Bond Tenders Accepted.

WASHINGTON, April 26.—The secretary of the treasury has accepted the tenders of bonds. The total amount is $1,840,000, made up as follows: Registered 4's, $300,000 at 126, $90,000 127, $50,000 at 125; registered 4's, $200,000 at 107; $400,000 at 107.

He Probably Succeeded.

PLAINVIEW, Neb., April 26.—Charles Hawk, a farmer living about four miles from this place, died this morning about 8 o'clock, of violent convulsions. The doctors in attendance pronounced it strychnine poisoning. He probably succeeded and an inquest will be held tomorrow.

A Soldier's Frightful Death.

FORT GIBSON, I. T., April 26.—A soldier named James White met with a frightful death today. He had started on the lawn to lariat Col. Coppenger's horse, when the horse became frightened and jumped suddenly, and the stake at the end of the rope, which the soldier held in his hand, was jerked through his body, killing him almost instantly. White lived in Arkansas, but belonged to Company C, 18th Infantry, at this post.

A Battle with Desperadoes.

ALBUQUERQUE, N. M., April 26.—Two deputy sheriffs of Socorro county, who have been on the trail of Joe Atkins and Frank Porter for the last two days, came up with them near San Jose, this county, yesterday afternoon, when a regular pitched battle ensued, in which Porter was killed and Atkins captured. The prisoner and the body of the dead man were brought to Albuquerque this morning. These men have been known for a long time past as desperate characters.

The Odd Fellows at Crete.

CRETE, Neb., April 20.—The celebration of the anniversary of the establishment of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows was a grand success. The city was filled with strangers and brethren of the order from early morning. There was a constant string of people coming and going to and from the assembly grounds during the greater portion of the day. The city has a holiday appearance, many of the stores and dwelling houses throughout the city being beautifully and tastefully decorated with flags and bunting. There was between six and seven hundred persons in the line of the procession, which marched through the principal streets headed by Prof. Vance's cornet band. By order of Mayor Miller, all of the streets were thoroughly cleaned. The different lodges in the county were represented by over five hundred members. On behalf of the people of Crete and Crete lodge, ex-Governor Dawes welcomed the brethren in a few well chosen words, after which W. H. Woodward, of Lincoln, delivered a brilliant address lasting over an hour. In the evening a grand ball was given at Band's opera house which proved a social and financial success.

The Republican For 1888.

The presidential campaign of 1888 promises to be fought out with great vigor in all the Northern States of the Union, and in some of the Southern States as well. Fortunately for the Republican party, the great issue has been made up in advance of the opening of the canvass, so that it may be discussed intelligently. The President of the United States, as the leader of the Democratic party, has announced himself in favor of maintaining the internal taxes, and of then reducing the revenues from imports to a point which shall make the whole merely sufficient to meet the current expenses of the government. The democratic press and a majority of the democratic members in congress have announced their acceptance of this platform.

The republican party, on the other hand, stands squarely upon the platform which it has occupied for more than a quarter of a century—that of protection to American industries; to which is added the unrestricted right of suffrage and an honest count of ballots cast. The issue thus made up, the parties are preparing for the fray. All over the country the republicans are organizing. They are enthusiastic, earnest, and will make an aggressive and a hot fight, and are confident of success.

The Word "Volapuk."

A perplexed reader in Riverhead, L. I., wants to know how the word Volapuk is pronounced. Well, it is pronounced almost every way, but the correct way is said to be Vo-la-pweek, with the accent on the last syllable, which is spoken very quickly.—New York Tribune.

Sending a Kiss.

After an enthusiastic lover spends two hours' hard labor over a letter to his girl, and then mars its beauty by spilling a drop of ink on it, he first swears in a very scientific manner for a few moments, and then draws a circle around the blot and tells her it is a kiss.

will make a complete record of the canvass. Its news columns will be non-partisan; its editorial columns straight republican.

AS A GENERAL NEWSPAPER, The Republican never sleeps. Its columns are breezy, while trustworthy. It prints every morning all the news of the previous day from all parts of the world. It labors early and late for the best interests of Omaha, Nebraska and the great west.

The subscription price list of The Republican as follows:
Daily per year.....$10 00
Daily (by carrier in Omaha or Council Bluffs per week)..... 15 c
Weekly (per year)..... $ 1 00
In all its editions The Republican is the cheapest paper in the west. The campaign will extend over a period of more than seven months, but as we are especially desirous that The Republican shall find its way into the home of every family in the great Northwest we make this SPECIAL OFFER:

THE WEEKLY REPUBLICAN
From April 1 to December 1, 1888: In clubs of 50, 50 cents for nine months; in clubs of 25, 60 cents for nine months; in clubs of 10, 70 cents for nine months.

A corps of active correspondents will be employed in all parts of the state to keep us informed of the progress of the canvass in Nebraska.

The price of subscription barely covers the cost of white paper. The daily and weekly Republican will be better and more complete in every department than ever before. It will be a paper of and for the people and the people's interests will be maintained without fear or favor.

SPECIAL FEATURES
will be added from time to time. Send in your clubs as well as individual subscriptions so as to commence early in April and reap the full benefit of this liberal offer. We want an active canvasser for the Weekly at every post office in Nebraska. THE REPUBLICAN CO., Omaha, Neb.

To Correct an Error.

Our local scribe was misinformed yesterday, and our statement that the funeral of Mr. John Richardson would take place from the residence of Mr. Showalter was an error that we regret.

The funeral was held at his late residence on South Seventh street, at 10 a. m., the Rev. Alexander officiating, and the remains were laid to rest in Oak Hill cemetery. Mr. Richardson leaves to mourn his demise his beloved wife, two daughters, one the wife of W. C. Showalter and one now married and living in Washington D. C., and one son living in the western part of this state but who was at his father's dying bedside.

French Epicure's Cheese.
The cheese for excellence with high livers is Roquefort. It is French, and made of goat's milk and herbs. It is very rich, and is served just before coffee at dinner. Roquefort is almost a religion with French epicures, and is equally well thought of by a little animal probably first cousin to the American "skipper." This little animal is also part of the French epicure's religion. If the cheese does not contain him it is looked upon with suspicion, as his discrimination is very fine.—Chicago Herald.

One Feature Omitted.
Millionaire Patron (with wart on his nose) The portrait is excellent, Mr. Tubes, but you've left out one very essential feature. Mr. Tubes—Excuse me, sir, but I thought you wouldn't care to have the—er—wart reproduced.

Millionaire Patron—Confound you, sir! I'm talking about the diamond pin—not the wart!—Judge.

TORNADO POLICIES.
The present year bids fair to be a disastrous one from tornadoes and wind storms. This is fore-shadowed by the number of storms we have already had—the most destructive one so far this year having occurred at Mt. Vernon, Ill., where a large number of buildings were destroyed or damaged. The exemption from tornadoes last year renders their occurrence more probable in 1888.
