CITY CORDIALS.

—Such summer days as this will soon bring out the leaves and flowers and we will have pleasant fragrant air once more.

—The B. & M. pay car came through yesterday and gave the boys their checks for their pay for the past month's work.

—Today THE HERALD is two hundred days old, and although they have not been the brightest it is now enjoying a good degree of prosperity and is here to stay.

Cass county this morning relieved itself of some of its burden by sending three of its papers to Weeping Water, where they will be able to care for themselves.

—The county clerk has a new order book and all orders for county supplies are required to be made through him. This is done in order that the county commissioners may keep track of the amount and prices paid for material in the different county offices.

—Pawnee Press: "When you see a newspaper bragging on its town and booming her for all she is worth, look at the advertising columns of that paper and see if the boom is substantial or a mere mockery. The editorial columns may deceive, but the advertisements will not."

—To the farmers and other people of Nebraska who have corn for the market, a suggestion: Sell now. There is a bull clique behind the present prices, and there is no telling how soon it may go to smash. Then the price will go down and stay down. Forty cents and upward is a good price for corn. Take it.—Lincoln Democrat.

—Talk about Plattsouth being dead, its only been the weather. If you call Plattsouth a dead town we think it a mighty lively corps. Why the streets are fairly crowded today and all the merchants are doing a big business. The city looks more like a boom than anything else. What's the use of complaining? Oh, well, though we remember that there are always some people that will complain.

—The base ball game at Bellevue yesterday turned out a little different from what we had anticipated, but after we thought a while and remembered that our boys were very charitable, and the Bellevue club were college men and were striving hard to rise high in the world of fame we knew that our club was not one that would try very hard to put anything in their way to discourage them, consequently the game came out 23 to 9 in favor of Bellevue.

—It now turns out that there are not enough offices for all the southern democrats and some able exponents of that party in advocating a reform in the manner of distributing the offices. They are promising to let the presidential post-offices to the lowest bidder. If this would improve our postal system any we would be heartily in favor of it; but it looks rather scaly business to our unsophisticated minds. We have enough such as it is and rather than have it worse we had rather remain where we are.

—The Firemen's ball of last evening at the opera house was a grand success in every particular. The way the program was arranged but proves that the fire company understand how to get up an entertainment and how to entertain. The hall was beautifully and artistically decorated and the music was fine. In fact everything seemed to be especially arranged for the occasion. The floor was in excellent condition for dancing and to those who delight to trip the light fantastic foot a better opportunity could never be afforded. The boys have won for themselves, an enviable reputation in giving this entertainment, and we are confident that should they ever give another of the same kind, it will be a grander success than this one. Every one present seemed to enjoy themselves in every particular, and all have loud words of praise for the firemen of our city.

—The parade of the firemen last evening was not much of a success as a number of the boys failed to get around with their uniforms.

—The Riddle house is getting to the front in fine style. The new proprietor is doing excellent work toward remodeling the hotel and is now setting one of the best tables to be found anywhere. He is making special efforts on Sunday dinners and the citizens of Plattsouth would do well to let their hired girls rest on Sunday and go to the Riddle house for a good dinner.

—Do not forget that it costs something to puff as well as advertise; never sponge upon a printer. It is the printer's ink that makes nine-tenths of our fortunes; it takes money to buy ink, type and paper, and yet after all this, few are the thanks the printer gets. Daniel Webster was right when he said of the press: "Small is the sum required to patronize a newspaper; amply rewarded its patron. I care not how humble and unpretending is the gazette which he takes, it is next to impossible to fill it out without putting into it something that is worth the subscription price."—Ink Fiend.

—Some facts about the fathers of the president of the United States. Grover Cleveland is the only clergyman's son ever elected president, though Arthur's father was a clergyman, he was not, however, elected president. The fathers of the Virginia presidents—Washington, Jefferson, Madison and Monroe—were planters. John Tyler's father was a lawyer and a statesman, and John Adams, the father of John Quincy Adams, was by profession a lawyer. Grant's father was a tanner, Haye's father a merchant, and the fathers of Garfield, Lincoln, Pierce, Fillmore, Polk, Van Buren and Jackson were farmers.

—We are in receipt of the first annual illustrated edition of the Beatrice Express printed in book form. It is a very neat work giving beautiful illustrations of all the large buildings of the city of Beatrice and a complete description of each and every business interest of the city. The people of that city are alive to business and take this means of letting the outside world know something of the advantages of their city. Such enterprises go a long way toward building up a city and we have no hesitation in believing that the people of Beatrice will be more than doubly paid for the exertion and expense of this catalogue.

—Some people are always very anxious to have others find out that they are honest and have lots of money. In order to prove their honesty they are continually asking that they be permitted to fill some responsible position and place of trust or that they may have a chance to prove that they are what they say. We would like to inform our friends, for such they claim to be, that our business men are meeting with thousands of such people every day. Thousands of people who claim to be honest and seeking some means to display their honesty, are in the world, and it is a notable fact that ninety-nine of every hundred of these men who are continually trying to put themselves off on strangers as honest men are rascals of the broadest type. It is an old maxim in business, that you must believe every man a rascal until he has proved himself otherwise. And the business men who take the opposite view of this matter are continually making failures. We have too many confidence men in this world and it will never be otherwise until our business men come to distrust strangers until they have seen their honesty proven.

Nehawka.
EDITOR HERALD.—Not seeing our section of the country represented, and not willing to let the progress and misfortunes of the people remain a secret. Thought I would venture to disclose a few. Corn planting is rather slow business, now owing to the weather. Although several of the farmers have near half their corn in the first time. In our opinion it will need replanting. We understand Nehawka is to have a new church, the Holy Divines are around with their subscription papers. It will be a United Brethren. Nehawka is destined to have the county seat, so Weeping Water is gone up the spout. Mr. Joseph West's team ran away the other day spilling his girl and his sister out on the wire fence but guess no one was hurt, at least we hope not. We understand Mr. Schlichtemeier has about his usual stock of horses, all of his being burned sometime ago. Frank Sheldon is selling very reasonable, and he has got a good trade, too. The postoffice has been removed to his store, it formally being about one quarter of a mile west of the city. Mr. Pollard still retains the office, though HATCHET.

Nehawka, May 11, 1888.
Y. M. C. A.
A cordial invitation is extended to all men to attend the informal song and gospel meeting tomorrow (Sunday) afternoon at 4 o'clock in the Presbyterian church. Rev. M. A. Hampton will conduct the meeting. The topic is "Manly Christianity." Come, you will be cordially received.

Special.
The services at the M. E. church tomorrow will be specially interesting. There are several to be received into full connection, quite a number to be baptized, and the opportunity will be given for any one wishing to do so, to unite with the church. Mrs. Dean will also aid in the singing.

Republican Club.
There will be a meeting of the Young Men's Republican Club Monday evening, May 14, for the election of officers and the transaction of such other business as shall properly come before the meeting. A full attendance is desired.
