OMAHA WINS THE PRIZE.

The Decision Made Yesterday, and a Committee Appointed--Other Proceedings.

NEW YORK, May 30.—At the session of the general Methodist conference today the following resolutions were adopted:

The new rule of the pastoral service shall be applied as follows: At the session of any annual conference next following this general conference, a preacher may be appointed to a charge which he has not served for the three years preceding, and be continued thereafter in said charge for five years, and a pastor now serving a charge which he has not served for three years preceding in present pastorate, may be continued through the full term of five years. In all other cases the rule of five years in ten shall be strictly applied.

The report on temporal economy, providing for the better care of supernumerary ministers, was read.

Rev. D. P. Kidder was made honorary secretary of the board of education.

Omaha was selected as the place of meeting of the next general conference, and a committee of seven appointed to confer with the Omaha churches.

It was decided that during the months of October or November, 1890, an election shall be held in the various churches throughout the union, that each member of 21 years of age shall be given an oath relative to the admission of women as lay delegates, the result to be sent to the annual conference in 1891.

The remainder of the session was taken up in discussion of the report about uniformity of public worship.

Threatened Strike of Coal Miners.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., May 30.—A general strike of the 5,000 coal miners in the Warrior coal fields and the shutting down of all the furnaces in this city is imminent. Since the strike of the miners at Pratt mines there has been a general feeling of dissatisfaction among all the miners and secret meetings have been numerous. The Pratt mine strike was followed by the men at Coalburg going out Saturday last because they were refused an advance of 5c per ton. The miners at all the mines are demanding 10c to 15c per ton more than they did one year ago, when coke, coal and iron were worth more than at present. Mine owners can not stand the advance and miners seem to be controlled by the agitating striking element among them. It is rumored today, and has been officially denied, that a strike has been ordered at all the mines in the Warrior coal field, to begin June first.

River Ravages Opposite Sioux City.

SIoux CITY, Io., May 30.—The Missouri river has begun its ravages here again, and since yesterday morning has cut 150 feet into the shore on the Nebraska side directly opposite this city. The cutting was so rapid that buildings could not be removed and a two-story building owned by Nick Deyson is hanging over the water and will fall soon. If the cutting keeps up at the same rate, the entire town of Covington will be swept away in a few days. The bank there is 10 or 15 feet high and great masses become disengaged and fall into the rapid current every few minutes. Several years ago a good share of the original town site was engulfed and last summer a large tract of the Iowa side was swallowed up.

Eight Mile Grove.

Daniel Kiser is all smiles since he returned from St. Louis with his new bride. Ran Minford's Texas pony run into the barb wire fence the other day and cut one of his feet very badly.

Hon. Jas. Hall took a few days recreation since the frost cut down his early potatoes, and destroyed his pumpkin vines.

J. R. Vallery sent over a very large herd of cattle which he gathered up, to have landed on his vast scope of land near Valparaiso this season.

The past two weeks has been very good weather for house-cleaning, and the ladies of the neighborhood are improving the time.

Dr. John Bready, of Union, who was to locate here, changed his mind, and has gone to Manley. Doubtless he made a good exchange.

Nearly all of our farmers are done planting corn, and many are replanting their first planting, as the cold, wet weather, cut worms, and wire worms have destroyed so much of the seed they are compelled to do so.

Hardon Minford, the son of one of our old citizens, and Mrs. Correl, of Mt. Pleasant, were married on Thursday. It was very quiet, only a family affair. They have a host of young friends who wish them a long and happy life.

Saturday night a bolt of lightning struck and killed four head of cows for Aaron Batterson, living two miles east of the Grove. A bolt of lightning also struck the chimney of the M. E. church, tore it down, run down the wall, tearing off the plastering as it went, until it reached the ground, otherwise it did no damage to the building.

ONE OF MANY.

ONCE MORE BEDECKED.

Written For THE HERALD.

Once more bedecked, those silent graves,
Where lies beneath the noble brave,
Who once with valor trod their beat
Lies silent in their long retreat.
Sacred are those in each loyal breast.
The noblest that's gone to rest.
Peace, dear comrades, calmly sleep,
While many o'er thy silence weep;
Thy race is run, thy vocation here—
Free from toil and human gear.
You fought the battles and won the race,
And hath gone hence to a better place.
We've crowned the marshes with fragrant flowers,
In remembrance of thy perilous hours;
We adorned the covering—old mother earth—
Then in silence returned to our myrrh.
We'll ever be mindful, remembering the past,
Time is passing, we'll get there at last,
May the stars and stripes forever wave
With honor o'er the veteran's grave.
—C. BOOSE, Co. B, 13th In., S. C. I.

Salaries of High Tens?

The salaries of leading chefs in private families already in New York range from $150 to $300 a month. They, too, receive commissions, and in large places employ their own assistants, consisting of a meat and pastry cook and a kitchen girl to peel vegetables and do other work of a similar character. And it is not an unusual thing for the chef to get a percentage out of the wages which are paid to these subordinates. The chief cook at Delmonico's receives $8,000 a year and a share of the profits of the establishment after they have passed $200,000. He shares these supplementary profits with the acting manager of the establishment, and they are said to be very considerable. His income is supposed to be somewhere between $12,000 and $15,000 annually.

Like all enthusiastic chefs he is devoted to those patrons of the establishment who give good dinners and who understand them. And he caters to them in a way that no presents of money could possibly secure. When such patrons come along the waiter receives a card with the two letters inscribed on it, "S. A.," meaning special attention, and this is done merely to favor the patron but to satisfy the cook, who insists on having his favorite dishes properly served, just as a poet desires to have his poems recited with a proper emphasis and appreciation.—New York World.

Treatment of Pauper Consumptives.

No hospital or dispensary physician in our large cities can fail to recognize the utter feebleness and inutility of the present methods of treating pauper and indigent consumptives. Dr. Seibert has averred that among poor Germans dispensary treatment not only fails to cure, but even sensibly to relieve this class. Dr. Paul H. Kretschmar confessed to an experience nearly similar. In the hospitals the story is not quite so bad. Many patients in the first stage improve for a time, but the percentage of cures is extremely small, and most cases progress rapidly to the worse. In New York city there are some 30,000 cases of consumption, with 5,000 annual deaths. If society provided sufficient means of treatment, at least 15 or 20 per cent. of them could be cured and restored to useful citizenship.—Medical Record.

in a More Delicate Form.

A little girl seeing her mother petting and caressing another child began to show unmistakable signs of jealousy. Her mother remarked: "Why, Sadie, I believe you are jealous." "No, mamma," she replied, indignantly, "I'm not jealous, but I don't feel comfortable."—Philadelphia Record.

Why Money Doesn't Count.

There are abundant reasons why money should count for less in society here than it does abroad. Rich men are numerous among us. Wealth is accumulated with ease, and dissipated with rapidity. Millionaires are almost as plentiful as English sparrows. We are familiar with their presence and familiar also with the fact that riches are often found without the qualities that afford pleasure to intelligent people. Those who are the joy and pride of the most select society are frequently people of moderate estate. The parlor in which it is most difficult to obtain admission is not generally that of the richest man in the city.—James Breck Perkins in Cosmopolitan.
