THE NEW CHIEF JUSTICE.

Sketch of the Career of Melville W. Fuller.

CHICAGO, April 30.—The nomination of Melville W. Fuller, of Chicago, as Chief Justice of the United States is regarded here with unbounded satisfaction by leading men of both parties. Fuller in every respect is fitted to fill that high office. He was born in Augusta, Me., February 11, 1833; graduated at Bowdoin in 1853, Minister Phelps being a classmate of his. After studying law at Bangor and attending the lectures at Harvard, Fuller came west to Chicago. His ability was speedily recognized and for thirty years he has won distinction among the foremost of the bar. He has been prominent at several democratic national conventions and in 1860 was selected to deliver the address of welcome to Stephen A. Douglas. In his practice in the supreme court of the United States, Fuller has frequently come in contact with Edmunds, Thurman, and other great lawyers, but has never failed to hold his own against the greatest of them. He is familiar with decisions of the court and especially on all constitutional questions. When Fuller was informed of the nomination he was overwhelmed with surprise and requested that he be set pressed for an extended interview, simply stating that he would accept the nomination.

Singular Discovery by Workmen.
MCKESPORT, Pa., April 30.—While tearing down an old building in this place recently, workmen found in the chimney, built in with the bricks, a pint flask of whisky, labeled as having been distilled in 1838. The house was built in 1838 by the late Orlando Greer, and in a tin box found near the flask was a written statement that he had placed the whisky in the chimney. The most singular part of the discovery was a written prophecy in which the following extraordinary language appeared:

"Thirty-five years from 1838 slavery will not exist in this land, although it will have cost thousands to make the change. Men will converse from beach to beach of ocean easier than indite a letter. The demon fashion and drink will enthrall the masses. Efforts will be made to overthrow the fiend rum. The tallow candle of today will not even be used to grease boots. Men will touch the wall as Moses touched the rock for water, and light will dispel the darkness. Prohibition will be a battle-cry, with temperance a formidable enemy. The first will fall, the latter prevail for a time, wax weak, and men will again court the cup. The flask of spirits which I place herewith will rise in the midst of a conflict which will claim it as one of the principals."

Bloody Battle Between Two Texas Romeos and their Friends.
JEFFERSON, Tex., April 30.—James Layton and Paul Forrar quarrelled over mutual affection for Miss Aggie Riley. After separating they detailed matters to their friends. Two parties headed by these young men organized and met in a corn field. A battle ensued in which many were wounded, over forty shots being fired. Forrar was fatally wounded in the groin. Miss Riley hearing this became crazed with grief.

Both Died.
SAN ANTONIO, Tex., April 30.—A fierce hand to hand fight occurred last night on the Southern Pacific eastbound express at Valentine Station. Sam Taylor a drunken cattle man, boarded the train, and Conductor Charles Server, finding him troublesome, tried to put him off. Taylor drew a long dirk and plunged it into Server again and again. The conductor managed to get out his revolver, and fired a bullet into Taylor's heart. Both men were dead in a short time.

A Bad Fire.
BRADFORD, Pa., April 30.—Forest fires have been raging in the Kane oil fields since Sunday afternoon, started by a spark from a locomotive. Several tanks and many barrels of oil have been destroyed. Camp Lodge, a suburb of Kane, was completely wiped out. The fire burned incessantly until 8 o'clock this evening, when a heavy rain checked the progress of the flames, which are now under control. The loss is very heavy. It was the worst fire in the history of the country.

Killed a Fellow Soldier.
STONEY, Neb., April 30.—C. E. Brown accidentally killed W. E. Murray at Fort Sidney yesterday with a .38-calibre revolver. Both were privates in Company E, Twenty-first infantry. Corporal Birney holds an inquest tomorrow together with the garrison court-martial. Brown will undoubtedly be held for manslaughter.

A Sunken Ship.

SAN LEUIS OBISPO, Cal., April 30.—The Pacific Coast steamship company's steamer, Queen of the Pacific, plying between San Francisco and southern coast ports, sunk near Port Hartford this morning.

The Queen of the Pacific was valued at $500,000 and the cargo at $50,000. She sprung a leak when fifteen miles from Port Hartford and despite strenuous efforts began to fill rapidly. She was kept going at full speed and was brought to within 200 yards of the wharf before she sunk. Everybody was taken off safely in life-boats. The passengers praise highly the conduct of the officers and whose exertions alone prevented loss of life.

A Fight With Convicts.
ALEXANDRIA, April 30.—A desperate conflict took place yesterday at the mosque at Damanhour, near this city. A number of escaped prisoners had taken refuge in the mosque and refused to surrender to the police, who had surrounded the building. In the fight that followed fifteen convicts were killed and two wounded. The police lost four men killed and wounded.

Postal Changes.
WASHINGTON, April 30.—The following Iowa postmasters were appointed today: W. J. W. Townsend, Platteville, Taylor county, vice H. H. Albaugh, resigned; M. H. Yabegan, West Burlington, Des Moines county, vice Abner S. Cook, declined.

Mexico Must Have Been Whipped.
NOGALES, Ariz., April 30.—The Mexican authorities report two more engagements fought with the Yaquis, in which a number of the latter were killed and many captured. Another desperate battle was fought at Guichero and it is believed they were worsted.

Will Cut Off the Fence.
LONDON, April 30.—A meeting composed of Irishmen and Englishmen held at Aldershot condemned the pope's decree and resolved to found a home rule organization and to cease contributing to Peter's pence.

Fire at Des Moines.
DES MOINES, Ia., April 30.—The offices of the Daily Leader and Homestead, weekly agricultural paper, burned this afternoon, together with Wear's three-story building adjoining. The losses aggregate $45,000; insurance half.

BUCKING OF THE BRONCO.

One of the Recreations of the Cowboy. Taming a Violent Brute.
While the head men are gathered in a little knot, planning out the work, the others are dispersed over the plain in every direction, racing, breaking rough horses, or simply larking with one another. If a man has an especially bad horse, he usually takes such an opportunity, when he has plenty of time, to ride him; and while saddling he is surrounded by a crowd of most unpropitious associates, who greet with uproarious mirth any misadventure. A man on a bucking horse is always considered fair game, every squeal and jump of the bronco being hailed with cheers of delighted irony for the rider and shouts to "stay with him."

The antics of a vicious bronco show infinite variety of detail, but all are modeled on one general plan. When the rope settles round his neck the fight begins, and it is only after much plunging and snorting that a twist is taken over his nose, or else a hackamore—a species of severe halter, usually made of plaited hair, slipped on his head. While being bridled he strikes viciously with his fore feet, and perhaps has to be blindfolded or thrown down; and to get the saddle on him is quite as difficult. When saddled, he may get rid of his exuberant spirits by bucking under the saddle, or may reserve all his energies for the rider. In the last case, the man, keeping tight hold with his left hand of the check strap, so as to prevent the horse from getting his head down until he is fairly seated, swings himself quickly into the saddle. Up rises the bronco's back into an arch; his head, the ears laid straight back, goes down between his fore feet, and, squealing savagely, he makes a succession of rapid, stiff legged, jarring bounds.

Sometimes he is a "plunging" bucker, who runs forward all the time while bucking; or he may buck steadily in one place, or "sunfish"—that is, bring first one shoulder down almost to the ground and then the other, or else he may change ends while in the air. A first class rider will sit throughout it all without moving from the saddle, quiring his horse all the time, though his hat may be jerked off his head and his revolver out of its sheath. After a few jumps, however, the average man grasps hold of the horn of the saddle—the delighted on-lookers meanwhile earnestly advising him not to "go to leather"—and is contented to get through the affair in any shape provided he can escape without being thrown off. An accident is of necessity borne with a broad grin, as any attempt to resent the railway of the bystanders—which is perfectly good humored—would be apt to result disastrously.—Theodore Roosevelt in The Century.

TORNADO POLICIES.

The present year bids fair to be a disastrous one from tornadoes and wind storms. This is fore-shadowed by the number of storms we have already had—the most destructive one so far this year having occurred at Mt. Vernon, Ill., where a large number of buildings were destroyed or damaged. The exemption from tornadoes last year renders their occurrence more probable in 1888.

Call at our office and secure a Tornado Policy. Unimproved lands for sale or exchange.
