CITY CORDIALS.

—Again has the clouds disappeared and the sun begun to shine and we are ready for spring poetry. —Saunders county is proud of the twelve votes cast for Capt. H. E. Palmer of Cass county for delegate-at-large.—Wahoo Wasp. —The furniture of the Perkins house was sold under mortgage sale yesterday at the Riddle house and T. W. Riddle bid it in and keeps the furniture in the house. —The contract for building the court house at Lincoln was let to W. H. B. Stout, the commissioners reserving the right to make their choice of the kind of stone to be used. —One of the road graders was out on the street yesterday scraping down some of the large bumps occasioned by the much travel through the streets during the muddy weather. —Wahoo had a sensation the other day caused by a warrant being issued for the arrest of Ed Brodhead one of her respected citizens for grand larceny. Brodhead has not yet been found. —The report that Guy A. Brown, supreme court reporter, was dangerously ill is said to be untrue and that his health is as good as it has been for a year. He is now recruiting at Colorado Springs. —It is rumored that we are to have two more barber shops in Plattsmouth. With our present number and two more added, our citizens certainly ought to keep smooth faces and neatly trimmed hair. —W. F. Keefe has rented a house of J. H. Waterman and will move his family here as soon as the house can be put in shape to live in. We are glad to welcome the family to our city and hope that their stay here may be a pleasant one. —Max Anton an employee of the B. & M. shops, left this morning for McCook to work in the shops there. We are sorry to lose Mr. Anton, but every man must go where duty calls him and as the company desired him to go there, we must give him up. —The A. O. U. W. picnic has been postponed from May 23, to June 13, on account of the cold weather. This office has today turned out some large posters for the order inviting all members of the L. O. U. W., and their friends to attend the picnic. —I have this to say of the country editor. He is honest and hardworking. If he is moved, I might say governed, by a devotion to principle to which his metropolitan brother is a stranger. In his friendships he is outspoken, and unflinching. He is true to his people and his mission. —Roscoe Conkling. —The Nebraska State Sunday School convention will be held at York from May 22 to 24 inclusive. An excellent program has been prepared and an excellent time is expected. Arrangements have been made whereby delegates will be carried to and from the convention at one and one-third fare for the round trip. —The Presbyterian concert last night in Rockwood hall was a success in every way, and the program was carried out as published last night; the zither and violin playing was very fine and brought forth loud applause. Miss Coble who is only twelve or thirteen years old showed a great deal of skill and musical talent in playing the violin. All of the performers did exceedingly well but there are too many to speak of the merits of each one. The following are those who received accolades: Mrs. Clark and Miss Coble, W. A. Derrick, Master Hilt Westcott who performed on a mouth organ, and Mr. Eigenbrodt who was called back twice; his piece which he composed himself will be found in another place.

—Miss Edna Bell, of Missouri Valley, Iowa, is in the city. We understand she will apply for a position in our public schools for the coming year. There is a splendid chance for those desiring instructions in fine oil painting at Robbins' studio, just call and see what has already been accomplished. —The patent fence manufacturer has been on Main street manufacturing fence for the last two days. A pretty good patent and a cheap, substantial way of making fence. —One of the neat pieces of workmanship is the painting of the transom over the door of the Riddle house by P. Elingson of this city. The letters are artistically arranged and the shades almost perfect. —The United labor party held their convention in Cincinnati on the 17th, and nominated R. H. Cowdrey, of Illinois, for President and W. R. Wakefield, of Council Grove, Kas., for vice-president. Cowdrey is a druggist of Chicago and Wakefield is an editor and monopolist. —The city is being adorned with a shooting gallery on Main street. It would seem to us that there has been about enough shooting going on in the streets of our city lately, and such places for gathering crowds should be entirely prohibited in the city. —The action of Mayor Richey in prohibiting the street concerts after lamp light is to be commended by all. Everything which tends to draw mixed crowds of people together should be prohibited after night. All such things only tend to create a disturbance and we are having enough of them at present. —The Lincoln Democrat says that no matter what the people say Attorney General Leese will be renominated by the republican convention if he wants the nomination and there is no use to kick. This may be true but we have failed to hear any one kicking about the Atty. General's renomination except by a few democrats who are anxious for the office themselves. Mr. Leese has made a good record and if he desires the office and can get the nomination, let him have it for a third term or even a fourth for that matter. —It is reported that some third party ministers attended the district convention at Ashland last week, to ascertain how many republicans went into saloons. Lest it might transpire that not enough would enter them, to make a harrowing and blood-curdling tale, they took a position in front of one and expressly called the attention of all who passed to the fact that here was the place to get a drink. Verily the ministers are learning the way of politics. Soon they will be as skillful as any in laying traps and pitfalls for their enemies.—Valparaiso Tribune. — We learn from reliable sources that Freeman Knowles formerly editor of the Ceresco Neb. Times, but now of the Tilford Dakota Times has come out a straight democrat. Two years ago Mr. Knowles was nominated by the republicans of Saunders county for county attorney but was defeated by the democratic nominee for that position whereupon he went into the prohibition camp and last year was run by that party for county judge of Saunders county and again defeated, this time by a republican. While at Ceresco Mr. Knowles advocated the temperance cause very strongly through his paper and also was a strong labor advocate and was classed as the only anarchist in Saunders county. It will no doubt be a great source of consolation to his prohibition friends to know that he has taken a wise course and gone into the democratic party, the friends of the prohibition cause, (?) instead of returning to the republican party. It is a singular thing that almost every "sore head" office seeker will usually go the round about road through another party to get into their once enemy's camp. We have long predicted that the majority of the prohibition party would land into the democratic camp before many years roll round, and one by one they are going.

THE LATEST HIT. (Composed and Sung by Mr. A. Eigenbrodt.) At the mouth of the Platte People live and grow fat, And enjoy the blessings of health, With Plattsmouth their home They cease to roam, And most of them accumulate wealth.

It is said, you know, That this town cannot grow, Being too near the Metropolis, But arrest your fears And wait a few years, 'Till she'll extend her domain to Oreapolis. A street car line This town to combine, With Mercer's great M. P. station, Will surely create A boom in real estate And increase the city's population. A bridge pontoon Would be a great boon We would cross the river with ease, From state to state At a rapid rate, But what would become of Katie Pease In superficial appearance There is some later fearance And people at our town do scoff, But the time is quite near When they must cease to jeer, These hills we will sand paper off. There are Dovey's three And Cal. Parnelle, Jim Patterson and Joe Weckbach cleve'r With men of their nerve Her interests to serve, She'll continue her growth forever. There is C. M. Weed Full of business indeed, Store keeper for the B. & M. R. And David Hawksworth, A mechanic by berth And posted on engine and car. There is M. Hartigan And Judge Sullivan, And many that walk the rame road, The people's advice In words concise They give concerning the code. General Livingston and Dr. Shipman, Sig. line, Cook, Hall and Schildkn ect, With the greatest of skill Their missions they fill, And cheerfully care for our sick. In schemes that loom And projects that boom, And matters that live and progress Will be found at the front And chief in the hunt, The men of the Plattsmouth press, We have counicilled eight And a mayor sedate, And twice in each month they do meet With signs over the door We have merchants a score Whose enterprise scarce can be beat.

South Park Items. J. L. Minor has completed an ornamental fence around his yard and painted it in an artistic manner. J. V. Weckbach has got the basement of his new house ready for the second story. I. Kalsky is moving into his new residence on Clinton Avenue, just completed by Mr. Pickens. I. N. Glenn will soon move his family to Lincoln where he has been assigned work by the railroad company. T. W. Faught has commenced the erection of a fine residence on Howell street. South Park is swarming with the feathery tribe, and the woods fairly ring with their musical notes. The new Driving Park Association are laying out their track, which will be the finest half-mile track in the state when completed. Ex-Mayor Simpson's new residence on Clinton Avenue is well under headway and when completed will add to the good appearance of that part of the Park. The handsome residence built by Mr. Tutt last fall is being enclosed by a new fence. S. A. Speakman's new dwelling house will soon be completed. The city council should open up an extension of Clinton Avenue to Chicago Avenue. It would be the most popular street in the city. South Park, so rumor has it, is soon to have a meat market and grocery store. They will do well. Why not have a big Fourth of July celebration in South Park this year.
