REPUBLICAN CONVENTION.

The Republican electors of the State of Nebraska are requested to send delegates from the several counties, to meet in convention, at the city of Omaha, Tuesday, May 15, 1888, at 8 o'clock p. m., for the purpose of electing four delegates to the National Republican Convention, which meets in Chicago June 19, 1888.

THE APPOINTMENT.

The several counties are entitled to representation as follows, being based upon the vote cast for Hon. Samuel Maxwell, supreme Judge, in 1887, giving one delegate-at-large to each county, and one for each 150 votes and major fraction thereof:

Table with 4 columns: COUNTY, VOTES, DELEGATES, VOTERS. Lists counties like Adams, Antelope, Arthur, Blaine, Boone, Box Butte, Brown, Buffalo, Butler, Cass, Chase, Cherry, Cheyenne, Clay, Colfax, Cuming, Custer, Dakota, Dawes, Dawson, Dixon, Dodge, Douglas, Dundy, Fillmore, Franklin, Frontier, Furness, Gage, Garfield, Gosper, Grant, Greeley, Hall, Hamilton, Harlan, Hayes, Hitchcock, Holt, Howard.

It is recommended that no proxies be admitted to the convention, except such as are held by persons residing in the counties from the proxies are given.

GEORGE D. MEIKLEJOHN, WALT M. SEELYE, Chairman, Secretary.

THE Democracy takes its orders from its Southern section as it did in the old days. The abject surrender of the Northern Democrats on the direct tax matter is but a repetition, under changed circumstances and slightly altered conditions, of their surrender on the slavery and tariff question a generation or two ago.—Globe Democrat.

THE Pittsburg Post prints a table, which the other free-trade papers copy, showing that the number of sheep in the three states of Pennsylvania, New York and Ohio, taken together, was 550,000 greater in the low-tariff year 1860 than in the high-tariff 1887.

Begg's Blood Purifier and Blood Maker. No remedy in the world has gained the popularity that this medicine has, as a hold on family medicine. No one should be without it.

If Diogenes lived today he would be out with a lantern looking for a Democratic lawyer who hasn't been mentioned for the office of chief justice of the supreme court.

Ever since the beginning of the present session of congress, the democrats have assured us that their chief desire was to reduce the surplus; but when the chance came for them to dispose of $17,000,000 they refused to do so because it would reduce the surplus and at the same time pay an honest debt, this bill was deliberately set aside by democratic votes.

The loyal states can get along without the money which has thus been denied them because they stood by the union and paid taxes to support federal soldiers. They furnished this money freely when it was necessary, and if democratic injustice shall prevent it from being paid back to them, they can stand it. They have asked only for what is fairly due to them, and what the government is able to give them without embarrassment in any particular.

Unhappy Old Men.

The professional man, who makes his living by hard knocks and constant exertions, is prone to envy the business man or speculator who can go on making money almost without work, and who can pile up a fortune which seems enormous to one who manages to pick out of the world by constant endeavor a snug living and perhaps a little more under favorable conditions.

An Explanation.

What is this "nervous trouble" with which so many seem now to be afflicted? If you will remember a few years ago the word Malaria was comparatively unknown,—today it is as common as any word in the English language, yet this word covers only the meaning of another word used by our forefathers in times past.

An observant metropolitan barber says that he can tell one's physical condition by the state of the hair!

STUNG BY A SCORPION.

HOW THE DEADLY INSECT MAKES ITS WAY NORTHWARD.

A Scared Darkey in a New York Fruit Store—The Old Druggist's Remedy—The "Mule Killer's" Description of the Scorpion Family.

A reporter was hurrying down Barclay street a few days ago, conscious that he had but a few minutes in which to catch the Hoboken ferryboat when suddenly he stopped at a dark opening, which led into a still darker basement. Bunches of bananas hung to the lintel and were festooned upon the jambs of the doorway, while bursting crates of golden oranges were piled on the downward leading steps.

"No, sir, it is not a scorpion!" "Ah, then," with brilliant ratiocination—"it's a spider." "Wrong again," said the druggist. "It isn't a spider."

"It's just between the two," said the druggist, and the darkey having subsided into a condition of mute despair, varied by an occasional moan of lingering agony, and the store being otherwise deserted, the druggist became quite conversational.

"Many years ago," continued the druggist, "I was a member of a surveying party, for, among other professions I have followed, is that of a surveyor, and found myself helping to lay out one of the first railroads ever run through Florida.
