dollars each, of which amount at least ten per cent. at least shall be paid in at the time of subscription, the remainder in installments as called for by the directors of the company. 5. The amount of capital stock of this corporation may be increased at any regular meeting. 6. Each share of stock shall represent one vote, to be cast by the owner, or his proxy duly authorized in writing, provided in all cases the proxy shall be a share holder. 7. The indebtedness of the corporation shall not at any one time exceed one-fifth of the capital stock. 8. No loans shall be created without first being authorized by a two-thirds vote of the capital stock. 9. The regular meetings of this corporation shall be held quarterly as follows: First Monday in January, April, July and October. 10. Special meetings may be called at any time by the president, upon a request of a majority of the Board of Directors at which meetings the secretary shall give all stock holders at least ten days' notice in writing. 11. The property of this corporation shall be disposed of only by a two-thirds vote of all the stock. 12. The officers shall consist of a president, vice-president, secretary and treasurer, and the business of the corporation shall be transacted by a board of five directors, from whom said officers shall be chosen, with the exception of the secretary who may be chosen from among the stock holders generally. 13. The directors shall be elected from among the stock holders at the meeting in January of each year after its incorporation. 14. All questions arising in a meeting of stock holders, upon which a vote is required, shall be decided by a majority vote of the stock present, except as otherwise herein provided. 15. A quorum of stockholders for the transaction of business shall consist of two-thirds of all the capital stock. 16. All stock of this corporation shall be transferable only on the books of the company, by surrender of the certificate by the owner or his attorney. 17. The time of commencing the transaction of business under these articles shall date from the 16th day of April, A. D. 1888. 18. This corporation shall continue to exist until the year A. D. 1950 unless sooner dissolved by a two-thirds vote of all the stock. Signed this 13th day of April A. D. 1888:

S. N. STEWART, ROBT. B. WINDHAM, F. HERRMANN, W. S. WISE, JOHN A. DAVIES, WM. NEVILLE.

New England. The above is the commencement of a title which concerns the health of everybody in this city. Mr. Whistler of the City Bakery, has just enjoyed the services of a first-class baker from Omaha, named I. J. Strayer. This gentleman's specialty is in the making of "New England Home-made bread." Praise of this light, easily-digested, aerated, form of nutriment is not necessary. Purchase a five or ten cent loaf and you will be convinced of its merits. Mr. Whistler also supplies a dinner for twenty-five cents, far superior to that served in restaurants in many large cities. Short orders are rapidly attended to for breakfast or supper. Meats from 6 A. M. till 11 P. M. Ice cream and lemonade at all hours. Orders for wedding cakes promptly filled. Balls, parties, or picnics can be readily supplied with everything in the eating line. Mr. Whistler runs a first-class restaurant and only awaits your patronage to substantiate what is here stated.

OBITUARY.

Mr. Wm. Tucker who died in this city last Friday afternoon was born in Beaver town, Beaver county, Penn., October 31, 1828. He was raised on a farm near Cincinnati, Ohio, until he became twenty years of age, when he moved to Holt county, Mo., where he married Mrs. Tucker, nee Sarah E. Ramsey.

The fruits of that union were eight children, two of whom have since died. Two of the remaining six children are married, a daughter living in this city and a son in Missouri. Mr. Tucker lived five years in Holt county, Mo., and then moved to Plattsmouth in 1857 and had lived in the same house for the past twenty-five years. He had a sister, Mrs. Levi Hoag, living in Savannah, Mo., who with his brother Jasper Tucker of Wilbur, attended the funeral.

Mr. Tucker was a carpenter by trade and a member of the McConchie Post, G. A. R. and Episcopal church. He was only sick about a week and died very suddenly unconscious of his surroundings. The doctors say the cause of death was cerebral hemorrhage or apoplexy. He enlisted for three years in Co. A. 2nd Nebraska regiment, and served one year and eleven months until the close of the war. Mr. Tucker had three ribs broke on the left side during the war and ever since he had complained of a pain near the region of the heart. He was constantly saying that those injuries would be the cause of his death.

If the widow can show that the cause of death was brought about by injuries received during the war, which it undoubtedly was, she will receive a pension for the rest of her days, but she will have to make an application to the authorities at Washington. It was only the other day we made mention of pensions and that "one by one the rose leaves fall" in reference to the rapid manner in which those glorious veterans are passing away, and how soon a fulfillment of that beautiful quotation, which is followed by "drop by drop the stream runs dry."

The Welsh Prize Singers.

A concert will be given at Waterman's opera house this evening by the Welsh Prize Singers. These singers have visited nearly all the principal cities of the country, and have won the commendation of large cities everywhere. They will be assisted by Walter T. Baker, an assistant of the royal academy of music of London. The programme will contain a liberal amount of the best English music, and the entertainment will be one that will be highly appreciated by the music loving people.

Revival Meetings.

The meetings yesterday were interesting and profitable. About four hundred men were in attendance at the afternoon meeting, and listened attentively to the story of Mr. Claggett's conversion. The trundle-bed was sung by Mr. Bilhorn in his best strain and touched a chord in many hearts present. About sixty have made a confession of the Savior and have expressed a determination to lead a new life. There will be service again this evening at 7:30 in the M. E. church.

District Court.

Assignment of case for this week. For trial Tuesday: The Weeping Water Bank vs. James C. Eikenbary, sheriff; Simon Dberwatte vs. Jonathan Edgar. For trial Wednesday: John F. Polk vs. Fred M. Melcher; James and Fitzgerald vs. James C. Eikenbary, sheriff.

Notice.

All parties are notified that the ordinance to prevent live stock from running at large will be enforced on and after Wednesday. W. H. MALICK, City Marshal.

There are lots of stories being printed about domesticated snakes. We once knew of a snake, a rattlesnake, that so loved the family of which he was a domestic, that one terrible stormy night, when forked lightning was striking and destroying trees and buildings, he was so afraid that the house in which he resided would be struck, that he jumped on to the one-story roof, and stood on his head erect turning himself into a lightning conductor. The lightning struck him—he rattled no more. The loving tenderness and thoughtfulness of those dear creatures passeth all human understanding.

In their sugar-loaf hats and quaint garb the Welsh Prize Singers proved interesting entertainers to Star Course patrons last night. Their programme was made up of part songs, glees, vocal solos, and hard music, and was rendered with the yeoman's spirit and skill which we all know they feel.—Boston Evening Traveller.

F. HERRMANN & CO., CORSET DEPARTMENT.

LADIES FAVORITE WAIST

This waist is designed to meet the requirements of ladies who cannot, comfortably, wear a stiff and rigid corset, while it can be worn with as much comfort as an ordinary dress waist. It will give the same elegance of contour as the heaviest boned corset in the market, while the stays are so arranged that they will give support to the back and spine and in nowise interfere with the freedom and comfort of the wearer. The weight of the clothing is transferred from the hips to the shoulders by means of the shoulder-straps, which are adjustable to suit any form or length of waist. We have these waists in White, Grey and Gold and the price to introduce them will be $1.00. Sizes 18 to 28.

We also Carry a Full Line of the following Corsets:

Bortrees Duplex, Bortrees Skirt Supporting, Misse Corsets, Loomers Elasting Comfort Hip, Satin Corsets, F. C. Corsets, I. C. Corsets, C. P. Corsets. Our Cleopatra is the best $1.00 corset ever thrown over any counter; our 750 French Wove at $1.50 cannot be duplicated in this city; our Blanche Extra Long Corset at $1.50 is a bargain. Childrens Corset Waists at 45 and 65 cents.
