CITY CORDIALS.

Judge Russell issued a marriage license today to Wm. Lineback and Miss Mollie Hardy of Weeping Water.

A permit to wed was yesterday issued by Judge Russell to J. W. Smith and Mollie Johnson, both of this county.

It is rumored that O. A. Rothacker is to take a place on the editorial staff of the Omaha Herald. Mr. Rothacker is an old time democrat and a brilliant writer and should he take a place on the Herald he will make her boom.

Our neighbor state, Iowa, seems to be getting into quite a muddle over an investigation of her State University.
Some of her people are waxing quite warm over things that have been brought to light in the investigation.

The interstate drill encampment met in Nashville, Tenn., yesterday. Fifty companies from fifteen different states were represented. Great enthusiasm was shown by the citizens and one of the grandest times ever witnessed is expected.

Lincoln seems to be trying herself in the arrangements of parks. Last Sunday a new one was opened by the Street railway Co., and they already have some good ones and with these continual additions she will soon be known as the city of parks.

There will be a business meeting of the Young Men's Christian Association held tonight at the Presbyterian church. There is important business to be transacted and a full attendance is desired. Let all the members attend this meeting and help to transact the business.

An Illinois newspaper man committed suicide the other day because he was dunned for ninety cents. Creditors should remember this. Editors are so exquisitely sensitive that they are liable to go off and shoot themselves at any moment when bills are flourished in their faces.—Lincoln Journal.

T. W. Riddle went to Omaha this morning to buy his furniture for the barber shop and bath room. The carpenters are at work now fitting up the room for the shop and the barbers will be here today, and soon everything will be in readiness for work. This is to be one of the finest shops of the city and we have no doubt but that the enterprise will be liberally patronized by our citizens.

The dance given at Fitzgerald's hall last night by the earnest workers of the B. of L. E. and F. was a grand success.
A large number was present and the prize of silver fruit basket and napkin ring was awarded to Geo. Oliver and Miss Hines as the best waltzers in attendance.
The evening was highly enjoyed by all present and the earnest workers deserve great credit for their efficient management.

The committee of the M. E. Conference appointed to select a place for the meeting of the next general conference have reported in favor of Omaha. This does not really give a final decision but it is very seldom that the conference changes the decision of the committee.
Omaha is to be congratulated on her success over her competitors and we predict that when the general conference assembles in 1892 she will be eminently proud of the selection made by the committee.
Truly Omaha is becoming a noted city.

The manner in which some of the violators of the law are having justice meted out to them is commendable of our city authorities. If the same course was meted to all in all cases as it was to those yesterday, who were guilty of violating the laws of the city and state we would have less depredations to contend with than we do. This idea of letting men violate the law just because they are personal friends of ours is poor policy. We believe that every man who knowingly and wilfully violates the law should be punished to the fullest extent of the law, and should this be put to practice there would be very few such cases coming up before our courts. What is the use of having laws if they are not obeyed?

The prospect for a generous crop in the west was never better at this season probably, than today. The copious rains, falling so evenly, so softly and so generally, is almost a guarantee that the farmers will find their industry a most lucrative one for '88. A recent trip in various sections of Nebraska, extending from one end of the state to the other, enables us to predict a full yield and an immense acreage. In the Western portion of the state, where rains have not been just as was most desired, this year it has come as gently and soaking as could be wished by the most chronic kicker. Vegetation has grown at a wonderful pace and we doubt if any state in the Union can point to as satisfactory a condition for field crops for 1888 as Nebraska.—Western Resources.

THE ABSENT ONE.

He is gone, he is gone, but the light of his brow ?
When at midnight alone, flashes o're me as I row ?
And in dreams the sweet smile, and the light of his eye,
My senses beguile, and I breathe forth a sigh.
He is gone, he is gone, but his image is here, And the musical tone of his voice is still near.
It steals o'er my slumbers like a spirit's sweet shell,
And calls forth its numbers from memory's cell.
He is gone, he is gone, but he knows not the pain
Of a heart all his own, till he comes back 'gain, And gives to Wyoming his charm and power ; Bereft, e'en in spring, of his fairest flower.
—LILLIE.

IN HONOR OF INCALLS.

Resolutions Adopted by the Young Men's Republican Club.
The following are resolutions, which of this city have sent to Senator Ingalls: WHEREAS, Senator Voorhees of Indiana made an unjustifiable attack upon Senator John J. Ingalls in the senate of the United States, and that talented senator administered such rebuke to the domineering senator from Indiana as the nature of the attack deserved. And WHEREAS, This rebuke justly and properly administered, meets with the cordial approval of all those whose bravery upon the battle-field thwarted the designs of Senator Voorhees and his political associates in disrupting our nation. Now therefore Resolved, That the Young Men's Republican Club of Plattsburgh Nebraska, extend their hearty congratulations to Senator Ingalls upon his display of such masterly ability in administering this deserved castigation to the disloyal senator from Indiana. And further.
Resolved, That our club hope and trust that the day may come when we may have the pleasure of assisting to elect him to the highest position in the gift of the people of our beloved country.

City Council.
The city council met last night and we were not there but through the kindness of city clerk Fox we learned that several important matters were attended to. The first being the report of the board of public works on the bids for the construction of sewer. The bids of Henry Hobbs and W. F. Shelton being the lowest they were awarded the contract and their bonds approved. The work to begin June 15th and to be completed Oct.
1st 1888, also committee on cemetery were instructed to have fence built on south side of cemetery at the former contract price. There being no further business the council adjourned

Wants to Know The Reason.
To the Honorable President of the Board of Education, of Plattsburgh: Sir: Will you be kind enough to explain by what authority you permit a fee to be charged for admittance to the high school commencement exercises. We think it a usurpation and a direct violation of the principles of a public school both in letter and spirit. Will you please answer and oblige many patrons of the school. A PATRON.

Y. M. C. A.
There will be special business meeting of the Young Men's Christian Association this evening at 8 o'clock, in the Presbyterian church. All members and all who are interested in this work are kindly requested to be present.
—The Chicago Herald gets on its ear and calls Senator Ingalls some pretty hard names because he won't let Voorhees get the last shot. Better be careful brother, there has been times when it became necessary for democrats of high standing to make apologies for their bad language, besides we are of the opinion that Senator Ingalls has about as good right to talk as most of the democrats.
—Persons sending communications to THE HERALD will oblige us by sending their full name. Not for publication but as a guarantee of good faith to the publisher. It has been a long established rule among publishers to fire everything into the waste basket that comes in with out the full name and it is a rule that must be observed in this office.

—The programs are out announcing the commencement exercises of the high school, Friday evening, the 25th. An excellent program has been arranged and all who attend will be highly entertained The citizens of Plattsburgh should feel proud of their school in its being able to prepare and give such entertainments.
—Arrangements are being made for a public fountain in the city. This is a step in the right direction. The city can well afford to expend a little money for the accommodation of her people and patrons. It wouldn't be money thrown away to have several of them.

—The grace with which the democrats concede the unanimous renomination of President Cleveland shows conclusively that the Wall street brokers of New York have their thumb on that party and are able to dictate for it in their own terms.
—John Boone says he wants the fellow who broke the catch on his screen door, while trying to get into his house last night, to come around and fix it, or he will sue him for damages.
—Wymore celebrated her seventh anniversary yesterday with appropriate exercises. Gov. Thayer, Gen. Stone and others were in attendance and a good time was enjoyed.

Henry Lehnoff, of Center precinct, father-in-law of ex-deputy county clerk Chas McPherson is visiting in the city today.
HIGH SCHOOL NOTES.
Only three days more is a remark you could hear from the faithful but tired teacher this morning.
Trees planted Arbor Day are all growing, except about six, but some miserable, worthless image of humanity, with no respect for himself or anyone else, has cut and ruined two or three of the growing trees. Well, we presume such curs will always have an existence in civilized communities, but why, we cannot explain.
The blue grass and clover is coming nicely and with a reasonable season the grounds will be well covered with it by the first of September.
Why is it our city authorities do not enforce the cow ordinances? Is our marshal to timid? If so he had better resign. A group of cows can be seen on the school grounds most any time.
This is a busy week for Prof. Drummond and it is astonishing at the amount of work he will do in a short time, and the teachers are noted for following his example.
Mr. Waugh and Mr. Showalter, members of the board, were welcome visitors this morning. Come again, gentlemen.
Oh! Say, why is it that visitors, especially the ladies, persist in carrying away a memento of the occasion in the shape of a twig from our evergreen trees. They commence to look as if a cyclone had struck them. Please don't.

—The Omaha Bee wants $425,000 spent in improving the Missouri within the corporate limits of three or four Iowa and Nebraska towns, and is inclined to abuse the president because it fears he will veto the bill. The Bee is the same old hog. No robbery is too big for its endorsement if Omaha gets a part of the swag. There is no decent reason why the people of the country should sweat taxes into the treasury for the improvement of city property.—Lincoln Democrat. And will the Democrat inform an anxious public why it always kicks when any public money is expended that does not directly benefit Lincoln?
—John Black is having a new sidewalk put down in front of his residence.
